FLAGS.

FLAGS.

FLAGS TO BE USED BY DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR OFFICERS.

The usual sizes are as follows:—

For use on shore	3 breadths, i.e. , 12 feet by 6 feet.
For use on shore when specially ordered	4 breadths, i.e. , 6 feet by 3 feet.
For use on boats	12 breadths, i.e. , 18 feet by 9 feet.
For use on board ship	3 breadths, i.e. , 4 feet 6 inches by 2 feet 3 inches.
	8 breadths, i.e. , 12 feet by 6 feet.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Diplomatic Servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., whether on shore or embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Union, with the Royal Arms in the centre thereof, on a white shield, surrounded by a green garland.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers ashore, to distinguish their residences, is the Union, with the Tudor Crown in the centre thereof, on a white shield.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers, when embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Blue Ensign, with the Royal Arms in the centre of the fly thereof—that is, in the centre of that part between the Union and the end of the flag. The Consular Blue Ensign, being a personal distinguishing flag, must in boats be flown at the bow, and not at the stern, which is the accepted position for the national colours. No further flag is necessary, but if for some special reason it is desired to fly a flag at the stern, this should be the Red Ensign. The Consular flag is hoisted in boats only and not in ships except when a salute is being given to the Consular Officer concerned, when it is hoisted at the fore.

The distinguishing Flags to be used by Diplomatic and Consular Officers when afloat were approved by Order in Council of August 7, 1869—see below.

ORDER IN COUNCIL, RESPECTING UNION JACKS AND OTHER FLAGS DISPLAYED BY BRITISH DIPLOMATIC, CONSULAR, AND OTHER AUTHORITIES.

AUGUST 7, 1869.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 31st July, 1869, in the words following, viz:—

“The Union Jack having been established by your Majesty's Regulations for the Naval Service as the distinguishing flag to be borne by the Admiral of the Fleet; and whereas great inconvenience has at times been experienced by the Union Jack having been carried in boats and other vessels by Governors of Colonies, Military Authorities, Diplomatic Officers, and Consular Agents, when embarked, we have deemed it expedient to place ourselves in communication on this subject with the Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's Forces and the Principal Secretaries of State for Foreign Affairs, for the Colonies and for War, and with their concurrence we most humbly submit that your Majesty may be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to prescribe and direct that in future the Union Jack to be displayed by the military branch of your Majesty's Service on such occasions shall bear in the centre thereof, as a distinguishing mark, the Royal initial, surrounded by a garland on a blue shield, and surmounted by the Crown; that the Union Jack to be used by your Majesty's diplomatic servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., shall bear the Royal Arms in the centre thereof, on a white shield; whilst Consuls and Consular Agents, &c., shall be limited to the use of the blue ensign, with the Royal Arms in the fly thereof; we further submit that Governors of your Majesty's dominions in foreign parts, and Governors of all ranks and denominations administering the Governments of British colonies and dependencies, be authorized to fly the Union Jack, with the arms or badge of the colony emblazoned in the centre thereof.

“A drawing of the Union Jack, with the proposed distinguishing devices, is transmitted herewith for your Majesty's approval.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, the Most Noble the Duke of Argyll, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

NOTE.—British Subjects resident abroad are at liberty to fly their National flag, the Union Jack, on land, unless the Municipal law of the foreign State in which they reside prohibits the use of foreign flags.

PENSIONS.

The following is a brief summary of the main pension provisions applicable to established members of the Foreign Service. Superannuation law and practice are closely controlled by Acts of Parliament and Service Regulations, and this summary is not intended to be an interpretation of law, or a complete exposition of practice.

No person has an absolute right to pension, and the decision of the Treasury is final in all matters concerning superannuation payments. Amounts which have been granted, or might otherwise be granted, may be reduced, or forfeited altogether, in cases of dement.

Established members of the Foreign Service, with any exceptions as shown below, are eligible for pension under the Superannuation Acts, which govern Civil Servants' pensions. The principal Acts are those of 1859, 1909, and 1935.

The 1859 Act provided for a pension equal to 1/60th of annual salary for each year of service up to 40 years. This Act covers officers who did not elect, or were rejected, for the 1909 Act.

The 1909 Act provided for a pension of 1/80th of annual salary for each year of service up to 40 years, together with a lump sum of 1/30th of annual salary (actual or average, as indicated below) for each year of service up to 45 years. The lump sum is increased by one half per cent. for each year of service before the 1909 Act (men), or the 1935 Act (women). The Act also provides for a gratuity equal to at least one year's salary (actual or average) to the legal personal representative of an officer dying in harness after not less than 5 years' service. This Act covers officers not under the 1859 Act.

The 1935 Act made the 3-year "averaging" of salary universal, and the lump sum was increased to 3/80ths of average annual salary for each year of service up to 40 years. Officers then serving were given the option to remain on the old basis, which laid down that annual salary on which pension and gratuity are calculated is the actual salary at the date of retirement, if the officer has been in the same grade or on the same salary for three years preceding retirement; if he has not, the average salary during the three years preceding retirement is taken as the annual salary for pension purposes.

The 1935 Act enables an officer retiring for reasons other than ill health, subject to certain conditions, to surrender a part of pension to secure an annuity to wife or husband, or one named dependant. The annuity varies according to the ages of the pensioner and the beneficiary as shown in tables prepared by the Government Actuary.

As a general rule, for entrants after March 1, 1948, pension will be abated to take account of the retiring pension under National Insurance provisions at age 65 (men) and 60 (women).

A minimum of 10 years' actual service is an essential qualification for pension.

The normal retiring age is 60, and the compulsory retiring age is 65. For officers of the former China Consular Service who continue to serve at posts normally staffed from that Service, the retiring age is 55. (Special provision is made for unavoidable absence from such posts during the war period). If service is exceptionally extended beyond the compulsory retiring age the lump sum is reduced by 1/20th for each completed year of service beyond that age.

Service at posts specially scheduled for the purpose is reckoned for pension as 1½ times actual service.

Temporary salaried service prior to establishment and subsequent to 31st December, 1918, counts as to one half for pension calculations.

Retirement on the ground of ill health is subject to the production and acceptance of a reliable medical certificate as to incapacity to render further service. A gratuity not exceeding 1/12th of average annual salary for each year of service may be awarded on retirement through ill health before the completion of 10 years' service. A gratuity of 3/80ths of average annual salary for each year of service (after two years' service) may also be awarded.

Officers retiring before the normal retiring age may be required, subject to fitness, to serve again.

For income tax purposes pension is regarded as earned income.

In the event of an officer being injured in the actual discharge of his duties, and without his own default, and by some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, a gratuity or annual allowance may be awarded to him, or if he dies from the injury, to his widow (while unmarried) and children, or, if there is no widow, to his mother (while unmarried) if wholly dependent upon him.

Marriage gratuities may be granted to women officers who resign on marriage after 6 years' service. These amount to one month's pay for each year of established service, subject to a maximum of 12 months' pay.

Under the Diplomatic Salaries Act of 1869, the Treasury could grant pensions of defined amounts according to rank, subject to a minimum period of 15 years since the officer's first Commission, and of 10 years service abroad.

Any existing member of the Diplomatic Service at the time of the passing of the Superannuation (Diplomatic Service) Act of 1929 could opt to remain under the Diplomatic Salaries Act 1869. Otherwise that Act ceased to have effect, and the Superannuation Acts 1834 to 1919 were applied to persons then in the Diplomatic Service, with the addition to the lump sum of one half per cent. for each completed year of service up to the passing of the 1929 Act. New entrants to the Diplomatic Service after the passing of the Act came under its provisions.

Under the Foreign Service Act of 1943 pension and lump sum may be granted to an officer of grade not lower than Grade 8 of Branch A or Grade 4 of Branch B who, having served for not less than 10 years, is retired before the normal retiring age, having regard to his qualifications and conditions existing in the Service. In such cases special increases of the pension and the lump sum may be awarded.

At the time when this Edition of the Foreign Office List was in preparation, further legislation was under consideration. The principal change involved would be the provision of pensions for widows and grants for dependent children, and a reduction of the lump sum payable on death or retirement.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence to their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between CONSULAR OFFICERS and OFFICERS of the FIGHTING SERVICES.

The comparative precedence of Consuls and of Officers in His Majesty's Fighting Services is as follows:—

Agents and Consuls-General or Commissioners and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals, and with, but after, Rear-Admirals, except in the cases of the Agents and Consuls-General in Egypt and Zanzibar,* who, occupying positions similar to those of Governors, take precedence of all Flag Officers. (See King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, Art. 98, Clause (a).)

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals, Major-Generals, Air Vice-Marshal.

Consuls rank with, but after, Captains, R.N., Colonels, and Group Captains in the Air Force.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Lieutenant-Commanders, Majors, and Squadron Leaders in the Air Force.

Consular Agents rank with, but after, Lieutenants R.N., Captains in the Army and Flight Lieutenants.

Consular Officers take precedence amongst their colleagues in their respective grades according to the dates of the issue of their exequaturs.

PRECEDENCE between DIPLOMATIC and COMMERCIAL DIPLOMATIC OFFICERS and NAVAL, MILITARY and AIR OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

(i) Naval, Military and Air Attachés at His Majesty's Embassies and Missions abroad, irrespective of their rank, have Place and Precedence next in succession after the Diplomatic Counsellor, or at posts where the Staff does not include a Diplomatic Counsellor, next in succession after Diplomatic 1st Secretaries.

(ii) Assistant Naval, Military and Air Attachés at His Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, irrespective of their rank, have Place and Precedence next in succession after Diplomatic 2nd Secretaries, excepting at posts where such Assistant Attachés are the only resident Naval, Military or Air representatives, in which case their Place and Precedence will be governed by the provisions of paragraph (i) above as though they held substantive appointments.

(iii) For the purposes of the local diplomatic list, seniority amongst officers of the Foreign Service depends on the date of promotion to the same or equivalent substantive grade (for grades, see under "SALARIES"). Order of precedence in the local list will not affect the general arrangement whereby the officer who takes charge in the absence of the Head of the Mission is the senior officer handling political work.

* No longer applicable to Egypt and Zanzibar.

PROPERTY OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.

(Embassies and Legations.)

REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE OCCUPATION OF EMBASSY AND LEGATION HOUSES, THE PROPERTY OF, OR LEASED BY, HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.

The following Regulations in regard to the occupation, use, and maintenance of lands, buildings, furnishings, &c., held by His Majesty's Government in foreign countries for the use of Diplomatic Officers, are issued under the joint authority of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the Minister of Works.

GENERAL.

Definition of "Officer-in-Charge."

1. For the purpose of these Regulations the description "Officer-in-Charge" is used to denote an Ambassador, a Minister, a Chargé d'Affaires, or any other occupant of an official residence.

The Officer-in-Charge to sign an undertaking.

2. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for such charge in the manner prescribed by these Regulations and, on entering into occupation he shall be required to sign an undertaking in the form shown in the Appendix.

Disputes.

3. The Minister of Works shall, after consultation with the Officer-in-Charge when necessary, decide all matters relating to the maintenance and preservation of Government property and to the expenditure of moneys thereon from public funds. If, however, the Officer-in-Charge should be dissatisfied with the decision of the Minister, it shall be open to him to appeal therefrom to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. Should the Secretary of State concur in the decision of the Minister, such decision shall be treated as final and conclusive. In the event of the Secretary of State dissenting from the decision of the Minister, the matter in dispute shall be referred to the Lord Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision thereon shall be recognised as final and conclusive by all the parties concerned.

Inventories.

4. At each residence shall be kept inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to His Majesty's Government, and copies of all instructions and regulations relating to the management of the same. Duplicate copies of such documents will be retained in the Ministry of Works.

Unauthorised alterations or additions to buildings, furnishings, &c.

5. The residence and its fittings and furnishings shall be deemed complete and suitable in all respects and no alteration or addition of any kind whatsoever to buildings, fittings, or furnishings nor any additional hiring shall be paid for from public funds, unless such alteration, addition or additional hiring shall have been previously approved by the Ministry of Works. Should alterations or additions be made without such approval, the Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible not only for the expense of the alterations or additions, but also for the expense of restoring such buildings, fittings, or furnishings to their original state.

Inspections by the Ministry of Works.

6. From time to time, the Minister shall cause a survey of the buildings, fittings, and furnishings to be made by one of his representatives. Note will be made of any deficiency, misuse, or damage in respect of Government property, and the cost of replacing any missing article, or of making good any damage or defect arising from neglect, or unfair or improper use will be recovered from the Officer-in-Charge.

Care of buildings, furnishings, &c., during absence on leave.

7. Proper arrangements shall be made by the Officer-in-Charge for the safe custody and care of the buildings, furnishings, &c., and for the upkeep of the garden during his absence on leave, and he shall be responsible for the cost of measures taken to this end.

Change of occupation.

8. On change of occupation, the outgoing Officer-in-Charge shall inform the Ministry of Works of the probable date of his departure and shall leave the premises in a clean and habitable condition. The incoming Officer-in-Charge shall inform the Ministry of Works of the probable date on which he will take up occupation and, on arrival, he or his representative shall at once check the inventories and certify that the fittings and furnishings are in good condition (fair wear and tear excepted) and complete; or alternatively, report to the Ministry of Works at once any deficiencies or damage so that, if arising from neglect or unfair or improper use the cost may be recovered from the outgoing Officer-in-Charge. In the absence of such a report, the incoming Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for any damage or deficiencies noted at a later date.

To facilitate the checking of the inventories, the outgoing Officer-in-Charge shall cause all articles temporarily moved from room to room to be returned to the positions indicated in the inventories and all keys to be attached to their respective articles.

Custody of buildings, furnishings, &c., pending arrival of new Officer-in-Charge.

9. During the interval between the departure of the outgoing Officer-in-Charge and the arrival of the incoming Officer-in-Charge, or on the death of the Officer-in-Charge, the Officer-in-Charge of the post for the time being shall be responsible for the proper custody of the buildings, fittings and furnishings. The arrangements made to this end shall be reported at once to the Ministry of Works who will authorise any necessary expenditure pending the arrival of the new Officer-in-Charge, such as the cost of caretaking, heating, lighting and the upkeep of the garden, &c.

(Embassies and Legations.)Custody of buildings, furnishings, &c., where there are two residences.

10. At posts where there are two official residences for the use of the Officer-in-Charge, the care of the residence which is unoccupied as well as the residence which is occupied, together with the fittings and furnishings shall be the responsibility of the Officer-in-Charge, but the caretaker's wages shall be a charge upon public funds.

Precautions against fire, damage by storm, flood, &c.

11. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for the safe custody of the buildings, fittings, furnishings, &c. He shall take all reasonable precautions against fire and damage by storm or flood and he shall be held responsible for the care and periodical testing of the fire-fighting equipment supplied by the Ministry of Works. A certificate as to the condition of the fire-fighting equipment shall be forwarded annually to the Ministry of Works.

In the interests of safety he shall consult the Ministry of Works before installing any electric lighting fittings involving additional wiring or any additional electrical appliances, and in no case shall wiring "flex" be permitted to run along skirtings or picture mouldings.

Incinerators provided by the Ministry of Works shall be used for the destruction of old papers, &c., in quantity.

Loss or damage by fire, storm, flood, theft, &c., shall be reported at once to the Ministry of Works.

Contagious or infectious diseases : vermin.

12. Whenever, in consequence of the occurrence of a contagious or infectious disease in the household of an Officer-in-Charge, disinfection has become necessary in order to protect the health of the inmates, the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for providing that the premises are sufficiently disinfected, and, if requested, for procuring from a medical officer a certificate that this has been done. The Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible also for the eradication of vermin and for seeing that the residence is kept free from vermin.

Interference with rights appertaining to Government properties.

13. The Officer-in-Charge shall take all steps to protect the rights and amenities appertaining to the property of His Majesty's Government and shall report to the Ministry of Works at once any proposals affecting the same.

Occupation by unauthorised persons.

14. In no circumstances shall the buildings or land or any portion thereof be lent or sublet to or occupied or used by persons who are not entitled to accommodation at Government expense without the previous sanction of the Ministry of Works.

Hirings.

15. New premises shall not be hired or existing hirings renewed without the prior sanction of the Ministry of Works.

Auctions.

16. The holding of auctions of private effects in or upon the premises is strictly forbidden.

Requisitions and annual requirements : minor redecorations and repairs.

17. All requisitions for the erection of buildings, for alterations to buildings or for maintenance services (see paragraphs 20 and 23), or for the purchase or hiring of property, or for the supply or maintenance of fittings and furnishings (see paragraphs 30 and 32), shall be sent to the Ministry of Works accompanied by full particulars of the requirements and their estimated cost in local currency and the sterling equivalent. So far as possible such requirements shall be communicated to the Ministry of Works in reply to the enquiry issued by that Department annually in June as to the requirements of the post for the following year, so that, if approved, provision may be made in the annual Estimates; for in the absence of the necessary provision in the Estimates, it will not be possible to grant requests involving any but the smallest expenditure, except on grounds of urgency.

Where there is a local representative of the Ministry of Works (e.g., at Shanghai for the Far East, except Siam; at Istanbul for South-East Europe and the Middle East; at Tehran for Iran; and local Architects at the majority of the posts elsewhere), such officer shall be consulted by the Officer-in-Charge before submitting requisitions to the Ministry of Works.

The local representative has delegated authority to order ordinary minor redecorations and repairs to both buildings and furnishings. At posts where there is no local representative, the Officer-in-Charge will be given such delegated authority.

NOTE.—Officers of a rank below that of Head of Mission should submit their requirements through the Head of Mission.

Shipping arrangements.

18. Goods sent by the Ministry of Works should be unpacked at once and any damage or loss should be reported immediately to the local agent of the shipper and to the Ministry of Works. Should it be necessary for bills of lading to be endorsed before the goods can be examined, the endorsement should be qualified by a note explaining the circumstances, e.g., "signed in order to obtain delivery." The advice note (sent independently of the goods) states to what point delivery is to be made by the shipper, and care should be taken to avoid paying any charges properly payable by him. Usually the shipper bears all dues and outgoings (except customs duty) to the point shown in the advice note.

Addresses for correspondence.

19. Communications to the Ministry of Works should be addressed as follows:—

- (a) If they are in reply to communications from that Office in accordance with the instructions given at the head of the Ministry of Works notepaper.
- (b) By Officers-in-Charge at all posts (including Siam) elsewhere than in the Far East if they refer—

BUILDINGS.

Upkeep of buildings, &c., by the Ministry of Works.

20. The fabric of all Government buildings (including Chancery offices) together with the fixtures and fittings, boundary walls, entrance gates and approaches, shall be kept in repair by the Ministry of Works who shall be responsible also for periodical painting, papering and distempering, and for the repair and renewal of the sanitary, water, heating, lighting, refrigerating and cooking installations, except that, where cabinet refrigerators are concerned, the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for the costs of cleaning, adjustments and minor repairs, including the replacement of small parts. In the case of hired buildings, the Ministry of Works shall be responsible for such of the foregoing services as are not the landlord's responsibility.

Cleaning; cost of heating, lighting, water, &c.

21. The Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning, including the sweeping of chimneys and the cleaning of kitchen flues and boilers, tanks and cisterns. He shall defray also the cost of fuel and stoking, gas, water, oil and electric current.

Where water is supplied from wells or waterworks controlled by His Majesty's Government the cost of raising or otherwise handling the water for all purposes shall, except where other arrangements have been authorised, be borne by him.

Where an independent electric lighting plant has been provided, the Ministry of Works will bear the cost of running the plant subject to the payment by the residents of a fixed charge per unit for current consumed as may be decided upon from time to time.

Responsibility for repair of defects arising from neglect, &c.

22. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held personally responsible for the due preservation of the official fixtures and fittings and for the cost of repair of defects arising from carelessness, neglect or unfair or improper use on the part of the members of his household or his guests or from the keeping of animals and birds.

Sanction for repairs, &c.; urgent repairs

23. The sanction of the Ministry of Works shall be obtained before redecorations, repairs or renewals are effected (see paragraph 17), but when these are urgently necessary, the Officer-in-Charge may have the work done, subject to the covering approval of the Ministry of Works. The Officer-in-Charge shall, however, report the circumstances immediately and be prepared to prove the urgency and necessity of the work.

Frequency of redecorations.

24. External painting or colour washing shall not as a rule be done more frequently than once in every three or four years, nor internal redecoration more frequently than once in every six or seven years, but any necessary redecoration will be done on each change of occupation. Such work at other times than these shall not be paid for from public funds unless specially authorised beforehand by the Ministry of Works, who must be satisfied that the need for it has arisen only from fair wear and tear.

Damage by storm, fire, &c.

25. In case of damage by storm, fire, or other casualty, the Officer-in-Charge may order urgent repairs to be executed at once, bearing in mind the landlord's responsibility in the case of hired buildings; but where the damage is extensive he shall obtain the approval of the Ministry of Works before ordering any but the most indispensable repairs.

Preparation of schemes involving payment of a fee.

26. The Officer-in-Charge shall obtain the approval of the Ministry of Works before giving any instructions for the preparation of schemes or estimates involving the payment of a fee if the work is not proceeded with.

Mosquito proofing.

27. Buildings will not be mosquito-proofed except at posts where malaria is prevalent. A medical certificate shall accompany all requisitions for mosquito proofing.

GROUND.

Responsibility for upkeep of gardens, grounds and tennis courts.

28. The Officer-in-Charge shall defray all expenditure necessary for the care and maintenance in good order of the garden and grounds, including the cost of water, the provision of tools, &c., except where, owing to exceptional circumstances, special arrangements are in force. The Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible also for the upkeep of the tennis court where one has been provided exceptionally.

Alterations.

29. The approval of the Ministry of Works shall be obtained before any trees (except such as are of small size and value) are cut down or removed, and before any alterations are made in the garden lay-out which are likely to increase the cost of upkeep.

FURNISHINGS.

*Furnishing of residences.

30. Each residence shall be provided, at public expense, with the necessary furnishings, such as reception room and bedroom furniture, curtains, carpets, loose covers, table and standard lamps and other lighting fittings, fans and refrigerators, but not

* Revision of this section is under consideration.

(Embassies and Legations.)

articles of a decorative character, such as pictures (other than portraits of Their Majesties and other portraits or pictures exceptionally), clocks, ornaments, &c., nor pianos, wireless sets or billiard-tables. Table linen, bed linen, &c., blankets, bedspreads and valances, &c., crockery, china and glassware, cutlery and other table-ware except silver in some places, kitchen utensils, vacuum cleaners, laundry appliances and other articles of domestic equipment shall be the responsibility of the Officer-in-Charge as also the provision of garden furniture and of additional tables, chairs and hat and coat racks, awnings, &c., required on the occasion of large receptions, &c. Chancery furniture is provided and maintained by the Ministry of Works.

Upkeep of official furnishings; cleaning, &c.

31. The official furnishings shall be maintained by the Ministry of Works, but the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning and polishing, the beating of carpets and the cleaning or washing of curtains, loose covers, &c.

Sanction for repairs and renewals.

32. The sanction of the Ministry of Works shall be obtained before repairs or renewals are put in hand; but small repairs arising from fair wear and tear may be ordered by the Officer-in-Charge up to a maximum of £2 in any one case and a limit of £5 in any one year (see paragraph 17).

Responsibility for repair of defects arising from neglect, &c.

33. The Officer-in-Charge shall be held personally responsible for the due preservation of the official furnishings and for the cost of repair of defects arising from carelessness, neglect or unfair or improper use on the part of members of his household or his guests or from the keeping of animals and birds.

Removal or storage of official furnishings.

34. The Officer-in-Charge shall be required to use the official furnishings as part of the equipment of the post, and such furnishings shall not be removed from the residence nor stored without the consent of the Ministry of Works. In any event the cost of making good defects arising from storage exposure to the attacks of moth or vermin, &c., shall be borne by the Officer-in-Charge.

Damage to silk, &c., wall coverings.

35. Pictures shall not be hung nor brackets, &c., fixed on walls, covered with silk or similar material. Should this rule be disregarded the Officer-in-Charge shall be held responsible for making good any damage caused thereby.

Furnishings hired with premises.

36. In the case of hired buildings the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible equally for the due preservation of any furnishings hired with the premises, whether such furnishings are of the kind ordinarily provided or not.

Existing non-official furnishings.

37. Existing articles not now provided at public expense shall be withdrawn. Alternatively the cost of repair shall be borne by the Officer-in-Charge.

Identification marks.

38. The various items of official furniture, &c., shall be numbered or otherwise marked to enable such items to be identified in the inventory and the Officer-in-Charge shall be responsible for seeing that these identification marks are maintained, and that the copy of the inventory at the Post is kept up-to-date.

Payment of a rent for use of official furnishings by officer of a rank below that of Head of a Mission.

39. Use of official furnishings (including refrigerators) by an officer of a rank below that of Head of Mission shall be subject to the payment of a rent of 7½ per cent. per annum calculated on the cost of the furnishings exclusive of freight. The rent (including that for periods of ordinary absence on leave) is to be deducted quarterly from salary.

Service of plate.

40. Where an official service of plate has been provided the Officer-in-Charge shall be considered personally responsible for seeing that it is properly safeguarded at all times and kept in good condition and intact. The cost of maintaining it shall be borne by the Ministry of Works but any losses or injuries due to neglect, negligence or unfair or improper use, shall be made good at once by the Officer-in-Charge. The plate shall frequently be checked with the inventory and a certificate as to its completeness and condition shall be sent to the Ministry of Works immediately after the 1st January in each year.

Disposal of surplus or worn-out articles.

41. Worn-out or surplus articles shall not be discarded or otherwise disposed of without the previous sanction of the Ministry of Works.

ACCOUNTS.

NOTE.—Officers of a rank below that of Head of Mission should not defray or account for expenditure direct, but through the Head of Mission.

Officer-in-Charge to defray local expenditure; funds.

42. The Officer-in-Charge shall defray, on behalf of the Ministry of Works, all expenditure incurred locally in accordance with these Regulations.

For this purpose he shall obtain funds from time to time, as required, by one of the following methods:—

- (1) By drawing a bill on the Ministry of Works at three days' sight, the balance in hand to be kept as low as possible, consistent with immediate requirements. On the day the bill is drawn, he shall notify the Ministry of Works on the form provided for the purpose and at the same time forward a certificate, by a banker or a merchant, of the rate of exchange at which the bill has been drawn.

* This section is no longer operative.

(Embassies and Legations.)

(2) By the use of Foreign Office funds in approved cases. The transfer of such funds to meet Ministry of Works expenditure shall be recorded in the accounts rendered to each Department.

(3) By application to the Ministry of Works for telegraphic transfer where it is not possible to obtain funds as described in (1) or (2) above.

Accounting procedure.

43. The Officer-in-Charge shall account to the Ministry of Works for all receipts obtained and payments made in accordance with the preceding paragraph. This shall be done quarterly, in the form prescribed, immediately following the 30th June, the 30th September, the 31st December and the 31st March.

Each quarterly account shall be a complete statement of all receipts and payments made during the quarter and all payments shall be fully supported by receipted bills, estimates, &c., which shall relate solely to the items in question.

Receipted bills for freightage, customs and other duties should state the date when the consignment was received, the number of packages forming the consignment and the numbers and marks on the packages.

The various receipts and payments shall be shown in local currency, but in the case of a Bill of Exchange the sterling amount also shall be given, together with the rate at which the Bill was negotiated.

A brief translation shall be given of any item appearing in the account in a language other than English or French.

The inventory number should be quoted in the case of furniture.

Should no transaction have taken place during the quarter an account shall be rendered, nevertheless, stating that fact.

The Officer-in-Charge shall, so far as possible, ensure that tradesmen's bills are rendered and paid promptly; and that every advantage is taken of discounts for prompt payment.

In no case may funds be entrusted to a third party or the payment of tradesmen's accounts. These should be paid direct by the Chancery, on the certificate where applicable of the local representative of the Ministry of Works.

Receipts from sale of land, &c.

44. Receipts arising from the sale of land, buildings, &c., shall be disposed of as directed by the Ministry of Works.

Payments on account.

45. In order to meet the requirements of the Comptroller and Auditor-General, the following conditions of payment shall be strictly adhered to:—

- (a) When a payment on account is made in connection with any service for which a contract has not been concluded, the receipt shall invariably be accompanied by a certificate to the effect that, at the date of payment, work had been completed, or materials delivered, to the full value of the amount of the advance.
- (b) In the case of contracts which provide for definite payments to be made at certain progressive stages of the work (e.g., so much on the completion of foundations, a further sum on completion of walls, &c.), these payments shall be supported by certificates stating that the work has been executed in accordance with the terms of contract, and that the contractor is entitled to payment of the specified amount.
- (c) When a contract does not provide for definite payments as the work proceeds, certificates shall be furnished as detailed at (a).
- (d) When a contract provides for an advance payment on signing, or whenever a payment is made before commencement of work in accordance with local custom, the next payment shall be supported by a certificate to the effect that, at the date of payment, work has been executed, or material delivered, to the full value of the two payments.

Examination of accounts by Ministry of Works.

46. In the event of an account requiring amendment, the Officer-in-Charge will be informed as soon as possible, and subject to his observations (which must be made at once) the amendments shall stand; but should the Officer-in-Charge be dissatisfied with the decision of the Ministry of Works, he shall have the right of appeal as provided in paragraph 3 above.

January 1, 1940.

APPENDIX.

Undertaking to be Signed by Officers-in-Charge in Accordance with Paragraph 2.

I have received a copy of the "Regulations Relating to the Occupation of Embassy and Legation Houses the Property of, or Leased by, His Majesty's Government," dated the

I have read the said Regulations and I undertake to recognise as a legal claim on me, or on my estate, the liability to repay to the Ministry of Works the cost of making good such deficiencies or damage as may be decided to be properly chargeable to me under the said Regulations:

(Consular Houses.)

REGULATIONS AS TO THE MAINTENANCE OF CONSULAR RESIDENCES AND FURNITURE, THE PROPERTY OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT, OR LEASED BY THE MINISTRY OF WORKS AND PLANNING, IN COUNTRIES OTHER THAN CHINA, JAPAN AND SIAM.

(For the full regulations see Chapter V, paragraph 28, of General Consular Instructions. The contributions for internal repairs and the rentals for furniture are no longer operative.)

Maintenance of houses is undertaken by the Ministry of Works on the understanding that contributions to the cost of internal repairs are made by the occupying officers at the following rates:—

Consul-General ..	20 per annum.
Consul	12 „ „
Vice-Consul	6 „ „

Officers will be held liable for any extra expenditure directly attributable to negligence or misuse.

On removal from the post, the officer will make satisfactory arrangements for the care of the house pending the arrival of his successor. The cost of caretaking will be borne by the substantive officer, or, so long as the post is actually vacant, by the Ministry of Works

Certain heavy articles of residential furniture are provided and maintained by the Ministry of Works at certain posts. The incumbents of such posts are required to pay as rental $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. annually of the cost price of the furniture.

Office furniture at all salaried posts is provided and maintained by the Ministry of Works.

Officers will be held responsible for the due preservation of all Government furniture, and will be liable to make good, at their own expense, loss or damage arising from neglect or carelessness. On change of incumbents, the incoming officer will certify the existing inventory or report variations therein.

SALARIES, &c.

The salary scales for Branches A B and C of the Foreign Service are shown in the Grades and Salaries Regulations of the Foreign Service Regulations (q.v.).

In addition to salary, foreign allowances are granted to meet the total necessary additional expenditure abroad. Rent allowances to cover furnished accommodation are provided for officers serving abroad where there is no official accommodation.

The scales of salaries for posts in the Foreign Office are shown below.

The 3rd, 4th and 5th Classes have embroidery on the collar, cuffs, back and pocket flaps. The gold oak-leaf embroidery for the three Classes is the same on cuffs and pocket flaps, 1 inch wide within a saw edge. The back embroidery is also identical in all Classes. The collar of the 3rd Class has a saw edge and front embroidery 4½ inches long, that of the 4th Class a saw edge and a front embroidery 3 inches long, and that of the 5th Class a saw edge only.

Buttons—Gilt, mounted, the Royal Arms (without supporters) surmounted by the Imperial Crown.

Trousers—Blue cloth, with gold oak-leaf lace on side seams.

The width of lace is as follows:—

1st and 2nd Classes, 2½ inches.

3rd, 4th and 5th Classes, 1½ inches.

Boots—Plain patent, with military fronts and elastic sides.

Hat, Sword, Sword-knot—Same as Full Dress.

Sword Belt—White web with blue cloth frog.

Persons in possession of uniforms made in accordance with previous regulations are permitted to continue to wear them as heretofore.

† Note.—White knee-breeches are worn with Full Dress uniform in this country at His Majesty's Courts, State Banquets and Balls, and on certain other State occasions; but at Embassies and Legations abroad it is more usual for trousers to be worn with the Full Dress coat.

Great Coat or Cloak—Blue cloth of any substance; double-breasted, two rows of buttons with six buttons in each row and six inches apart across; stand and fall collar of black silk velvet. The coat to reach within a foot of the ground, made with a back seam and slit. Blue cloth back strap with a large button at each end. Two cross pockets at the sides and one inside the breast, and a slit six inches deep on the left side for the hilt of sword to pass through. The coat lined with scarlet Italian or rattinet. There are no shoulder straps or sword flaps on the coat. Loose round cuffs six inches deep. Gilt buttons of the pattern worn with the Levée Dress. Cape of blue cloth, to reach to the knuckles. Lined black. Four small gilt buttons down front to button through and a gilt hook and chain at the neck. The cape should button on to the collar of the coat, but the coat and cape may be worn together or separately.

Cap (Military shape)—Blue cloth, with a peak of blue cloth. Black oak-leaf mohair band 1½ inches wide, with narrow gold braid at the top and bottom of the band, and also in the crown seam. A small button on each side.

Gloves—White.

NAVAL ATTACHÉS at Foreign Courts wear the Uniform of the Royal Navy.

MILITARY ATTACHÉS wear Military Uniform as prescribed by "Dress Regulations for the Army."

AIR ATTACHÉS wear the Uniform of the Royal Air Force as prescribed by the Dress Regulations; in addition, Aiguillettes are worn with Full Dress.

DIPLOMATIC.

EVENING DRESS.

Evening Dress Coat of blue cloth with black velvet collar (the collar cut with notched ends). Black silk linings. Four buttons on each front, two at the waist behind and one on each tail; also two small buttons on a 3-inch cuff and one above. The facings are of the same material as the body of the coat.

Buttons—Gilt, mounted, the Royal Arms with supporters.

Dress Waistcoat—Single-breasted of white marcella, with small gilt buttons to match.

Trousers—Plain black evening dress material.

This dress is worn abroad by His Majesty's Diplomatic officers at the discretion of the Ambassador or Minister; it is worn at official dinners and parties (a) in the presence of members of the British Royal Family who are Royal Highnesses and may also be worn, if in accordance with local custom, (b) in the presence of members of the Royal Family of the Court to which the Ambassador or Minister is accredited. This dress is never worn in this country.

CONSULAR.

REGULATIONS IN FORCE FROM JUNE 4, 1924.

The Full Dress uniform is worn only at His Majesty's Balls and Courts, and on important State occasions when ordered.

The Levée Dress is worn at His Majesty's levées; on State occasions abroad; on paying official visits to, and receiving official visits from, the Commanders of His Majesty's ships of war; and at Naval Courts.

A white drill uniform may be worn at any post where the use of such uniforms by officials is customary.

FULL DRESS.

Coat—Blue cloth; stand collar; single breasted; to be buttoned with nine buttons placed at equal distances; and to be embroidered with laurel and oak leaf in silver and saw edge in gold; two buttons on the back at the waist and one on each tail.

The coat of a CONSUL-GENERAL and CONSUL is embroidered on the collar, cuffs, pocket flaps and back. The embroidery on the collar and back is the same for both grades, that on the cuffs is two and a-half inches wide for a Consul-General and two inches wide for a Consul.

The coat of a VICE-CONSUL is embroidered on the collar and cuffs only; the embroidery on the cuffs is one and a-half inches wide.

The collar and cuffs are of blue-black velvet and the pocket-flaps and back-piece of cloth are similar to the body of the coat.

Buttons—Gilt, convex, frosted; having the Royal Arms without supporters; the same pattern of button to be used in each rank.

Hat—CONSUL-GENERAL:—Black, cocked, regulation pattern, without binding; the left side six and a-quarter inches high, right side five and three-quarter inches high, each corner four and three-quarter inches long; two black ribbons on the right side; black cockade and treble bullion loop of silver, also on the right side, plain gold bullion tassels, and edging of black ostrich feather.

CONSUL:—The same as the Consul-General, but without the feather, and with a double bullion loop.

VICE-CONSUL:—The same as the Consul, but with only a single bullion loop.

Sword—French hilt, gilt wire grip, and helmet top; blade of thirty inches; black leather scabbard with gilt mountings; gold lace guard sword-knot with worked head, and tassels of small dead and bright gold bullions; white silk web belt, to be worn under the coat, with blue cloth frog. The same pattern of sword to be used in each rank.

Breeches—White kerseymer to be worn with white silk stockings, shoes and gilt buckles. [See note at foot of page 130.]

Gloves—White.

LEVÉE DRESS.

Coat—Buttons, hat, sword and gloves are the same as those worn with the full dress.

Trousers—Blue cloth; with a stripe of silver lace down the outward seam. The lace for Consuls-General is the oak-leaf pattern scalloped, two and a-quarter inches wide; for Consuls and Vice-Consuls, the same pattern, one and three-quarter inches wide.

Black Wellington boots or plain patent leather boots with military fronts and elastic sides should be worn with this uniform.

UNIFORMS.

CLOAK AND CAPE.

Cloak—Blue cloth of any substance: double-breasted; lined scarlet; to reach within a foot of the ground; stand and fall black velvet collar; two rows of buttons in front, six in each row, and six inches apart across; blue cloth strap behind, with a large button at each end; slit on left side to allow access to sword-hilt.

Cape—Blue cloth, lined black, with four small buttons down front, and to button on to collar of cloak; gilt hook and chain

The buttons are to be of the pattern described in section 3.

The cloak and cape may be worn together or separately.

WHITE UNIFORM.

Coat—Tunic of white drill; single breasted, to be buttoned with six buttons; stand collar one and a half inches high, with small gilt detachable Tudor crown on each side of front opening; two small breast pockets, each buttoned with one small button; one, two or three small buttons along the outer seam of each cuff for Vice-Consuls, Consuls and Consuls-General respectively; detachable shoulder-straps with a twisted gold cord design surrounded by two outer loops; a Consul having only one outer loop and a Vice-Consul none.

Buttons—As described for full dress.

Trousers—White drill without lace.

Helmet—White service regulation pattern without chin-strap, bearing on the front a gilt badge consisting of the Royal Arms with supporters. A blue cap with a white cover, may, if preferred, be worn instead of the helmet. The cap is similar to that worn by officers of the Royal Navy, except that it bears in front a badge consisting of the letters G.R. surmounted by a crown, and that the black leather peak is always plain.

Boots—Black or white boots or shoes may be worn at the discretion of the officer.

Gloves—White.

Sword—As prescribed for use with the blue uniform. It should be carried in a white frog so that the hilt projects through a vertical slit on the left side of the coat, which thus conceals the upper part of the scabbard, and should be attached to a white belt, which should be worn under the coat. The sword and shoulder-straps should only be worn on ceremonial occasions, including visits to His Majesty's ships.

Evening Dress—An officer may, should he so desire, wear on suitable occasions evening dress composed as follows: white drill mess jacket with three small gilt buttons on each side of the front and one, two or three small gilt buttons for Vice-Consuls, Consuls and Consuls-General respectively along the outer seam of each cuff; white waistcoat with three small gilt buttons, white trousers.

CONSULAR AGENTS wear the uniform of Vice-Consuls.

No uniform is worn by Pro-Consuls.

CANCELLIERS attached to British Consulates in the Levant wear the dress of Vice-Consuls, without the embroidery on the cuffs, or, in the case of white uniform, without the buttons on the cuffs.

A Consular officer who does not hold a diplomatic appointment must not, without permission, wear any other than the Consular uniform; should he hold an appointment entitling him to wear another uniform he is not allowed, during his Consular employment to wear such other uniform without special permission from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Orders should be worn with full or levée dress, and miniatures may be worn with ordinary evening dress on official occasions.

In the case of mourning Consular officers should wear a black band around the left sleeve.

WHITE UNIFORM TO BE WORN IN HOT CLIMATES.

The uniform is to be made of white drill, with embroidery on the cuffs and collar of the same width and material as that now worn by Diplomatic Officers, but worked on white cloth and detachable; two breast pockets, each buttoned with a small gilt button; buttons full dress or undress; white drill trousers without lace; white gloves and black boots. It will be worn with a white helmet, bearing on the front a gilt badge with the Royal Arms with supporters.

NOTE (A).—The sword should be worn on paying or returning official visits and on other occasions of ceremony. It should be carried in a white frog, projecting through a slit on the left side of the coat, and attached to a belt which should be worn under the coat. On these occasions a spike should be worn on the helmet.

DRESS TO BE WORN BY HIS MAJESTY'S REPRESENTATIVES ON OFFICIAL NAVAL VISITS.

(a) Levée dress (or alternatively white uniform in countries where such uniform is worn in lieu of Levée dress) should be worn by His Majesty's Representatives when calling officially upon (i) Flag Officers and Commodores on their first visit when newly appointed, or when their ship or squadron is paying a formal visit; and (ii) Captains when in command of a single ship or squadron paying a formal visit.

On receiving visits from Flag Officers or Officers Commanding H.M. Ships, however, H.M. Representatives may use their discretion as to the dress to be worn, but if they do not wear uniform they should wear a Frock coat or Morning coat, with Star, in cases where the representative has received the 1st or 2nd class of one of the British Orders of Knighthood.

(b) An Ambassador or Minister accompanying a Naval Commander-in-Chief on a visit to pay his respects to the Head of a State should wear Levée Dress or, where circumstances render such an alternative appropriate, white diplomatic uniform.

KING'S FOREIGN SERVICE MESSENGERS.

Uniform and Badge.

The Messengers are permitted to wear the Civil Service uniform of the 4th Class*, and are furnished by the Foreign Office with a Badge for use when travelling, which may also be worn with the Civil uniform. The Badge must be returned to the Chief Clerk in good condition on the retirement of the Messenger from the service.

* See page 134.

REGULATION GOVERNING THE WEARING OF UNIFORM BY RETIRED OFFICIALS.

1. An Officer belonging to H.M. Civil Service, H.M. Foreign Service, H.M. Indian Service, and H.M. Service in the Dominions, Colonies and Protectorates may be granted permission to wear the uniform appropriate to his position, rank or branch of the Service on retirement or resignation from the Service provided that—

- (a) he has served not less than 10 years; and
- (b) there is in the opinion of the competent authority no special reason for withholding permission.

2. An Officer with less than 10 years' service who has occupied either—

- (1) a post of importance tenable for a fixed term, e.g., a Governor-Generalship or Governorship or Membership of an Executive Council in India; or
 - (2) a post with no defined time limit but similarly important, e.g., an Ambassadorship or Under-Secretaryship of State;
- may request the competent authority to submit to the King an application that he may be permitted to wear his uniform on retirement or resignation.

VISITS OF CEREMONY.

Articles 97 and 98 of King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

BRITISH DIPLOMATIC FUNCTIONARIES.

97.—(1) Every Flag or other Officer in Command will, on arrival, pay the first visit to His Majesty's Diplomatic Functionaries in charge of Embassies or Legations of or above the rank of Chargé d'Affaires, but they will receive the first visit from Diplomatic Functionaries below that rank.

(2) In case of doubt as to the status of a Diplomatic Functionary in charge of an Embassy or Legation an Officer should be sent on shore to ascertain it previous to the interchange of visits.

CONSULAR AUTHORITIES.

98.—(1) On the arrival of a Fleet, Squadron, or Ship at a Foreign Port, the first visit will be made by the Naval or Consular Officer who is subordinate in rank to the other, according to the following scale:—

- | | | |
|---------------------|-------|--|
| (a) Consuls-General | | To rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals. |
| (b) Consuls | | To rank with, but after, Captains of the Royal Navy. |
| (c) Vice-Consuls | | To rank with, but after, Lieutenant-Commanders. |
| (d) Consular Agents | | To rank with, but after, Lieutenants. |

(2) The officer in charge of a Consular post during the absence of the titular incumbent will take for the time being the rank of that incumbent.

FOREIGN SERVICE REGULATIONS.

FOREIGN SERVICE REGULATIONS

These regulations were under revision when this Edition was in preparation. For convenience of reference, approved revised salary scales for certain grades in Branches A, B, and C have been inserted in the Branch A, B, and C Regulations No. 1, in advance of publication of the revised regulations. Similarly, certain approved revised figures have been inserted in Regulations 3 and 4.

CHAPTER I

General

REGULATION No. 1. HIS MAJESTY'S FOREIGN SERVICE

The Foreign Service is composed of the following four Branches. Members of all Branches, with the exception of Branch D, are liable to serve in the Foreign Office or at a diplomatic or consular post abroad as and when required.

1. BRANCH A, consisting of persons appointed, after receiving a certificate of qualification from the Civil Service Commissioners, to the Foreign Service to serve as Third Secretary or Vice-Consul (Grade 9, see Chapter II, Regulation No. 1) or in any superior grade.

The following persons at present in the Foreign Service are members of Branch A, namely :—

- (a) Persons who, at the date of the Foreign Service Order-in-Council of the 20th May, 1943, were members of the Foreign Office and Diplomatic Service, the Commercial Diplomatic Service, or the Consular Service.
- (b) Persons who became members of the Foreign Service under Article 3 of the Foreign Service Order-in-Council and hold a position in Grade 9 or in any superior grade of Branch A.

2. BRANCH B, consisting of persons appointed to the Foreign Service for the performance of executive and clerical duties.

The following persons at present employed in the Foreign Office or at diplomatic or consular posts abroad will, if they are suitable, and if they are prepared to accept liability for service both abroad and in the Foreign Office, be eligible to become members of the Foreign Service under Branch B, namely :—

- (a) Members of the executive and clerical classes in the Foreign Office.
- (b) Established accountants, archivists, cypher officers and clerks abroad.
- (c) Existing unestablished employees of equivalent grades at diplomatic and consular posts whose establishment is approved by the Treasury.

Certain posts both at home and abroad, which have hitherto been filled by members of Branch A, will be made available for members of Branch B.

3. BRANCH C, consisting of persons appointed to the Foreign Service for the performance of shorthand-typing and typing duties.

Established persons in these grades at present employed in the Foreign Office or in diplomatic or consular posts abroad will, if they are suitable, be eligible to become members of Branch C of the Foreign Service if they are prepared to accept liability for service both in the Foreign Office and abroad.

4. BRANCH D, consisting of established members of the messengerial grades such as chancery servants, messengers and night guards in diplomatic and consular posts abroad.

REGULATION No. 2. MARRIAGE.

1. Any male member of the Foreign Service who proposes to marry a person who does not possess British nationality must notify the Head of the Personnel Department of his intention. The Secretary of State reserves the right to inform the officer concerned, whenever the circumstances in his view necessitate this course, that, if he marries a person not possessing British nationality, he will have to resign.

Comment :—

It must be realised that, even when the Secretary of State does not adopt the course of calling on an officer to resign under this regulation, a marriage to a person who does not possess British nationality may well diminish an officer's utility as a British representative abroad and limit the number of posts at which he can be employed. Marriage to a person who does not possess British nationality may even result, either immediately or at some later stage in the officer's career, in there being no post in the Foreign Service to which he can properly be appointed. In this case every endeavour would be made to find other official employment for him, but, failing that, it may be necessary either to retire him on pension under the Foreign Service Act, 1943, or to place him en disponibilité until a suitable vacancy occurs. While en disponibilité the officer would draw no salary and would not earn pension rights, but the pension rights which he had previously earned or those which he would earn if re-employed afterwards would not be affected.

2. Any woman member of the Foreign Service who proposes to marry must notify the Head of the Personnel Department of her intention. As a rule a woman member of the Service will be required to resign upon marriage, but the Secretary of State reserves the right in special circumstances to permit her to continue as a member of the Service either unconditionally or subject to conditions.

Comment :—

This regulation applies to women members of the Service and to marriages contracted by them whether to British subjects or to other persons. When announcing in Parliament that His Majesty's Government had decided to accept the report of the Gowers Committee on the admission of women to the Foreign Service, the Secretary of State said that this acceptance was "on the assumption that a general marriage bar will be imposed which I shall have the power to waive in exceptional circumstances."

3. Any woman member of the Foreign Service resigning on marriage may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State and with the approval of the Treasury, be granted a gratuity calculated on the basis of one month's pay for each completed year of established service but with a maximum of twelve months' pay.

To qualify for an award a minimum service of six years is required: previous unestablished service reckons towards this period but not for the purpose of calculating the gratuity.

REGULATION No. 3. DIVORCE

1. If a member of the Foreign Service becomes involved in a matrimonial suit which may, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, bring discredit upon that member or upon the Service, the Secretary of State may call upon him to resign. A member of the Service who becomes involved in a divorce suit must therefore notify the Head of the Personnel Department of the facts of the case at the earliest possible moment.

REGULATION No. 4. ACCEPTANCE OF FOREIGN DECORATIONS

1. Generally speaking, members of the Foreign Service, like other persons in the service of the Crown, are not eligible for the King's permission to accept and wear foreign decorations and medals. Such permission may, however, be given in the case of decorations conferred for distinguished services in the saving of life, or, if such a case should arise, services performed by a member of the Foreign Service while lent to a foreign Government, if he is paid by them and not from British public funds during the period of the loan.

2. A restricted form of permission may be granted in the case of decorations conferred in recognition of personal attentions to a foreign Sovereign or Head of State, or a member of a foreign Royal Family, on the occasion of State or official visits by such personages, in the case of decorations conferred upon His Majesty's Ambassadors or Ministers abroad when The King pays a State visit to the countries to which they are accredited, and in the case of decorations conferred upon Foreign Service officers when forming part of a Special Mission when The King is represented at a foreign Coronation, Wedding, Funeral, or similar occasion, or upon any diplomatic representative when specially accredited to represent His Majesty on such an occasion (but not on the members of his staff).

3. The King's Regulations do not contemplate the grant of any permission for the acceptance and wearing of foreign decorations offered to His Majesty's Ambassadors or Ministers abroad when leaving, even on final retirement. When, as sometimes happens, a foreign Sovereign or Head of State presents a departing Head of Mission with a decoration without having given any previous notice, either to His Majesty's Government or the recipient of his intention to do so and the recipient cannot decline it without giving offence, he should make it clear that he will not be able to wear it without The King's permission. The grant of this, however, must not be expected, and if it is refused the most that the recipient may expect is permission to retain the decoration as a simple souvenir not to be worn.

4. In any case in which a member of the Foreign Service learns that the bestowal of a foreign decoration upon him is in contemplation, his informant should be reminded of the desire of His Majesty's Government to be consulted through the diplomatic channel before any final decision to confer it is taken, and also, if the case is clearly of such a character that their consent is not likely to be forthcoming. In no case should the grant of The King's permission be assumed.

5. The foregoing applies equally to medals, including State decorations not carrying membership of foreign Orders of Chivalry. Medals for saving or attempting to save life, whether awarded by the Head or Government of a foreign State or by private life-saving societies or institutions, may be accepted and worn without restriction.

6. The wives of members of the Foreign Service are regarded as subject to the same general disabilities as their husbands where the acceptance of foreign honours is concerned.

REGULATION No. 5. PRESENTATIONS

A member of the Foreign Service may not receive gifts or presentations, whether in the shape of money, goods, free passages, or other benefits, from any person in recognition of services rendered by virtue of his official position, or, in any case, from foreigners resident in the foreign country where that member is serving without having first secured the permission of the Secretary of State.

Comment :—

This Regulation, which also applies to the families of members of the Foreign Service, should not be regarded as applying to small personal gifts such as may be received from colleagues and friends.

REGULATION No. 6. PRIVATE OCCUPATIONS

1. No member of the Foreign Service may, without the permission of the Secretary of State, accept any post in the management of any trading, commercial, industrial, financial, or professional firm or company.

Comment :—

Permission under paragraph 1 is only likely to be given in very exceptional cases, for instance in some cases permission to become a director in a small private company which is confined to members of the officer's family may be given; or occasionally an officer may be permitted temporarily to take some part in the organisation of a firm as executor for a deceased relative until new arrangements for the carrying on of the firm's business can be made.

2.—(1) No member of the Foreign Service may at any time engage in any activity which would in any way tend to impair his usefulness as a public servant.

(2) No member of the Foreign Service may engage in any occupation or undertaking which might in any way conflict with the interests of the Service or be inconsistent with his position as a member of the Foreign Service.

Comment :—

(1) There is, of course, nothing to prevent members of the Service from becoming members of, or occupying posts on the Councils of, charitable or learned societies, provided that their responsibilities in that concern are not serious enough to conflict with the discharge of their official duties and provided also that the activities of these societies are not such as to bring paragraph 2 (1) or (2) of this Regulation into play.

(2) It is the duty of any member who may have any doubt as to the propriety of undertaking any particular work to consult the Head of the Personnel Department.

REGULATION No. 7. INTEREST IN CONTRACTS

1. Any member of the Foreign Service having an interest in a company or partnership or business with which a contract with a Government Office is concluded or may be concluded, must disclose the measure of that interest fully to the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration in writing.

2. Any member who has occasion to come in contact in his official capacity with any matter concerning a company, partnership or other business concern in which he has an interest, must disclose that interest to the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration.

3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Regulation do not, however, apply to the mere holding of shares in a public company by a member of the service unless such holding is so great as to give the member a controlling interest in the said company.

REGULATION No. 8. BANKRUPTCY AND INSOLVENCY

1. A member of the Foreign Service who becomes bankrupt or insolvent must at once report the fact to the Secretary of State. If the member is serving abroad the report should be made through the Head of the post at which he is serving. Failure to report this matter is a grave disciplinary offence.

2. A member who has reported his bankruptcy or insolvency must then at the earliest possible moment submit a complete statement of the facts of his case to the Secretary of State, who will decide, in his discretion, whether the circumstances are such as to call for disciplinary action under Regulations No. 10 of Chapter II or No. 10 of Chapter III.

Comment :—

(1) If the officer who has become bankrupt or insolvent has committed any act of dishonesty or has otherwise acted discredibly, he may be dismissed. The Secretary of State may also take steps to prosecute the offender if there is evidence of the misappropriation of public monies.

(2) Pending the result of any enquiry into his case, the officer concerned may be continued in his post unless there is prima facie reason to believe that public monies have been or are likely to be involved, in which case he will be suspended.

(3) In no circumstances may an officer who is bankrupt or insolvent continue to be employed on duties involving the handling of public monies.

REGULATION No. 9. POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

A member of the Foreign Service seeking a seat in the House of Commons must resign from the Service before he issues his address to the electors or in any other manner publicly announces himself as a candidate.

REGULATION No. 10. OFFICIAL SECRETS AND CUSTODY OF OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS

1. It is the duty of every member of the Foreign Service to acquaint himself with the provisions of the Official Secrets Acts of 1911, 1920 and 1939.

2. Any offence under the Official Secrets Acts committed by a member of the Foreign Service is, unless the member establishes extenuating circumstances, a grave disciplinary offence (see Regulations No. 10 of Chapter II and No. 10 of Chapter III), exposing the member to the disciplinary penalties for such an offence, whether or not he is also prosecuted for the criminal offence in the courts.

Comment :—

The Official Secrets Acts apply to all confidential documents or information which come into the possession, custody or knowledge of members of the Service. Any improper communication of confidential documents or information is a criminal offence under these Acts, even if the communication is made to another person in His Majesty's Service. It is also a criminal offence if a member of the Service fails to return official documents if their return is demanded by the Foreign Office (see paragraphs 10 and 11 below and comment thereto as regards members of the Service who have retired and as regards the papers of members of the Service who die). The appendix to this Regulation gives extracts from the Official Secrets Acts containing those portions of them which are likely to be of most importance, to members of the Service. Members of the Service, however, are not thereby excused from making themselves acquainted with the provisions of the Acts as a whole. No definition is given in the Acts of "official documents," and there is no rule given in the Acts as to the burden of proof on the question whether a document or information was "entrusted in confidence." So far as the application of the Acts is concerned, it is for the courts to determine their effect, and the Secretary of State has no authority to give an official interpretation of them. On the other hand, so far as disciplinary offences are concerned, it is within the power of the Secretary of State to make his own rules as to what shall be deemed to constitute "official documents" and as to what test shall be applied to determine whether information or documents are confidential. Certain rules for this purpose are inserted in paragraphs 6 and 7 below.

3. Negligence by a member of the Service in the custody, disposal or handling of official documents or in communicating confidential information is a disciplinary offence, and may be regarded as a grave disciplinary offence.

4. Any improper communication of confidential official documents or confidential official information, whether orally or in writing, is a disciplinary offence, and may be regarded as a grave disciplinary offence.

5. Any failure by a member of the Service to return to the Foreign Office official documents, if their return is demanded is a disciplinary offence, and may be regarded as a grave disciplinary offence.

6. All information and documents falling within the classes specified in paragraph 7 of this Regulation shall, for the purposes of these Regulations and of deciding whether a disciplinary offence has been committed, be deemed to be confidential and official, unless the Secretary of State otherwise decides; and the onus of proof to show, in any case, that any information or any document falling within these classes is not confidential or is not official will rest upon the member of the Service concerned.

Comment :—

In the case of information or documents not falling within the classes specified in paragraph 7 of this Regulation, the question whether they are official and confidential is left by these Regulations to be decided according to the circumstances of each case, without any rule placing the onus of proof on the officer concerned to show that they should not be held to be official or confidential.

7.—(a) The classes of documents referred to in paragraph 6 above comprise all documents or correspondence (and copies thereof) relating to any matter of official concern to any branch of His Majesty's Service and emanating from or addressed to—

- (i) any diplomatic mission or consulate of His Majesty;
- (ii) any Department of any of His Majesty's Governments in the United Kingdom or the Dominions, or of the Governments of India or of any territory under British administration;
- (iii) any Department of any foreign Government;
- (iv) any foreign diplomatic mission or consulate;
- (v) any person in the service of any of the diplomatic missions, consulates or Government Departments referred to in (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) above.

(b) The classes of information referred to in paragraph 6 above comprise all information relating to any matter of official concern to any branch of His Majesty's Service and obtained orally from, or from documents or observation at any of the sources specified in (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of sub-paragraph (a) above.

Comment :—

(1) Documents and correspondence may be official and confidential under this paragraph, notwithstanding that they have been addressed or sent in a personal form or marked "personal" or "private." Indeed under the paragraph the presumption is that they are official and confidential. It is, in fact, a common practice to send most secret information or most confidential instructions in a letter so marked. Similarly, oral information may be official and confidential although it has been given casually and in a non-official manner.

(2) The enumeration in paragraph 7 is not, and is not intended to be, exhaustive. Written or oral communications from non-official persons relating to matters of official concern may often be confidential official information and, if in writing, official documents. As indicated by the comment to paragraph 6, the difference between documents which are covered by the enumeration in paragraph 7 (a) and information covered by the enumeration in paragraph 7 (b), and documents or information not so covered, is that in the former case there is a strong prima facie presumption that the document or information is both official and confidential, and in the latter case there is no such presumption.

8. Members of the Foreign Service shall, on the outbreak of war or other emergency, destroy official documents which are in their possession or custody, in accordance with the instructions in force for such eventuality. Except in cases of emergency, they shall not destroy the originals or sole copies of official documents except under authority from the Foreign Office, unless it is clear that such documents do not possess, or no longer possess, any interest for the purpose of official record. They may, however, from time to time destroy surplus copies or documents of ephemeral interest, in accordance with standing instructions.

9.—(a) Members of the Foreign Service must not, without the permission of the Secretary of State, publish any book or article, or give any public lecture or broadcast, which is based in whole or in part upon their experiences as members of the Service or upon information obtained by them as a member of the Service.

(b) The reproduction in extenso of unpublished official documents (and this includes memoranda prepared by officials in their official capacity and with access to official information) is not permitted.

(c) Members of the Service, in publishing any book or article, or in giving any public lecture or broadcast talk (whether such book, lecture or talk is or is not based upon their experiences as members of the Service, or upon information obtained by them as members of the Service), must not, without the permission of the Secretary of State, refer to or permit any reference to be made to the position they hold or have held as a member of the Service.

10. Former members of the Foreign Service, or of those services which are now incorporated in the Foreign Service, remain subject to the Official Secrets Acts as regards all official documents and as regards all confidential information obtained by them while members of the Service.

11. Whenever a member of the Service ceases to be a member, he shall inform the Secretary of State of all papers in his possession which come, or may reasonably be thought to come, under any of the provisions of this Regulation. The Secretary of State may then give directions as to the future custody and disposal of such papers. A failure by the member to comply with the provision of this paragraph, or with the directions of the Secretary of State under it, will be a matter of which the Secretary of State may take account in connexion with his recommendations to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury as regards the award of a pension.

Comment :—

When a member of the Foreign Service dies, he cannot by his will bequeath to any other person papers which are the property of His Majesty's Government as official papers, nor can he give any right to his executors or legatees to read secret papers which he could not show to them in his lifetime. Members of the Service should make arrangements to secure that, on their death, all papers which might come under this Regulation are delivered to the Foreign Office for examination and decision as to their custody and disposal.

Extracts from the Official Secrets Acts

Subsection (1)

If any person, having in his possession or control any . . . document or information . . . which has been entrusted in confidence to him by any person holding office under His Majesty, or which he has obtained owing to his position as a person who has held office under His Majesty . . . (a) communicates . . . the document or information to any person, other than a person to whom he is authorised to communicate it, or a person to whom it is in the interest of the State his duty to communicate it, and (b) retains . . . the document in his possession or control when he has no right to retain it or when it is contrary to his duty to retain it ; that person shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

Subsection (3).

A person guilty of a misdemeanour under this section shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour to a term not exceeding two years, or to a fine, or to both imprisonment and a fine.

Section 12.

In this Act . . . the expression "office under His Majesty" includes any office or employment in or under any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or of any British possession.

OFFICIAL SECRETS ACT, 1920. Section 1.

Subsection (2).

If any person (a) retains for any purpose prejudicial to the safety or the interests of the State any official document, whether or not completed or issued for use, when he has no right to retain it, or when it is contrary to his duty to retain it, or fails to comply with any direction issued by any Government Department, or any person authorised by such Department with regard to the return or disposal thereof ; or (b) allows any other person to have possession of any official document issued for his use alone, or communicates any official code or password issued, or, without lawful authority or excuse, has in his possession any official document . . . issued for the use of some person other than himself, or, on obtaining possession of any document by finding or otherwise, neglects or fails to restore it to the person or authority by whom or for whose use it was issued . . . ; or (c) . . . he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

CHAPTER II

Branch A

REGULATION No. 1. GRADES AND SALARIES

1. The grades and salaries of members of Branch A of the Foreign Service are as follows :—

- Grade 1. £3,500.
- Grade 2. £2,500.
- Grade 3. £2,250.
- Grade 4. £2,000.
- Grade 5. £1,700.

Grade 6. £1,320 rising by annual increments of £50 to £1,700.

Grade 7. £950 rising by annual increments of £30 to £1,100 and thence by annual increments of £35 to £1,250.

Grade 8. £615 rising by annual increments of £30 to £750.

Grade 9. £400 rising by annual increments of £25 to £450, then by £80 to £530, and thence by £30 to £560.

Comment :—

Grade 1 will consist of the Permanent Under-Secretary of State and the Heads of the major Missions.

Grade 2 will consist of the Political Deputy Under-Secretary of State, the Heads of the other leading Missions and the Legal Adviser.

Grade 3 will include certain Heads of Missions and other Deputy Under-Secretaries of State.

Grade 4 will include Assistant Under-Secretaries of State in the Foreign Office, the Heads of certain Missions, the Minister (Deputy Head) at certain major Missions and the holders of the most important commercial-diplomatic, consular and oriental secretaries' and inspectors' posts.

Grade 5 will consist of Heads of some minor Diplomatic Missions, of the holders of other important commercial-diplomatic, consular and oriental secretaries' posts, of other inspectors' and of Minister-Counsellors' posts.

Grade 6 will include Heads of other minor Diplomatic Missions, Counsellors, the majority of Consuls-General and the Second Legal Adviser, who is on a salary scale of £1,300-£1,700.

Grade 7 will consist of First Secretaries, Consuls and the Assistant Legal Advisers, who are on a salary scale of £900-£1,200.

Grade 8 will include Second Secretaries and Senior Vice-Consuls.

Grade 9 will consist of persons who, after receiving a certificate of qualification from the Civil Service Commissioners, are appointed to the Foreign Service to serve as Third Secretaries or Vice-Consuls. Subject to satisfactory service, promotion from Grade 9 to Grade 8 will be automatic at 5 years' date from passing the first entrance examination into the Foreign Service.

2. Any officer of Grade 8 or 9 serving abroad who is called upon to assume the full duties of a post of Grade 6 or above, or any officer of Grade 7 similarly assuming the full duties of a post of Grade 5 or above, may, after a period of three months, be granted, while continuing to perform such higher duties, an Acting Allowance equal to one-quarter of the salary of the grade in which he is acting (or of the mean of the salary of that grade if it is on a scale) always provided that the officer's own salary together with the Acting Allowance shall not exceed the minimum of the salary of the grade in which he is acting.

When a Grade 6 post of head of a post abroad or of a department in the Foreign Office becomes vacant, and the salary attaching to that post is available, an officer of Grade 7 who assumes the full duties of the post may be granted an Acting Allowance to bring his salary up to the minimum of the salary scale of Grade 6.

3. If a Head of Mission, being under the age of 60, is recalled from his post on the rupture of diplomatic relations, or in other special circumstances, and if he is not appointed to another post, he may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, and provided that it is the intention to re-employ him in his existing grade or in a higher grade, continue to receive the full salary attaching to the post which he has just vacated, for a period not exceeding twelve months, after which the position will be reviewed. During this period of twelve months he will be required to perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of State. If during this period he declines to proceed to any vacant post in which the Secretary of State is prepared to employ him, he will immediately be placed "en disponibilité" without salary or pension rights in respect of the period while still unemployed.

REGULATION No. 2 OUTFIT ALLOWANCES

Outfit allowances will be payable to members of Branch A of the Foreign Service on the following basis :—

1. The actual reasonable cost of a Foreign Service uniform when its purchase is authorised.

2. On first appointment abroad :—

£200 if the officer is married ; £100 if he is unmarried.

Comment :—

The allowance referred to in paragraph 2 is intended to assist the newly-appointed officer to meet the expenses of purchasing the clothes required for formal occasions and such other equipment as an officer serving abroad may require. Payment of allowances under 1 and 2 will be subject to the production of a certificate that the sums claimed have been expended for the purposes laid down.

3. On first appointment as Head of a Mission in Grade 5 or above and on first appointment as Head of a Mission in Grade 2 or Grade 1 : £200.

Comment :—

The above paragraph means that a Head of a Mission is entitled to the outfit allowance of £200 on not more than two occasions.

4. On transfer from one post abroad to another post abroad, or from the United Kingdom to a post abroad other than in the cases provided for in paragraphs 2 and 3 above :—

One-tenth of the mean of the salary scale of the grade of the officer concerned in the case of a transfer to a post where furniture is not provided, and one-twentieth if furniture is provided.

Comment :—

(1) Where transfer is accompanied by promotion this amount will be calculated on the new salary. No outfit allowance will be granted in respect of promotion alone.

(2) Pending the provision for Heads of Missions of residences fully equipped with linen, blankets, china, glass and plate, outfit allowances will be payable to Heads of Missions on the basis of the regulations in force on the 1st January, 1946, less percentage deductions for such of the above items of equipment as may have been supplied at public expense, always provided that the residual outfit allowance payable to a Head of a Mission shall not be reduced below those prescribed in paragraphs 3 and 4 above.

(3) For payments in respect of a transfer from a post abroad to a post in the United Kingdom, see Regulation No. 4 (Home Service Allowance).

5. On appointment to a post at which special clothing is, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, necessary for climatic reasons, the above allowances will be increased by the actual cost of such clothing up to £50 in respect of an unmarried officer and up to £75 in respect of a married officer whose wife accompanies him. These increases will be subject to the production of a certificate that the sums claimed have been expended for the purposes laid down, and will be limited to three occasions during an officer's career.

6. On promotion with or without transfer: the actual cost of the alteration of the uniform rendered necessary by the promotion provided the cost is reasonable and is supported by a certificate that the amount has been paid for the purpose stated.

Comment :—

(1) Where an officer prefers to buy a new uniform instead of having his present one altered, he may receive the cost which would have been incurred if he had had the necessary alterations made to his existing uniform.

(2) An allowance for a new uniform will not be granted except where special circumstances are proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State.

REGULATION No. 3. FOREIGN ALLOWANCES

1. A foreign allowance, or in the case of Heads of Diplomatic Missions frais de representation, will be assigned to officers serving abroad.

Comment :—

(1) Salary is intended to cover necessary expenditure in the United Kingdom and to take the first strain of the cost of living of the officer abroad, foreign allowances supplementing it to the extent to which the salary falls short of total necessary expenditure. In assessing foreign allowances, the following items inter alia are taken into account: (a) local cost of living; (b) expenditure which an officer serving abroad necessarily incurs, either at home or abroad, over and above that of an officer of corresponding grade serving in the Foreign Office; and (c) representational expenditure, i.e., expenditure which, while optional for a private individual, is obligatory for a member of the Foreign Service resident abroad by virtue of his official position.

(2) In the case of officers who were formerly members of the Consular Service, or of the Commercial Diplomatic Service, foreign allowance replaces representation allowance, local allowance and any other cost-of-living allowance.

(3) Foreign allowance is not subject to United Kingdom income tax.

2. The amount of the foreign allowance to be assigned to an officer will be determined by the Secretary of State in the light of the conditions at the particular post.

3. When an officer to whom a foreign allowance is assigned is absent from his post abroad, such allowance will be paid on the following basis:—

A.—Officer returning to his Post.

4. When the officer is married and takes his wife and family (if any) with him and is—

(i) On Duty.

(a) In the United Kingdom.

He will retain the allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance for himself only at the rates in force for the United Kingdom. The position will be reviewed after two months' absence.

Comment :—

The officer will be responsible for the travelling expenses of his wife and family.

(b) Elsewhere.

He will retain his allowance and draw subsistence allowance for himself and also for his wife if approval is given for her to accompany him officially.

(ii) On Earned Leave.

He will draw no subsistence allowance but will retain his allowance except in the case of posts where the allowance is abnormally high, i.e., where it exceeds 100 per cent. of the mean of the salary scale of the officer's grade. In such cases the allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 25 per cent. of the total allowance as from the date of departure on leave. This reduction shall not operate so as to bring the allowance below the mean of the salary scale. This reduction will not be applied in respect of brief absences within a total of 14 days in one calendar year.

(iii) On Sick Leave Outside the Country where he is Posted.

His earned leave allowance (see paragraph 4 (ii) above) will be reduced, as from the date of departure on sick leave, by 25 per cent. for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances.

Comment :—

A married officer on sick leave outside the country where he is posted who is due to return to his post, may thus incur a double cut in his foreign allowance.

5. When the officer is married and leaves his wife and family (if any) at the post and is—

(i) On Duty.

(a) In the United Kingdom.

He will retain the allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance.

(b) Temporarily attached to another post.

He will retain the whole of the allowance of his own post or draw that of the temporary post, whichever is higher, with subsistence allowance in addition at the discretion of the Secretary of State.

(c) On duty in circumstances other than (a) and (b).

He will retain the allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance.

(ii) On Earned Leave.

Wherever he is on earned leave he will retain the allowance of his post but will draw no subsistence allowance.

(iii) On Sick Leave Outside the Country where he is Posted.

Any such case which may arise will be dealt with on its merits.

6. When the officer is unmarried and is—

(i) On Duty.

(a) In the United Kingdom.

He will be eligible for subsistence allowance and will retain for the period of one month, the allowance of his post. Thereafter, the allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 50 per cent. of the total allowance provided this reduction shall not bring the amount of the allowance below the minimum of his salary scale.

(b) Temporarily attached to another post.

He will retain the whole of the allowance of his own post or draw that of the temporary post, whichever is higher, with subsistence allowance in addition at the discretion of the Secretary of State.

(c) On duty in circumstances other than those in (a) and (b).

He will retain the allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance.

(ii) On Earned Leave.

Wherever his leave may be taken and whatever the allowance of his post may be, the unmarried officer's allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 50 per cent. of the total allowance as from the date of departure on leave provided that this reduction shall not bring the amount of the allowance below the minimum of his salary scale and that this reduction shall not be applied in respect of brief absences within a total of 14 days in one calendar year.

(iii) On Sick Leave Outside the Country where Posted.

His earned allowance (see paragraph 6 (ii)) will be reduced as from the date of departure on sick leave, by 25 per cent. for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances.

Comment :—

An unmarried officer on sick leave outside the country where he is posted, who is due to return to his post, may thus incur a double cut in his foreign allowance.

B.—Officer not returning to his Post.

7. When the officer is married and takes his wife and family (if any) with him and is—

(i) On Temporary Duty.

(a) In the United Kingdom.

He will drop his foreign allowance and receive a taxable allowance at the following annual rates :—

Grade 4 (officer other than Head of Mission)	445
Grade 5	460
Grade 6	490
Grade 7	420
Grades 8 and 9	170

(b) At another post.

He will receive the allowance of that post.

(ii) On Earned Leave.

He will receive the allowance described in paragraph

7 (i) (a) above.

(iii) On Sick Leave in the United Kingdom.

No allowance will be payable.

8. When an officer is married and leaves his wife and family (if any) at his post—

Such cases are likely to be rare and will be dealt with on their merits.

9. When the officer is unmarried and is—

(i) On Temporary Duty.

(a) In the United Kingdom.

He will drop his foreign allowance and receive a taxable allowance at the following annual rates :—

Grade 4 (officer other than Head of Mission)	220
Grade 5	220
Grade 6	240
Grade 7	210
Grades 8 and 9	85

(b) At another post.

He will receive the allowance of that post.

(ii) On Earned Leave.

He will receive the allowance described in paragraph 9 (i) (a) above.

(iii) On Sick Leave in the United Kingdom.

No allowance will be payable.

10. An officer, married or unmarried, who is on sick leave in the country where he is posted will retain his allowance in full for two months, thereafter the allowance will be reduced by 25 per cent. for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances.

11. Subject to a deduction equivalent to the additional allowance for entertainment to be granted to the Chargé d'Affaires, as provided in paragraph 12 of this Regulation, the Head of a Diplomatic Mission will continue to receive his fruits in full during absences on authorised leave or on duty on the condition that he continues to defray the expenses of the upkeep of the Mission during his absence. On the expiry of his authorised leave, if he is still absent from his post, the extent of any further deduction will be determined by the Secretary of State.

12. When an officer acts as Chargé d'Affaires at a Diplomatic Mission during the absence of the Head of the Mission, he will draw, in addition to his own foreign allowance, an allowance at rates laid down from time to time to enable him to meet the additional cost of entertainment.

REGULATION No. 4. HOME SERVICE ALLOWANCES

1. Home Service allowances will be payable to members of certain grades of Branch A of the Foreign Service appointed for duty at the Foreign Office after service abroad. They comprise four elements :—

(i) A transfer grant, payable on transfer from a post abroad to a post at home.

(ii) An annual allowance to provide for necessary entertainment for official purposes.

(iii) An annual allowance towards special expenditure on rent and representation necessarily arising in connexion with an officer's position as a member of the Foreign Service.

(iv) An annual allowance designed to assist officers to meet extra expenditure resulting from special conditions in the Foreign Service in connexion with the education of their children.

Transfer Grant.

2. This grant, which will not be liable to Income Tax, will be of an amount equivalent to one-tenth of the mean of the officer's salary scale. It will be payable to members of Branch A of the Foreign Service on appointment for duty at home after service abroad.

Comment :—

Where transfer is accompanied by promotion, this amount will be calculated on the new salary.

Entertainment Allowance.

3. This annual allowance, which will also not be liable to Income Tax, will be payable to members of Grades 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9, during service at home after duty abroad. The amount of the allowance will vary according to the officer's grade and according to whether he is married or single, as shown in the following table :—

	Married.	Single.
Grade 4	200	100
Grade 5	175	90
Grade 6	175	90
Grade 7	125	65
Grades 8 and 9	50	30

Rent and Representation Allowance.

4. This annual allowance, which will be liable to Income Tax, will be payable to members of Grades 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 during service at home after duty abroad. The amount of the allowance will vary according to the officer's grade (and, in the case of Grade 6, his salary) and according to whether he is married or single, as shown in the following table :—

	Married.	Single.
Grade 5	120	55

	Married.	Single.
Grade 6
Salaries—	£	£
£1,620-£1,700 ..	120	55
£1,520-£1,619 ...	130	70
£1,420-£1,519 ...	180	85
£1,320-£1,419	210	100
Grade 7 ..	210	100
Grades 8 and 9	55	55

Education Allowance.

5. These annual allowances will be payable to members of Grades 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 who are appointed from abroad for duty at home and are designed to assist those who, because of the special circumstances of their employment as members of the Foreign Service have found it necessary to send their children to boarding schools in this country. They will be subject to Income Tax and will be payable in respect of the excess over a standard figure, representing an average normal cost of bringing up and educating a child, of the cost of boarding school education. The maximum allowance payable will be £150 for each child, and the scheme will ordinarily apply to cases where not more than two children are necessarily being educated at boarding schools.

6. The period during which these allowances will be payable to any individual will be limited to a maximum of five years, before the expiry of which an officer may ordinarily expect to have again been posted abroad.

REGULATION No. 5. LEAVE

The following Regulation applies to members of Branch A of the Foreign Service :—

I.—Ordinary Leave.

1. Permission to take ordinary leave can only be granted subject to the exigencies of the Service.

2.—(a) Members of the Service can take the ordinary leave for which they are eligible under this regulation only with the permission :—

- (i) in the case of persons serving at a post abroad, of the Secretary of State and, where applicable, of the Head of the post or of the superintending post, or in the case of superintending consular officers, of the Head of the Mission;
- (ii) in the case of an Assistant Under-Secretary of State or of the Head of a Department in the Foreign Office, of the Permanent Under-Secretary of State or of the Superintending Under-Secretary of State as the case may be;
- (iii) in the case of other officers serving in United Kingdom, of the Head of the Department in which they are serving.

(b) Applications for leave from Heads of posts should state the name of the officer to be left in charge.

3. In calculating the number of days of ordinary leave to which an officer is eligible at any time :—

- (a) Sundays, occurring during a period when leave is being taken, are counted;
- (b) the remainder of the calendar year in which leave is taken may, if the officer so desires, be included in the computation;
- (c) If an officer falls sick while on ordinary leave, or during travelling time under paragraph 11 below and furnishes a medical certificate to that effect, the period of sickness will be regarded as sick leave.

4. Officers serving in the United Kingdom are eligible for the amount of ordinary leave prescribed in paragraph 6.

5. Except where otherwise stated, paragraphs 6 to 11 apply only to officers serving abroad.

6. Members of Branch A of the Foreign Service are eligible for ordinary leave at the rate of 42 days per annum during the first ten years of their service and 56 days per annum thereafter, together with any additional leave for which they may be eligible under paragraph 7 of this regulation

Comment .—

An officer taking leave in respect of a period of service for which only a part falls within his first ten years, is eligible for leave at the rate of 42 days per annum in respect of that part and at the rate of 56 days per annum for the remainder of the period.

7. Officers who are stationed at certain posts or in certain countries, which shall from time to time be specified by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury as unhealthy for purposes of leave of absence, and who, at the expiration of their leave, return to the same post or any other of the specified posts, are eligible for additional ordinary leave at the rate of 14 days per annum, with a maximum accumulation of 58 days.

8. Subject to the limitations of paragraph 10 below, ordinary leave may be taken :—

- (a) in the country where the officer is serving or in another country;
- (b) in one period during the calendar year covering all the leave for which the officer is eligible in that year;
- (c) in more than one period during the calendar year;
- (d) by accumulating the leave to which the officer is entitled (or any part thereof) over a period of more than one year.

Comment :—

Officers passing through the United Kingdom on transfer will normally be required to take any leave for which they are then eligible.

9. Where an officer has spent sick leave in the United Kingdom, he should take any ordinary leave for which he is eligible at the time his sick leave terminates before he returns to his post abroad, unless the Secretary of State decides otherwise.

10. The following rules are applicable to accumulated leave :—

- (a) No officer of less than ten years' service can accumulate more than 126 days ordinary leave and no other officer more than 168 days ordinary leave. These limits of 126 and 168 days respectively are increased by 28 days in the case of officers serving at the posts or in the countries referred to in paragraph 7 of this regulation.
- (b) An officer who has accumulated ordinary leave must, on the next occasion when he is granted travelling time for the purpose of proceeding on leave, take all the accumulated leave to which he is then entitled.
- (c) Save in exceptional circumstances and with the express permission of the Secretary of State, no leave may be accumulated in respect of service in the United Kingdom.

11. Travelling time (i.e., the time occupied by the outward and return journey by an approved route between the country where the officer is serving and the country where he is taking his leave) is allowed on one occasion in respect of each calendar year in addition to the periods of ordinary leave the under previous paragraphs of this regulation with the proviso that travelling time thus allowed shall not exceed the time occupied by a journey to and from the United Kingdom by an approved route.

Comment :—

For the conditions on which travelling allowances are granted, see Regulation No. 6.

II.—Sick Leave.

12. Unless otherwise stated, the following paragraphs of this regulation, apply to members of the Service whether they are serving in the United Kingdom or abroad.

13. The grant of sick leave is subject in all cases to the Secretary of State being satisfied that the officer to whom it is granted has a reasonable prospect of recovery so as to enable him to return to his duties.

14. The grant of sick leave to any officer for a period exceeding four days is conditional on the production by the officer of a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner indicating the nature of the illness and the period estimated to be required for recovery. If the number of days during which any officer is absent on sick leave in any period of twelve months without such certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days of absence in excess of seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary leave allowable.

15. The permissions required for the grant of sick leave are the same as those described in paragraph 2 of this Regulation. In the case of officers serving abroad, no reference need be made to the Foreign Office for any period of sick leave not exceeding 14 days.

16. The Secretary of State may require further medical certificates or periodical medical certificates reporting progress where he considers it desirable.

17. Sick leave on full pay may be granted for a period or periods not exceeding six months in the aggregate during any period of twelve months. An officer who has had sick leave on full pay for the maximum period may be granted sick leave on half pay, subject always to a maximum of twelve months' sick leave (whether on whole or half pay) in any period of four years.

Comment :—

Sick leave for periods not exceeding four days covered by a medical certificate (see paragraphs 14 and 15) are counted for the purpose of the application of paragraph 17 above.

18. Where an officer has been granted the maximum amount of sick leave which can be granted on full or half pay, the grant of further sick leave will be conditional on the receipt by the Secretary of State of a reliable medical certificate showing that the officer is considered likely to be able to resume his duties within a reasonable period. If further sick leave is granted, the officer may be paid a salary at the rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which he would have been qualified if he had retired for reasons of health at the time when his period of sick leave expired (hereafter referred to as pension rate of pay); or on half pay if this would be less than pension rate of pay. If the officer is unable to furnish a medical certificate as described above his retirement from the Service on grounds of ill-health will have to be considered.

Comment :—

(1) Sick leave in excess of twelve months during any period of four years will not qualify for annual increments of salary, or for pension on retirement.

(2) See paragraph 9 of this Regulation as to the taking of accrued ordinary leave at the end of sick leave in the case of an officer serving abroad.

(3) See paragraph 3 (c) of this Regulation as regards officers falling sick during their ordinary leave.

III.—Leave (General).

19. Every officer serving abroad must inform the Personnel Department, in advance if possible, of the date on which he intends to proceed on ordinary, sick or special leave, and of the address to which he is going. Every subsequent change of address must be reported to that Department.

20. Every officer serving abroad must inform the Personnel Department in advance of the date on which he intends to leave the United Kingdom in order to return to his post from leave.

21. The actual dates of every officer's departure from his post on leave and of his return must be officially reported to the Foreign Office by telegram in the case of heads of posts and by despatch in other cases.

22. When circumstances permit, officers will be expected to spend their ordinary leave in the United Kingdom in order that they may keep in touch with developments in this country. They will be expected to undertake such tours or refresher courses and to pay such visits to Government Departments in London as are required of them. Time spent in this way will not count against leave. Officers will, during the period of such tours and visits, be eligible for subsistence allowance at the home rates. (See Regulation No. 6).

REGULATION No. 6. TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES

1. This regulation applies exclusively to members of Branch A of the Service.

2. Whenever an officer makes a journey on public Service, the amount of fares by rail, ship, aircraft or motor car, as the case may be, for the journey in question by the approved route will be payable to him.

Comment :—

The "approved route" means the route approved for the particular journey in question. In many cases there is a standard route for journeys between different countries which will be the "approved route." An officer who makes the journey by a route other than the approved route (e.g., travels by air or in his own car when the approved route is by rail, &c.) will not be able to claim more than the amount payable for a journey by the approved route. On the other hand, if the route which he takes is cheaper than the approved route he will not be able to claim more than the actual expenses incurred.

3. Journeys on the public Service include :—

(a) Any journey made by an officer serving at home or abroad for the purpose of attending an international conference or discussion or consultation, or of making a tour or visit, which the officer makes with the authority of the Secretary of State.

Comment :—

The Secretary of State may delegate to the Head of a Diplomatic Mission authority to sanction journeys by members of the Service in the territories within his jurisdiction.

(b) Any journey from the United Kingdom made by an officer to his post abroad on his appointment to such a post.

(c) Any journey to his new post made by an officer on transfer from the place where the officer was previously serving or, if he was on leave at the time of transfer, from the place where he was spending his leave. If, however, the journey from the place where he was spending his leave is more expensive than the journey from his previous post, the officer will not be able to claim more than the amount payable in respect of a journey from the United Kingdom or from his previous post as the Secretary of State may decide.

(d) Where the journey in the cases referred to in (b) and (c) above is made by an officer who is being moved at his own request before the completion of 3 years' service at his post or by an officer who is being moved on account of misconduct, the officer will not be entitled to be repaid the cost of his travelling expenses.

4. The amount of the fares by rail, ship, aircraft or motor car, as the case may be, by an approved route, will be payable to an officer serving abroad :—

(a) If he is proceeding from or returning to his post during ordinary leave, in the cases specified in paragraph 5 below.

(b) If he is proceeding from or returning to his post during sick leave, in the cases specified in paragraph 6 below.

(c) If he is retiring on pension and is proceeding from his post to his place of retirement. If the journey to the place of his retirement is a more expensive journey than a journey to the United Kingdom, the officer will not be entitled to claim more than would be payable in respect of the journey to the United Kingdom.

(d) An officer who retires in circumstances where he is not granted a pension (i.e., at his own request or for misconduct) may not claim any travelling allowances on retirement.

5. An officer will only be entitled to receive the amount of fares in the case referred to in paragraph 4 (a) above (ordinary leave) after 24 months' service at his post, or in the case of officers serving at certain posts or in certain countries which are regarded as unhealthy for purposes of leave, after 18 months' service. Where leave is taken in a country other than the United Kingdom, the amounts payable in respect of fares will not usually be paid from public funds and will only be allowed if the Secretary of State decides that payment from public funds is warranted by the special circumstances of the case and, in any case, will not exceed those which would be payable in respect of a journey to or from the United Kingdom by an approved route. If, however, the amount of the fares to or from the place at which leave is being taken is less than the amount of the fares for a journey to the United Kingdom, the officer will not receive more than the amount of the fares for the journey actually taken.

Comment :—

An officer who receives travelling expenses for the purpose of proceeding on leave to the United Kingdom may be required during his stay to visit industrial areas, to study aspects of the national life on which it is his duty to be informed, or to consult with Government Departments. Any time so spent will be additional to authorised leave.

6. In the cases referred to in paragraph 4 (b) above (sick leave), the Secretary of State may at his discretion allow the payment to the officer of the amount of the fares from his post to such place as the officer may proceed under medical advice on health grounds or for the purposes of undergoing treatment which is not available locally.

Comment :—

The Secretary of State will require, before sanctioning the payment of the amount of fares under the above paragraph, the production of a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner that it is necessary for the officer to proceed to the place to which the journey is made on health grounds.

7.—(a) An officer who is making a journey in any of the cases referred to in (b) or (c) of paragraph 3 or in (a) or (c) of paragraph 4 above will be entitled to receive the amount of the fares by the approved route for members of his family, as defined in paragraph (b) below. In the cases referred to in (a) of paragraph 3 and (b) of paragraph 4 he will only be entitled to receive the amounts of the fares for any members of his family if the Secretary of State in any particular case so decides.

Comment :—

(1) Families will be expected to travel together. Where the officer's family do not travel with him their expenses will not be paid unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that there was a good reason for separate journeys.

(2) Travelling expenses will be allowed for an officer's wife in cases under (a) of paragraph 3 only where the Secretary of State has been satisfied in advance that it was necessary or desirable for her to accompany the officer.

(3) Where, for the reasons given in paragraphs 3 (d) and 4 (d), the officer is not entitled to receive the amount of the fares for his family, he will not be able to claim them for his family.

(b) The members of an officer's family referred to in (a) above are—

- (i) his wife, or if he is unmarried or a widower and is not living in an hotel, a sister or other relative who lives with him and acts as his hostess ;
- (ii) sons who at the time of the commencement of the journey are under 16 years of age, or who, though 16 years of age or over, reside with and are dependent on their father by reason of physical or mental infirmity ;
- (iii) unmarried daughters residing with or dependent on their father ;
- (iv) sons up to the age of 18 years who are resident at their father's post abroad and are receiving full-time education at that post.

Comment :—

Adopted or step-sons or daughters are included in the above enumeration.

(c) The amount of the fares of the members of the family of an officer serving abroad who dies, leaving his family abroad, for a journey from the place where they are to go, will be paid at the request of his widow or other member of his family up to the amount of the fares from the officer's post to the United Kingdom.

(d) If a member of the family of an officer serving abroad who is resident with the officer at his post is seriously ill and is required to proceed elsewhere on health grounds or for the purposes of treatment, the Secretary of State may, at his discretion allow payment to the officer of the return fares of the sick person and (where necessary) another person travelling with the sick person, from the officer's post to such place as the sick person may proceed on medical advice.

Comment :—

The comment to paragraph 6 above applies here.

8.—(a) An officer who is making a journey in any of the cases referred to in (b) or (c) of paragraph 3 or (a) or (c) of paragraph 4 above will be entitled to receive the amount of the fares by the approved route for servants (within the limits specified in paragraph (b) below). The Secretary of State may in special circumstances authorise the payment of the fares of a servant accompanying the officer in the cases referred to in (b) of paragraph 4 (provided no member of the family is also accompanying the officer) and (a) of paragraph 3 above.

(b) The maximum number of servants in respect of whom the amounts of fares may be paid are—

Heads of Missions : 5 ;

Married officers in Grades 4, 5 and 6 (other than Heads of Missions) : 3 ;

Married officers in Grades 7 to 9, and unmarried officers in Grades 4, 5, 6 : 2 ;

Other officers : 1,
except that in the cases referred to in (a) of paragraph 4 (ordinary leave) the maximum number of servants is—
Heads of Missions : 3 ;

Married officers in Grades 4 to 6 (other than Heads of Missions) : 2 ;

Other officers : 1.

Comment :—

Comments (1) and (2) to paragraph 7 (a) above also apply to the case of servants.

(c) Where an officer serving abroad dies, leaving at his post servants whom he had brought from the United Kingdom or elsewhere to his post and for whose return to their homes he has made himself responsible, the amount of the fares for such servants (within the limits of (b) above) for a journey from his post to their homes will be paid on request up to the amount of the fares to the United Kingdom.

9. Where the amounts of fares are payable under the preceding paragraphs of this Regulation these fares will be (a) in the case of the officer or members of his family, first-class fares, including sleeping berths for a land journey, (b) in the case of servants, third-class fares in the United Kingdom and second-class fares elsewhere. Where, however, the servant is a nurse or governess travelling with the officer's child or children of 10 years of age or under, a first-class fare will be paid. (This does not apply to a journey, or part of a journey by land where (a) there is only one such child, or (b) first-class sleeping accommodation is obtainable on payment of a supplement to a second-class fare, in which case this supplement will be payable.) First-class fares will, however, be payable in respect of servants in cases where no second-class accommodation is available, or, in exceptional cases abroad where the Secretary of State is satisfied that second-class accommodation is unsuitable for Europeans.

10.—(a) In any case where the amount of fares is payable under the preceding paragraphs of this regulation, except in the case of journeys on ordinary and sick leave, a subsistence allowance will be granted to meet the expenses of food and sleeping accommodation, where these are not included in the fare. The subsistence allowance will be at the rate in force at the time for the countries traversed by the approved route or for journeys by sea.

(b) Full subsistence allowance will be payable in respect of the officer himself, three quarters of the full allowance for his wife, one half of the full allowance for every other member of his family above the age of 12 months, and three-eighths of the full allowance for servants, subject to the limitation as to numbers laid down in paragraphs 7 (b) and 8 (b) of this Regulation.

(c) Where some, but not all, of the items for which subsistence allowance is granted are provided under the fare, the subsistence allowance will be proportionately reduced.

Comment :—

(1) If an officer is allowed the expenses of a sleeping berth on a long journey, he will receive only two thirds of the subsistence allowance to meet the cost of his food.

(2) Subsistence allowances are payable only in cases where fares are payable or if the expenses which the allowance is designed to meet are not covered by the payment of a fare. Consequently, they are payable, inter alia, in the cases in 7 (c) or 8 (c), but not in cases under 3 (d) or 4 (d).

(3) See the comment to paragraph 2 above.

11. Necessary expenses (such as taxi fares, fees for registration of luggage, portorage, &c.) incidental to the journey in respect of which the amount of the fare is payable under the preceding paragraphs of this regulation will be payable to the officer on his application.

Comment :—

(1) Only incidental expenses which are reasonably necessary will be payable under this paragraph and the officer will be required to certify that the expenses which he claims were necessarily incurred.

(2) The comment to paragraph 2 above and comment (1) and (3) to paragraph 7 above apply to claims to these expenses.

12. Where an officer is proceeding to his post on transfer or on first appointment abroad or leaving his post on retirement on pension or on an appointment to the United Kingdom, or when an officer dies while serving abroad, the cost of transporting his personal effects by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed up to such amount as the Secretary of State may consider to be reasonable, except in the circumstances indicated in paragraphs 3 (d) and 4 (d).

Comment :—

(1) This paragraph applies to heavy luggage containing personal effects as opposed to ordinary travelling luggage, which goes under paragraph 11 above, and the furniture which is dealt with in paragraph 13 below. It includes such things as clothes, household linen, books and small articles of decoration. The cost of transporting heavy articles such as pianos, radiograms and large gramophones would not be allowed under this head. As regards the transport of motor cars, see paragraph 16.

(2) Comments (1) and (3) to paragraph 7 above also apply here.

13.—(a) Where an officer is appointed or transferred to a post and has been authorised by the Secretary of State to rent unfurnished accommodation, the cost of transporting the officer's own furniture by an approved route and method of transport to his post will be allowed, but only within the following limits :—

(i) In the case of unmarried officers below Grade 6 up to 4 tons, or 800 cubic feet, or 23 cubic metres.

(ii) In the case of married or unmarried officers of Grades 1 to 6, and married officers of lower grades, up to 10½ tons, or 2,100 cubic feet, or 60 cubic metres.

Comment :—

(1) The limits specified in (ii) above are the equivalent of about three van loads.

(2) In order to ensure that claims for the cost of transporting furniture are as low as possible, officers should, whenever possible, obtain three competitive tenders for transport, including insurance of the risk against damage in transport.

(b) Where an officer is allowed the cost of transporting his furniture under (a) above but cannot immediately find suitable unfurnished accommodation at his new post, he will be allowed storage charges for furniture up to the limits specified in (a) above, for a reasonable period.

Comment :—

The storage under (b) may be at his new post or his old post. The period allowed will not ordinarily exceed 3 months.

(c) Where an officer has been given a rent allowance or furnished accommodation or where his official residence, though furnished, has not been completely equipped, he will be allowed the cost of transporting by an approved route and method of transport any essential articles of furniture, which are not included in the furniture provided.

(d) Where an officer is leaving his post on retirement on pension or on appointment to the United Kingdom, or when an officer serving abroad dies, the cost of transporting his furniture to the United Kingdom or place of retirement by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed up to the limits as to quantity specified in (a) above, and up to the limits as to cost of the transport to London.

(e) Where the officer is being moved in the circumstances indicated in paragraphs 3 (d) and 4 (d), no allowances can be claimed under this paragraph.

14. Where an officer serving abroad is, at the time of his transfer to a new appointment, in possession of furniture at his old post and is not granted an allowance for transferring his furniture to his new post under paragraph 13 (a) above, the officer will, at his option, be allowed (unless the transfer is made in the circumstances indicated in paragraphs 3 (d) or 4 (d)) either the cost of removing the furniture to London up to the limits of the quantity of furniture specified in 13 (a), or the cost of storing the furniture up to these limits as to quantity, and up to the limits as to cost of the transport of the furniture to London.

Comment :—

If the officer is subsequently transferred to another post abroad in circumstances where he may be allowed the cost of removing his furniture to this post, he is then eligible to apply for the cost of removing his furniture under paragraph 13 (a) from London or the place abroad where he stored it, as the case may be. If he retires on pension or dies and his furniture has been stored abroad under paragraph 14, application may be made for the cost of removing his furniture to London under paragraph 13 (d).

15.—(a) Where an allowance is granted for the purpose of removing furniture under paragraphs 13 (a) or (d) or 14, or of removing essential articles of furniture under paragraph 13 (c) or of removing heavy luggage under paragraph 12, the reasonable cost of insuring during transit will also be allowed up to the limits specified in (b) below.

Comment :—

Only the premium to cover the additional risks on removal will be allowed. No allowance for insurance will be given in so far as the risk is covered by the contract of removal and therefore covered by the allowances for removal.

(b) The limits referred to in (a) of this paragraph are :—

(i) Where an allowance for the removal of furniture has been given, under paragraph 13 (a).

The total value of all insured property shall not exceed—

In the case of the Head of a Mission ..	5,000
In the case of Officers in Grades 4, 5 and 6 (other than Heads of Missions) ..	3,000
In the case of other married officers ..	2,000
In the case of other unmarried officers ...	1,000

(ii) Where an allowance for the removal of essential articles of furniture has been given, under paragraph 13 (c).

In the case of the Head of a Mission ..	4,000
In the case of Officers in Grades 4, 5 and 6 (other than Heads of Missions) ...	2,000
In the case of other married officers ...	1,500
In the case of other unmarried officers ..	750

(iii) Where an allowance for the removal of personal effects only has been given, under paragraph 12.

In the case of the Head of a Mission ...	2,000
In the case of Officers in Grades 4, 5, and 6 (other than Heads of Missions) ...	1,500
In the case of other married officers ...	1,000
In the case of other unmarried officers ...	500

16. Where an officer is appointed or transferred to a post at which it is necessary for the proper execution of his duties that he should have his own private motor car and where the Secretary of State is satisfied that it is not possible for the officer to purchase a car locally on reasonable conditions, the cost of transporting a car from the United Kingdom or from his previous post by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed.

Comment :—

The motor car need not be included within the limits as regards weight and cubic capacity specified in paragraph 13 above.

REGULATION No. 7. RENT ALLOWANCES

1. A member of Branch A of the Foreign Service serving abroad at a post at which a furnished residence is not provided, will receive a rent allowance sufficient, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, to enable him to defray the cost of renting suitable furnished accommodation, excluding services and other tenant's charges. Alternatively, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State, an officer may be provided with a rent allowance sufficient to enable him to defray the cost of renting suitable unfurnished accommodation, excluding services and other tenant's charges, where, under the provisions and within the limits of paragraph 13 (a) of Regulation No. 6 he is entitled to claim the cost of transporting his own furniture to his post.

Comment :—

The Ministry of Works Regulations regarding Government property will apply in all cases where Government furniture is provided. No charge will be made for the use of Government furniture.

2. The rent allowance becomes payable from the date when an officer arrives at his post unless he is granted a subsistence allowance, in which case it becomes payable when this allowance terminates. Subject to paragraph 4 below, rent allowance ceases to be payable on the day on which the officer leaves his post on termination of his appointment.

3. An officer who is unable to find suitable accommodation immediately on arrival at his new post may be allowed to claim, in lieu of foreign and rent allowances, subsistence allowance for himself and for each member of his family (including servants) for whom fares are payable from public funds for a period not normally exceeding 28 days, and at the rates specified in paragraph 10 of Regulation No. 6.

4. Where an officer who has been granted a rent allowance is transferred to another post otherwise than at his own request and can show that he has been unable to dispose of the lease of his residence, he will be allowed to claim, as compensation for the rent for which he is liable, a sum which shall not exceed the rent allowance previously granted to him, for a period which will be determined by the Secretary of State but which will not exceed three months except in special cases.

5. An officer who has been granted a rent allowance may receive that allowance during the periods of authorised absence if the Secretary of State is satisfied that he has not been able to sub-let.

Comment :—

Officers who rent accommodation must furnish a certificate from the Head of the Diplomatic Mission or the Superintending consular officer—as the case may be—that they have made the most economical arrangements consistent with their rank and requirements. They must themselves defray any additional expenditure on rent which may be caused by maintaining larger or more expensive establishments than are necessary. They must also endeavour to obtain a clause (known as a “diplomatic clause”) in the lease enabling them to terminate it at short notice in the event of transfer before its expiry.

REGULATION No. 8. LANGUAGE ALLOWANCES

1. A language allowance of £100 a year (taxable) will be payable to any officer of Branch A of the Foreign Service of the rank of Grade 6 or below (i.e., of the rank of Counsellor, Consul-General or below) who is certified by the Civil Service Commission to have passed an examination in and to possess a competent knowledge, colloquial and otherwise, for ordinary purposes, of any of the following languages :—

CLASS I.

Chinese.	Siamese.	Arabic.
Japanese.	Amharic.	Persian.

CLASS II.

Bulgarian.	Hungarian.	Russian.
Czecho-Slovak.	Modern Greek.	Serbo-Croatian.
Finnish.	Polish.	Turkish.

2. The allowance may be increased to £200 a year (taxable) to officers who acquire a high standard of proficiency, sufficient to enable them to act as interpreters, in any of the languages in Class I.

Comment :—

(1) Members of Branch A of the Foreign Service will be expected, wherever possible, to learn the language of the country in which they are posted.

(2) Candidates for any of the allowances specified in this Regulation will normally be required to pay their own teachers' fees, except in the case of those officers who on first appointment abroad are instructed to devote themselves primarily to acquiring a thorough knowledge of Chinese, Japanese, Siamese, Persian, Russian, Arabic, Turkish or Amharic.

(3) Officers who learn a language (other than French) for which no annual allowance is payable, may be allowed teachers' fees on a reasonable scale.

3. Language allowances will be payable only while the officer holds a post in a country where the language for which he has been granted an allowance is in current use.

Comment :—

Not more than one such allowance will be payable under the provisions of this paragraph.

REGULATION No. 9. TRANSFERS AND PROMOTIONS

This regulation applies to members of Branch A of the Foreign Service.

1. In regard to all appointments whatever in the Service, the Secretary of State will be free to make any such selection as, on his own responsibility, he may deem right without being bound by claims founded on seniority or on membership of the Service.

Comments :—

(1) The Secretary of State is not bound by the recommendations referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 below.

(2) In accordance with Article 5 (3) of the Foreign Service Order in Council, 1943, the secondment or appointment of Foreign Service officers to posts outside the Foreign Service will not be excluded when it can be shown to be useful to the public service.

2. All members of the Service, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to any post at which their services may be required.

Comment :—

When appointments and transfers are made account will be taken, so far as possible, of the circumstances and wishes of the individual; members of the Service will, however, be expected, save in exceptional circumstances, to regard an intimation that they are to be transferred to a certain post as an order and not as a request.

3. Recommendations for transfers and promotions in or to grade 6 or higher grades will be made to the Secretary of State by the Promotions Board.

Comment :—

The Promotions Board will be convened by the Permanent Under-Secretary as and when he considers it desirable for the purpose of advising the Secretary of State on appointments to higher posts in the Service as well as on other administrative or disciplinary questions. The Board will sit under the Chairmanship of the Permanent Under-Secretary of State and will ordinarily consist of the Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State, the Deputy and Assistant Under-Secretaries of State, the head of the Personnel Department, and the Principal Private Secretary to the Secretary of State. The President of the Board of Trade will be represented when appropriate.

4. Recommendations for transfers and promotions in or to grades 7, 8 and 9 of Branch A will be made by the Personnel Department in consultation with the Private Secretary to the Secretary of State, and the head of Department and Under-Secretary concerned. These recommendations will be subject to the approval of the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration.

REGULATION No. 10. DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS

1.—(i) This Regulation applies to all cases where a member of the Service is accused of a disciplinary offence. It does not apply to cases where an officer is merely admonished.

(ii) (a) In this Regulation the expression “disciplinary offence” means conduct by a member of the Service prejudicial to the interests of the Service or unbefitting the position which he holds in the Service, or disobedience of official instructions of such a character that a warning or a reprimand with or without a transfer to another post may be an appropriate penalty.

(b) In this Regulation a “grave disciplinary offence” means a disciplinary offence which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, is of so serious a character that dismissal from the Service or a reduction in rank or a loss of seniority may be an appropriate penalty.

Comment to paragraph 1 (a) and (b):—

It is not possible or desirable to attempt to lay down rules which determine in all circumstances what conduct constitutes a disciplinary offence or a grave disciplinary offence or the penalty that would be appropriate. There are certain courses of conduct which are reprehensible whatever the rank of the member; in other cases conduct may be reprehensible if the member holds a high post, but less serious when the member is of junior status. There are also courses of conduct which may most appropriately be dealt with by the Head of the Post at which the officer is serving or by the Head of the Personnel Department direct. The Report of the 25th February, 1938, of a Board of Enquiry appointed to investigate certain statements affecting civil servants is still fully applicable to members of the Foreign Service as a useful guide to their conduct.

(c) "Promotions Board" means either the whole Board or a committee of the Board selected by the Permanent Under-Secretary of State.

(d) Any reference to a person holding any office includes a person, who is, with the authority of the Secretary of State, temporarily acting for the holder of that office.

2. The expression "official superior" means in the case of:—

- (i) a member of the staff of a Diplomatic Mission abroad, the Head of that Mission or a Foreign Service Inspector or, in the case of the Head of the Mission, a Foreign Service Inspector or a person charged by the Secretary of State to investigate the matter;
- (ii) a member of the staff of a Consulate, the senior Consular Officer of the district or a Foreign Service Inspector or, in the case of the senior Consular Officer of the district, the Head of the Diplomatic Mission of the country in which the Consulate is situated (if any) or a Foreign Service Inspector;
- (iii) a person working in the Foreign Office, the superintending Under-Secretary of State for the Department in which the person is working, or, where such person is not working in any particular Department or holds the rank of Under-Secretary of State, the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration.

3. The Secretary of State may suspend a member of the Foreign Service from duty if the question whether he has been guilty of a disciplinary offence is raised and the Secretary of State considers that his suspension is desirable until the question has been investigated and a decision reached. Unless the Secretary of State shall determine otherwise, the remuneration of an officer suspended from duty will cease from the date of his suspension. In the event of his reinstatement, it may, however, be restored wholly or in part should the Secretary of State so determine.

4. Complaints of disciplinary offences by a member of the Service shall be made by the official superior in a letter addressed to the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration setting out the full facts of the case with any comments or explanations which the official superior feels it necessary to make. A copy of this letter shall be communicated to the person complained of either by the official superior or, if he has not done so, by the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration.

5. The member of the Service complained of may present his defence to the complaint made against him in a letter addressed to the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration. The Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration may refer this letter to the official superior for his comments, and any comments received in reply from the official superior will be communicated to the person complained of in order that he may have an opportunity of making any further reply which he may think necessary.

6. It is not desirable that the official superior should address any other communications about the case to the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration or to any other person, but, should he do so, they will be treated in accordance with the procedure laid down in paragraph 4 above.

7. If the disciplinary offence is an ordinary disciplinary offence and the person complained of does not dispute the facts, the decision as to the penalty to be imposed may be taken by the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration and communicated by him or by the Head of the Personnel Department to the person concerned. If the person complained of disputes the facts alleged against him or wishes to appeal against the penalty, the case shall be referred to a committee of the Promotions Board under the chairmanship of the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration on which a legal adviser of the Foreign Office shall sit if the Secretary of State so directs or if the person complained of so requests. In this event the Board shall furnish to the Secretary of State in writing its opinion on the facts and as to what, if any, offence is proved (if the facts are in dispute), and its advice upon the penalty.

8.—(i) If the disciplinary offence is a grave disciplinary offence, and the person complained of does not dispute the facts alleged against him, the case shall be sent to the Promotions Board to express their advice as to the penalty. This advice shall be furnished to the Secretary of State in writing.

(ii) If the person complained of disputes the facts alleged against him, his case shall be heard by a committee of the Promotions Board composed as provided in paragraph 7 above, and the Board shall furnish to the Secretary of State in writing its opinion as to the facts and what offence (if any) is proved and its advice as to the penalty. In either case the decision of the Secretary of State shall be communicated to the person concerned by the Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Administration.

9. When any disciplinary offence is referred for consideration to the Promotions Board, all the letters relating to the offence referred to in paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 above shall be laid before the Board. The Board may summon any witnesses whom it considers it desirable to hear, and the accused person shall have a right to be heard and subject to the consent of the Board to bring any witnesses whom he may desire. The accused person shall have the right to be present, when all other witnesses are giving evidence.

10. The decision as to the penalty shall in all cases remain vested in the Secretary of State after he has considered the report and advice of the Board.

REGULATION No. 11. ACCEPTANCE OF OUTSIDE APPOINTMENTS

1. The assent of the Secretary of State must be obtained before a member of Grades 1-5 of Branch A of the Foreign Service, after resignation or retirement, accepts an appointment in a business or other body :—

- (a) which is in contractual relationship with the Government ;
 - (b) which is in receipt of any subsidies or their equivalent from the Government ;
 - (c) in which the Government is a shareholder ;
 - (d) which is in receipt from the Government of any loans, guarantees, or other forms of capital assistance ;
 - (e) with which Services or Departments or Branches of Government are, as a matter of course, in a special relationship ; and
 - (f) any semi-public organisation brought into being by the Government and/or by Parliament.
2. After the lapse of two years from the date of retirement, such assent will no longer be required.

CHAPTER III

Branch B

REGULATION No. 1. GRADES AND SALARIES

1. The grades and salaries of members of Branch B of the Foreign Service are :—

- Grade 1.—£1,350, rising by annual increments of £50 to £1,600.
- Grade 1A.—(Men) £1,200, rising by annual increments of £35, to £1,350.
(Women) £1,025, rising by annual increments of £30, to £1,200.
- Grade 2.—(Men) £1,000, rising by annual increments of £30, to £1,090, and thence by annual increments of £35, to £1,200
(Women) £830, rising by annual increments of £30, to £1,025.
- Grade 3.—(Men) £850, rising by annual increments of £25, to £1,000.
(Women) £725 rising by annual increments of £25, to £830.
- Grade 4.—(Men) £675, rising by annual increments of £25, to £800.
(Women) £550, rising by annual increments of £25, to £675.
- Grade 5.—(Men) £230, rising by annual increments of £20, to £290, and then by annual increments of £25 to £390 and thence by annual increments of £20 to £650.
(Women) £230, rising by annual increments of £20, to £370, and then by annual increments of £15 to £525.
- Grade 5A.—(Men) £525, rising by annual increments of £20, to £650.
(Women) £420, rising by annual increments of £15, to £525.
- Grade 6.—(Men) £150 (for 2 years) rising by annual increments of £20, to £270, and thence by annual increments of £15, to £450.
(Women) £150 (for 2 years), rising by annual increments of £20, to £190, and then by annual increments of £15 to £250, and thence by annual increments of £10 to £360.

Comment :—

2. Grade 1 consists of the Heads of the Finance and Communications Departments of the Foreign Office.

Grade 1A consists of the Deputy Head of the Establishment and Organisation Department and the Chief Passport Officer.

Grade 2. Officers of this grade when serving in the United Kingdom act, inter alia, as Assistants to the Heads of certain Departments of the Foreign Office and, when serving abroad, take charge of certain Consular posts or act as Administration Officers at certain of the larger Diplomatic Missions.

Grade 3. Officers of this grade will, inter alia, when serving in the United Kingdom act as senior officers in certain departments of the Foreign Office and, when abroad, will take charge of certain Consulates or act as second-in-charge at certain Consulates-General.

Grade 4. Officers of this grade will, inter alia, while in the United Kingdom perform general departmental duties in certain departments of the Foreign Office and, when serving abroad, will act as Vice-Consuls or, when employed at Diplomatic Missions, will perform responsible duties in Chanceries.

Grade 5. Officers of this grade, will, inter alia, when serving in the United Kingdom perform duties in certain departments of the Foreign Office and, when serving abroad, will act as Archivists, Accountants, &c., at Diplomatic Missions or as senior clerks in Consular offices.

Grade 5A. Officers of this grade will be few in number and will mainly be employed in the supervision of blocks of Grade 6 officers.

Grade 6 consists of officers engaged in general clerical duties.

3. Any officer in Branch B serving abroad who, in the cases specified below, is called upon to assume the full duties of a post, which has been approved as a post to be occupied by an officer two grades above his own in Branch B or by an officer of the comparable grade in Branch A, may be granted, after a period of three months and while continuing to perform such higher duties, an acting allowance equal to one-quarter of the salary of the grade in which he is acting (or the mean of the salary of that grade if it is on a scale) always provided that the officer's own salary together with the Acting Allowance shall not exceed the minimum of the salary for the grade in which he is acting—

- (a) a Branch B officer of Grade 6 acting for an officer of Grade 4 (or a Branch A officer of Grade 9) ;
- (b) a Branch B officer of Grade 5 acting for an officer of Grade 3 (or a Branch A officer of Grade 8) ;
- (c) a Branch B officer of Grade 4 acting for an officer of Grade 2 (or a Branch A officer of Grade 7) ;
- (d) a Branch B officer of Grade 3 acting for a Branch A officer of Grade 6.

4. When there is a vacancy as Head of a post abroad or as Head of a Department in the Foreign Office which has been approved as a post to be occupied by an officer in Grade 6 of Branch A or in Grade 1 of Branch B, and the salary attaching to that post is available, an officer in Grade 2 or Grade 3 of Branch B who assumes the full duties of that post may be granted an acting allowance to bring his salary up to the minimum of the salary scale of Grade 6 of Branch A or of Grade 1 of Branch B.

Comment :—

The meaning of the expression "the salary of the post is available" is that the salary in question is not being paid to any person.

REGULATION No. 2. OUTFIT AND TRANSFER ALLOWANCE

1. Outfit allowances will be payable on the following basis :—

- (i) The actual reasonable cost of a Foreign Service uniform when its purchase is authorised.
- (ii) (a) On first appointment abroad from the United Kingdom : £100 for a married man, £50 for an unmarried man or woman

- (b) On subsequent appointment abroad or on transfer from one post abroad to another post abroad : one-tenth of the mean of the salary scale in the case of a transfer to a post where furniture is not provided and one-twentieth if furniture is provided.

Comment :—

(i) Where transfer is accompanied by promotion this proportion will be based on the new salary scale. No outfit allowance will be granted in respect of promotion alone.

(ii) For payments in respect of a transfer to a post in the United Kingdom see Regulation No. 5 (Home Service Allowance).

(iii) Exceptionally, those officers who are established while serving at a post abroad may be given, on the occasion of their first transfer to another post abroad, the allowance specified in (i) (a) above or the allowance specified in (i) (b) above, whichever is the greater.

2. On appointment to a post at which special clothing is, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, necessary for climatic reasons, the allowances under paragraph 1 (ii) above will be increased by the actual cost of such clothing up to £30 in respect of an unmarried officer and £45 in respect of a married officer whose wife accompanies him. These increases will be subject to the production of a certificate that the sums claimed have been expended for the purposes laid down and will be limited to three occasions during an officer's career.

3. On promotion, with or without transfer : the actual cost of the alteration of the uniform (provided its initial purchase has been approved) rendered necessary by the promotion provided the cost is reasonable and is supported by a certificate that the amount has been paid for the purpose stated.

Comment :—

(i) Where an officer prefers to buy a new uniform instead of having his present one altered he may receive the cost which would have been incurred if he had had the necessary alterations made to his existing uniform.

(ii) An allowance for a new uniform will not be granted except where special circumstances are proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State.

REGULATION No. 3. FOREIGN ALLOWANCES

1. A foreign allowance will be assigned to officers of Branch B serving abroad.

Comment :—

(i) Salary is intended to cover necessary expenditure in the United Kingdom and to take the first strain of the cost of living of the officer abroad, foreign allowances supplementing it to the extent to which the salary falls short of total necessary expenditure. In assessing foreign allowances, the following items inter alia are taken into account : (a) local cost of living ; (b) expenditure which an officer serving abroad necessarily incurs, either at home or abroad, over and above that of an officer of corresponding grade serving in the Foreign Office ; and (c) representational expenditure, where appropriate, i.e., expenditure which, while optional for a private individual, is obligatory for a member of the Foreign Service resident abroad by virtue of his official position.

(2) Foreign allowance is not subject to United Kingdom income tax.

2. The amount of the foreign allowance to be assigned to an officer will be determined by the Secretary of State in the light of the conditions at the particular post.

3. When an officer to whom a foreign allowance is assigned is absent from his post abroad, the foreign allowance will be paid on the basis specified in the paragraphs 4-9 of this regulation.

A.—When the officer is returning to his Post

4. When the officer is married and takes his wife and family (if any) with him and is—

(i) On Duty

(a) In the United Kingdom

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance for himself only at the rates in force for the United Kingdom. The position will be reviewed after two months' absence.

Comment :—

The officer will be responsible for the travelling expenses of his wife and family.

(b) Elsewhere

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance for himself and also for his wife if approval is given for her to accompany him officially.

(ii) On Earned Leave

He will draw no subsistence allowance but will retain his foreign allowance except in the case of posts where the allowance is abnormally high, i.e., where it exceeds 100 per cent. of the mean of the salary scale of the officer's grade. In such cases the foreign allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 25 per cent. as from the date of departure on leave. This reduction shall not operate so as to bring the foreign allowance below the mean of his salary scale. This reduction will not be applied in respect of brief absences within a total of 14 days in one calendar year.

(iii) On Sick Leave Outside the Country where he is Posted

The foreign allowance will be the same as that payable on earned leave (see (ii) above) except that, as from the date of departure on sick leave, it will be reduced by 25 per cent. for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances. At the end of such period the Secretary of State will exercise full discretion with regard to the further payment of foreign allowance.

Comment :—

A married officer on sick leave outside the country where he is posted, who is due to return to his post, may thus incur a double cut in his foreign allowance.

5. When the officer is married and leaves his wife and family (if any) at the post and is—

(i) On Duty

(a) In the United Kingdom

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance.

(b) Temporarily attached to another post

He will retain the whole of the foreign allowance of his own post or draw that of the temporary post, whichever is higher, with subsistence allowance in addition at the discretion of the Secretary of State.

(c) On duty in circumstances other than (a) and (b)

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance.

(ii) On Earned Leave

Wherever he is on earned leave he will retain the foreign allowance of his post but will draw no subsistence allowance.

(iii) On Sick Leave Outside the Country where he is Posted.
Any such case which may arise will be dealt with on its merits.

6. When the officer is unmarried and is—

(i) On Duty

(a) In the United Kingdom

He will be eligible for subsistence allowance and will retain, for the period of one month, the foreign allowance of his post. Thereafter, the foreign allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 50 per cent. provided that this reduction shall not bring the amount of this allowance below the minimum of his salary scale.

(b) Temporarily attached to another post

He will retain the whole of the foreign allowance of his own post or draw that of the temporary post, whichever is higher, with subsistence allowance in addition at the discretion of the Secretary of State.

(c) On duty in circumstances other than those in (a) and (b)

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance.

(ii) On Earned Leave

Wherever his leave may be taken and whatever the foreign allowance of his post may be, the unmarried officer's allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 50 per cent. as from the date of departure on leave provided that this reduction shall not bring the amount of the foreign allowance below the minimum of his salary scale and that this reduction shall not be applied in respect of brief absences within a total of 14 days in one calendar year.

(iii) On Sick Leave Outside the Country where Posted

The foreign allowance will be the same as that payable on earned leave (see (ii) above) except that as from the date of departure on sick leave it will be reduced by 25 per cent. for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances. At the end of such period the Secretary of State will exercise full discretion with regard to the further payment of foreign allowance.

Comment :—

An unmarried officer on sick leave outside the country where he is posted, who is due to return to his post, may thus incur a double cut in his foreign allowance.

B.—When the Officer is not returning to his Post

7. When the officer is married and takes his wife and family (if any) with him and is—

(i) On Temporary Duty

(a) In the United Kingdom

He will cease to receive his foreign allowance and receive a taxable allowance at the following annual rates :—

Grade 2	210
Grade 3	150
Grade 4	100
Grades 5 and 6	50

(b) At another post

He will receive the foreign allowance of that post.

(ii) On Earned Leave

He will receive the allowance described in paragraph 7 (i) (a) above.

(iii) On Sick Leave in the United Kingdom

No allowance will be payable.

8. When an officer is married and leaves his wife and family (if any) at his post—

Such cases are likely to be rare and will be dealt with on their merits.

9. When the officer is unmarried and is—

(i) On Temporary Duty

(a) In the United Kingdom

He will cease to receive his foreign allowance and receive a taxable allowance at the following annual rates :—

Grade 2	100
Grade 3	70
Grade 4	50
Grades 5 and 6	Nil

(b) At another post

He will receive the foreign allowance of that post.

(ii) On Earned Leave

He will receive the allowance described in paragraph 9 (i) (a) above.

(iii) On Sick Leave in the United Kingdom

No allowance will be payable.

10. An officer, married or unmarried, who is on sick leave in the country where he is posted will retain his foreign allowance in full for two months. Thereafter the foreign allowance will be reduced by 25 per cent. for such periods as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances.

11. When an officer of Branch B temporarily occupies a Branch A post at his own station he will (subject to the limitations in paragraphs 5, 6, 7 and 9 above) receive one-quarter of the foreign allowance of the absent Branch A officer, less an appropriate deduction in respect of any entertainment expenditure included in his own foreign allowances.

If however, he is required to occupy a Branch A post at a station other than his own, he will receive the foreign allowance appropriate to the holder of that post less the difference in that part of their respective allowances which is related to expenditure in the United Kingdom.

12. When a Branch B officer acts as Chargé d'Affaires at a Diplomatic Mission during the absence of the Head of the Mission he will draw, in addition to his own foreign allowance, an allowance at rates laid down from time to time to enable him to meet the additional cost of entertainment.

REGULATION NO. 4. HOME SERVICE ALLOWANCES.

1. Home Service allowances will be payable to members of Branch B of the Foreign Service appointed for duty at the Foreign Office after service abroad. They comprise three elements :—

(i) A transfer grant, payable to all officers on transfer from a post abroad to a post at home.

(ii) An annual rent and representation allowance (towards special expenditure on rent and representation necessarily arising in connexion with an officer's position as a member of the Foreign Service) payable to senior and married officers.

(iii) An annual education allowance (designed to assist officers to meet extra expenditure resulting from special conditions in the Foreign Service in connexion with the education of their children) payable to officers with children.

Transfer Grant

2. This grant will be of an amount equivalent to one-tenth of the mean of the officer's salary scale.

Comment :—

(1) This grant, which will not be liable to Income Tax, will be payable to members of Branch B of the Foreign Service on appointment for duty at home after service abroad.

(2) Where transfer is accompanied by promotion, this amount will be calculated on the new salary.

Rent and Representation Allowance.

3. This allowance will be payable to members of Branch B during service at home after duty abroad. The amount of the allowance will vary according to the officer's grade and according to whether he is married or single, as shown in the following table :—

	Married	Single
Grades 1 and 2	210	100
Grade 3	150	70
Grade 4	100	35
Grades 5 and 6	50	nil

Comment :—

This allowance will be liable to Income Tax.

Education Allowance

4. This allowance, up to a maximum of £100 for each child, will be payable in respect of the amount by which the cost of boarding school education exceeds a standard figure which is assumed to represent the average normal cost of bringing up and educating a child.

This allowance is not payable in respect of more than two children unless the Secretary of State at his discretion so decides.

Comment :—

This allowance will be liable to Income Tax.

5. The period during which these allowances will be payable to any individual will be limited to a maximum of five years, before the expiry of which an officer may ordinarily expect to have again been posted abroad.

REGULATION No. 5. LEAVE

The following regulation applies to members of Branch B of the Foreign Service :—

I.—Ordinary Leave

1. Permission to take ordinary leave can only be granted subject to the exigencies of the Service.

2. (a) Members of the Service can take the ordinary leave, for which they are eligible under this regulation, only with the permission :—

- (i) in the case of persons serving at a post abroad, of the Secretary of State and, where applicable, of the Head of the post or of the superintending post or, in the case of superintending consular officers, of the Head of the Mission ;
- (ii) in the case of the Head of a Department in the Foreign Office, the Superintending Under-Secretary of State ;
- (iii) in the case of other officers serving in United Kingdom, of the Head of the Department in which they are serving.

(b) Applications for leave from Heads of posts should state the name of the officer to be left in charge.

3. In calculating the number of days of ordinary leave to which an officer is eligible at any time :—

- (a) Sundays, occurring during a period when leave is being taken, are counted ;
- (b) the remainder of the calendar year in which leave is taken may, if the officer so desires, be included in the computation ;
- (c) if an officer falls sick while on ordinary leave or during travelling time under paragraph 10 below and furnishes a medical certificate to that effect, the period of sickness will be regarded as sick leave.

4. All officers are eligible for the amount of ordinary leave prescribed in paragraph 5, the provisions of paragraphs 6 to 10 apply only to officers serving abroad.

5. Members of Branch B of the Foreign Service are eligible for ordinary leave on the following basis :—

Grade 4 and above : 42 days a year rising to 56 days after fifteen years in a grade carrying 42 days' leave.

Grade 5 : 42 days a year.

Grade 6 : 28 days a year.

Comment :—

(1) In addition they may be eligible for further leave in respect of service in unhealthy posts (see paragraph 6 of this regulation).

(2) An Officer of Grade 4 or above taking leave in respect of service of which only a part falls within the period during which he is eligible for 42 days' leave a year is eligible for leave at the rate of 42 days for that part and at the rate of 56 days for the remainder of the period.

Similarly an officer in Grade 5 taking leave in respect of a period part of which was served in Grade 6 shall be eligible for leave at the rate of 28 days a year in respect of that part of his service in Grade 6 and at the rate of 42 days a year for the remainder of the period.

6. Officers who are stationed at certain posts or in certain countries, which shall from time to time be specified by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury as unhealthy for purposes of leave of absence, and who, at the expiration of their leave, return to the same post or any other of the specified posts, are eligible for additional ordinary leave at the rate of 14 days per annum, with a maximum accumulation of 28 days.

7. Subject to the limitations of paragraph 9 below, ordinary leave may be taken—

- (a) in the country where the officer is serving or in another country ;
- (b) in one period during the calendar year covering all the leave for which the officer is eligible in that year ;
- (c) in more than one period during the calendar year ;
- (d) by accumulating the leave to which the officer is entitled (or any part thereof) over a period of more than one year.

Comment :—

Officers passing through the United Kingdom on transfer will normally be required to take any leave for which they are then eligible.

8. Where an officer has spent sick leave in the United Kingdom, he should take any ordinary leave for which he is eligible at the time his sick leave terminates before he returns to his post abroad, unless the Secretary of State decides otherwise.

9. The following rules are applicable to accumulated leave :—

- (a) No officer may accumulate leave in excess of the number of days shown below :—

Officers in Grade 4 and above with 15 years' service in a grade in which they were eligible for 42 days' leave a year (see paragraph 5)	196 days
Officers in Grade 5 or officers in Grade 4 and above with less than 15 years' service in a grade in which they were eligible for 42 days' leave a year	147 days
Officers in Grade 6	98 days

These limits of 196, 147 and 95 days respectively are increased by 23 days in the case of officers serving at the posts or in the countries referred to in paragraph 6 of this regulation.

- (b) An officer who has accumulated ordinary leave must, unless the Secretary of State otherwise decides, on the next occasion when he is granted travelling time for the purpose of proceeding on leave, take all the accumulated leave to which he is then entitled.
- (c) Save in exceptional circumstances and with the express permission of the Secretary of State, no leave may be accumulated in respect of service in the United Kingdom.

10. Travelling time (i.e., the time actually occupied by the outward and return journey by an approved route between the country where the officer is serving and the country where he is taking his leave) is allowed on one occasion in respect of each calendar year in addition to the periods of ordinary leave under the previous paragraphs of this regulation with the proviso that travelling time thus allowed shall not exceed the time occupied by a journey to and from the United Kingdom by an approved route.

Comment :—

For the conditions on which travelling allowances are granted, see Regulation No. 7.

II.—Sick Leave

11. Unless otherwise stated, the following paragraphs of this regulation apply to members of the Service whether they are serving in the United Kingdom or abroad.

12. The grant of sick leave is subject in all cases to the Secretary of State being satisfied that the officer to whom it is granted has a reasonable prospect of recovery so as to enable him to return to his duties.

13. The grant of sick leave to any officer for a period exceeding four days is conditional on the production by the officer of a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner indicating the nature of the illness and the period estimated to be required for recovery. If the number of days during which any officer is absent on sick leave in any period of twelve months without such certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days of absence in excess of seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary leave allowable.

14. The permissions required for the grant of sick leave are the same as those described in paragraph 2 of this Regulation. In the case of officers serving abroad, no reference need be made to the Foreign Office for any period of sick leave not exceeding 14 days.

15. The Secretary of State may require further medical certificates or periodical medical certificates reporting progress, where he considers it desirable.

16. Sick leave on full pay may, subject to the provision of a medical certificate showing that the officer is likely to be able to resume his duties within a reasonable period, be granted for a period or periods not exceeding six months in the aggregate during any period of twelve months. An officer who has had sick leave on full pay for the maximum period may be granted sick leave on half pay, subject always to a maximum of twelve months' sick leave (whether on whole or half pay and whether on the basis of a medical certificate or not) in any period of four years.

17. Where an officer has been granted the maximum amount of sick leave which can be granted on half pay, the grant of further sick leave will be conditional on the receipt by the Secretary of State of a reliable medical certificate showing that the officer is considered likely to be able to resume his duties within a reasonable period. If further sick leave is granted, the officer may be paid a salary at the rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which he would have been qualified if he had retired for reasons of health at the time when his period of sick leave expired (hereafter referred to as pension rate of pay); or on half pay if this would be less than pension rate of pay. If the officer is unable to furnish a medical certificate as described above the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, call on him to retire on grounds of ill-health.

Comment :—

(1) Periods of sick leave in excess of twelve months during any period of four years will be excluded from service on which annual increments of salary, or for pension or retirement, are calculated.

(2) See paragraph 8 of this Regulation as to the taking of accrued ordinary leave at the end of sick leave in the case of an officer serving abroad.

(3) See paragraph 3 (c) of this Regulation as regards officers falling sick during their ordinary leave.

III.—Leave (General)

18. Every officer serving abroad must inform the Personnel Department, in advance, if possible of the date on which he intends to proceed on leave, and of the address to which he is going. Every subsequent change of address must be reported to that Department.

19. Every officer serving abroad must inform the Personnel Department in advance of the date on which he intends to leave the United Kingdom in order to return to his post from leave.

20. The actual dates of every officer's departure from his post abroad on leave and of his return must be officially reported to the Foreign Office by telegram in the case of heads of posts and by despatch in other cases.

Comment :—

(1) When circumstances permit, officers serving abroad will be expected to spend their ordinary leave in the United Kingdom in order that they may keep in touch with developments in this country.

(2) Where an officer while on leave is ordered to take a refresher course the period spent on such course is regarded as a period of duty and does not count against the officer's leave.

21. Every officer serving in the United Kingdom must, whenever absent from the Foreign Office for whatever reason, leave his address with his superior officer or must follow such other procedure in this connexion as may be indicated in the departmental instructions in force at the time.

REGULATION No. 6. TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES

This regulation applies exclusively to members of Branch B of the Service.

1. Whenever an officer makes a journey on public service, the amount of the fares by rail, ship, aircraft or motor car, as the case may be, for the journey in question by the approved route will be payable to him.

Comment :—

The "approved route" means the route approved for the particular journey in question. In many cases there is a standard route for journeys between different countries which will be the "approved route." An officer who makes the journey by a route other than the approved route (e.g., travels by air or in his own car when the approved route is by rail, &c.) will not be able to claim more than the amount payable for a journey by the approved route. On the other hand, if the route which he takes is cheaper than the approved route he will not be able to claim more than the actual expenses incurred.

2. Journeys on the public Service include :—

(a) Any journey made by an officer serving at home or abroad for the purpose of attending an international conference or discussion or consultation, or of making a tour or visit, which the officer makes with the authority of the Secretary of State.

Comment :—

The Secretary of State may delegate to the Head of a Diplomatic Mission authority to sanction journeys by members of the Service in the territories within his jurisdiction.

(b) Any journeys from the United Kingdom made by an officer to his post abroad on his appointment to such post.

(c) Any journey to his new post made by an officer on transfer from the place where the officer was previously serving or, if he was on leave at the time of transfer, from the place where he was spending his leave. If, however, the journey from the place where he was spending his leave is more expensive than the journey from his previous post, the officer will not be able to claim more than the amount payable in respect of a journey from the United Kingdom or from his previous post as the Secretary of State may decide.

3. Where the journey in the cases referred to in (b) and (c) of paragraph 2 above is made by an officer who is being moved at his own request before the completion of three years' service at his post or by an officer who is being moved on account of misconduct, the officer would not be entitled to be repaid the cost of his travelling expenses.

4. The amount of the fares by rail, ship, aircraft or motor car, as the case may be, by an approved route, will be payable to an officer serving abroad :—

(a) If he is proceeding from or returning to his post during ordinary leave, in the cases specified in paragraph 5 below.

(b) If he is proceeding from or returning to his post during sick leave, in the cases specified in paragraph 6 below.

(c) If he is retiring on pension and is proceeding from his post to his place of retirement. If the journey to the place of his retirement is a more expensive journey than a journey to the United Kingdom, the officer will not be entitled to claim more than would be payable in respect of the journey to the United Kingdom.

Comment :—

An officer who retires in circumstances where he is not granted a pension (i.e., at his own request or for misconduct) may not claim any travelling allowances on retirement.

5. An officer will only be entitled to receive the amount of fares in the cases referred to in paragraph 4 (a) above (ordinary leave) after 30 months' consecutive service abroad, or in the case of officers serving at certain posts or in certain countries which are regarded as unhealthy for purposes of leave, after 18 months' consecutive service. Where leave is taken in a country other than the United Kingdom, the amounts payable in respect of fares will not usually be paid from public funds and will only be allowed if the Secretary of State decides that payment from public funds is warranted by the special circumstances of the case and in any case, will not exceed those which would be payable in respect of a journey to or from the United Kingdom by an approved route. If, however, the amount of the fares to or from the place at which leave is being taken is less than the amount of the fares for a journey to the United Kingdom, the officer will not receive more than the amount of the fares for the journey actually taken.

6. In the cases referred to in paragraph 4 (b) above (sick leave), the Secretary of State may at his discretion allow the payment to the officer of the amount of the fares from his post to such place as the officer may proceed under medical advice on health grounds or for the purposes of undergoing treatment which is not available locally.

Comment :—

The Secretary of State will require, before sanctioning the payment of the amount of fares under the above paragraph, the production of a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner that it is necessary for the officer to proceed to the place to which the journey is made on health grounds.

7.—(a) An officer who is making a journey in any of the cases referred to in (b) or (c) of paragraph 2 or in (a) or (c) of paragraph 4 above will be entitled to receive the amount of the fares by the approved route for members of his family, as defined in paragraph (b) below. In the cases referred to in (a) of paragraph 2 and (b) of paragraph 4 he will only be entitled to receive the amounts of the fares for any members of his family if the Secretary of State in any particular case so decides.

Comment :—

(1) Families will be expected to travel together. Where the officer's family do not travel with him their expenses will not be paid unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that there was a good reason for separate journeys.

(2) Travelling expenses will be allowed for an officer's wife in cases under (a) of paragraph 2 only where the Secretary of State has been satisfied in advance that it was necessary or desirable for her to accompany the officer.

(3) Where, for the reasons given in paragraph 3 and in the comment to paragraph 4, the officer is not entitled to receive the amount of the fares for himself, he will not be able to claim them for his family.

(b) The members of an officer's family referred to in (a) above are—

(i) his wife. If he is unmarried or a widower without children and occupies a post with representational duties or, a widower who has his children with him the Secretary of State may at his discretion allow the payment to an officer of the fare of a sister or other relative. In no case will payment of expenses under the provisions of this paragraph be made to an officer living in an hotel;

(ii) sons who at the time of the commencement of the journey are under 16 years of age, or who, though 16 years of age or over, reside with and are dependent on their father by reason of physical or mental infirmity;

(iii) unmarried daughters residing with and dependent on their father;

(iv) sons up to the age of 18 years who are resident at their father's post abroad, and are receiving full-time education at that post.

Comment :—

Adopted or step-sons or daughters are included in the above enumeration.

8. The amount of the fares of the members of the family of an officer serving abroad who dies, leaving his family abroad, for a journey from the place where they are to the place to which they desire to go, will be paid at the request of his widow or other member of his family up to the amount of the fares from the officer's post to the United Kingdom.

9. If a member of the family of an officer serving abroad who is resident with the officer at his post is seriously ill and is required to proceed elsewhere on health grounds or for the purposes of treatment, the Secretary of State may, at his discretion, allow payment to the officer of the return fares of the sick person and (where necessary) another person travelling with the sick person from the officer's post to such place as the sick person may proceed on medical advice.

Comment :—

The comment to paragraph 6 above applies here.

10.—(a) An officer who is making a journey in any of the cases referred to in (b) or (c) of paragraph 2 or (a) or (c) of paragraph 4 above will be entitled to receive the amount of the fares by the approved route for servants (within the limits specified in paragraph (b) below). The Secretary of State may in special circumstances authorise the payment of the fares of a servant accompanying the officer in the cases referred to in (b) of paragraph 4 (provided no member of the family is also accompanying the officer) and (a) of paragraph 2 above.

(b) The maximum number of servants in respect of whom the amounts of fares may be paid are—

Married officers in Grade 4 and above : 2 ;

Unmarried officers of Grade 4 and above : 1.

Except that in the cases referred to in (a) of paragraph 4 (ordinary leave) the maximum number of servants for all officers is one.

Comment :—

Comments (1) and (2) to paragraph 7 (a) above also apply to the case of servants.

11. Where an officer serving abroad dies, leaving at his post servants whom he had brought from the United Kingdom or elsewhere to his post and for whose return to their homes he had made himself responsible, the amount of the fares for such servants (within the limits of (b) above) for a journey from his post to their homes will be paid on request up to the amount of the fares to the United Kingdom.

12.—(i) Where the amounts of fares are payable under the previous paragraphs of this Regulation, these fares will be (a) in the case of an officer of Grade 4 or above or members of his family, first-class fares, including sleeping berths, where necessary, for a land journey, (b) in the case of an officer of Grades 5 and 6 or members of his family first class in the United Kingdom and second class elsewhere whether by sea or land, including sleeping berths, where necessary for a land journey, (c) in the case of servants, third-class fares in the United Kingdom and second-class fares elsewhere.

(ii) Where, however, the servant is a nurse or governess travelling with the child or children of 10 years of age or under of an officer in Grade 5 or above a first-class fare will be paid. (This does not apply to a journey or part of a journey by land where (a) there is only one such child, or (b) first-class sleeping accommodation is obtainable on payment of a supplement to a second-class fare, in which case this supplement will be payable.)

(iii) First-class fares will, however, be payable in respect of officers and servants in cases where no second-class accommodation is available, or, in exceptional cases abroad, where the Secretary of State is satisfied that second-class accommodation is unsuitable for Europeans.

13.—(a) Wherever the amount of fares is payable under the preceding paragraphs of this regulation (except in the case of journeys on ordinary and sick leave) a subsistence allowance will be granted to meet the expenses of food and sleeping accommodation when these are not included in the fare. The subsistence allowance (or a proportion thereof—see (b) below) will be at the rate in force at the time for the countries traversed by an approved route or for journeys by sea.

(b) Full subsistence allowance will be payable in respect of the officer himself, three-quarters of the full allowance for his wife, one half of the full allowance for every other member of his family above the age of 12 months, and three-eighths of the full allowance for servants.

(c) Where some, but not all, of the items for which subsistence allowance is granted are provided under the fare, the subsistence allowance will be proportionately reduced.

Comment :—

(1) Subsistence allowances are payable only for children and servants in respect of whom fares can be claimed under paragraphs 7 (b) and 10 (b) of this regulation. Where the expenses of a sleeping berth on a long journey are paid, only two-thirds of the subsistence allowance to meet the cost of food will be granted.

(2) Subsistence allowances are payable only where the expenses of the journey are met from public funds. If, however, no fare is payable (e.g., a journey on one of His Majesty's ships) and the officer has to pay for his board or if the fare payable does not include board, then a subsistence allowance is payable. Subsistence allowances are therefore payable, inter alia, in cases covered by paragraphs 8 and 11 but not in cases covered by paragraph 3 or when the officer retires in circumstances where he is not granted a pension (i.e., at his own request or for misconduct).

(3) See the comment to paragraph 2 above.

(4) See also Regulation 7, paragraph 3, regarding payment of subsistence allowances to an officer in certain circumstances after arrival at his post.

14. Necessary expenses (such as taxi fares, fees for registration of luggage, portage, &c.) incidental to the journey in respect of which the amount of the fare is payable under the preceding paragraphs of this regulation will be payable to the officer on his application.

Comment :—

(1) Only incidental expenses which are reasonably necessary will be payable under this paragraph and the officer will be required to certify that the expenses which he claims were necessarily incurred.

(2) The comment to paragraph 2 above and comment (1) and (3) to paragraph 7 above apply to claims to these expenses.

15. Where an officer is proceeding to his post on transfer or on first appointment abroad or leaving his post on retirement on pension or on an appointment to the United Kingdom, or when an officer dies while serving abroad, the cost of transporting his personal effects by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed up to such amount as the Secretary of State may consider to be reasonable, except in the circumstances indicated in paragraph 3 or when the officer retires in circumstances where he is not granted a pension (i.e., at his own request or for misconduct).

Comment :—

(1) This paragraph applies to heavy luggage containing personal effects as opposed to ordinary travelling luggage, which goes under paragraph 14 above, and the furniture which is dealt with in paragraph 16 below. It includes such things as clothes, household linen, books and small articles of decoration. The cost of transporting heavy articles such as pianos, radiograms and large gramophones would not be allowed under this head. As regards the transport of motor cars, see paragraph 19.

(2) Comments (1) and (3) to paragraph 7 above also apply here.

16.—(a) Where an officer is appointed or transferred to a post and has been authorised by the Secretary of State to rent unfurnished accommodation, the cost of transporting the officer's own furniture by an approved route and method of transport to his post will be allowed, but only within the following limits :—

- (i) In the case of married and unmarried officers of Grade 6 and unmarried officers of Grade 5, up to 2 tons or 400 cubic feet or 12 cubic metres.
- (ii) In the case of unmarried officers of Grade 4 or above or married officers of Grade 5, up to 4 tons or 800 cubic feet or 23 cubic metres,
- (iii) In the case of married officers of Grade 4 and above, up to 7 tons or 1,400 cubic feet or 40 cubic metres.

Comment :—

(1) The limits specified in (iii) above are the equivalent of about three van loads.

(2) In order to ensure that claims for the cost of transporting furniture are as low as possible, officers should, whenever possible, obtain three competitive tenders for transport, including insurance of the risk against damage in transport.

(b) Where an officer is allowed the cost of transporting his furniture under (a) above but cannot immediately find suitable unfurnished accommodation at his new post, he will be allowed storage charges for furniture up to the limits specified in (a) above, for a reasonable period.

Comment :—

The storage under (b) may be at his new post or his old post. The period allowed will not ordinarily exceed three months.

(c) Where an officer has been given a rent allowance for furnished accommodation or where his official residence, though furnished, has not been completely equipped, he will be allowed the cost of transporting by an approved route and method of transport any essential articles of furniture which are not included in the furniture provided.

(d) Where an officer is leaving his post on retirement on pension or on appointment to the United Kingdom, or when an officer serving abroad dies, the cost of transporting his furniture to the United Kingdom or place of retirement by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed up to the limits as to quantity specified in (a) above, and up to the limits as to cost of the transport to London.

(e) Where the officer is being moved in the circumstances indicated in paragraph 8 and in the comment to paragraph 4, no allowances can be claimed under this paragraph.

17. Where an officer serving abroad is, at the time of his transfer to a new appointment, in possession of furniture at his old post and is not granted an allowance for transferring his furniture to his new post under paragraph 16 (a) above, the officer will, at his option, be allowed (unless the transfer is made in the circumstances indicated in paragraph 3 or in the comment to paragraph 4) either the cost of removing the furniture to London up to the limits of the quantity of furniture specified in 16 (a), or the cost (up to the limits as to cost of the transport of the furniture to London) of storing the furniture up to these limits as to quantity.

Comment :—

If the officer is subsequently transferred to another post abroad in circumstances where he may be allowed the cost of removing his furniture to this post, he is then eligible to apply for the cost of removing his furniture under paragraph 16 (a) from London or the place abroad where he stored it, as the case may be. If he retires on pension or dies and his furniture has been stored abroad under paragraph 17, application may be made for the cost of removing his furniture to London under paragraph 16 (d).

18.—(a) Where an allowance is granted for the purpose of removing furniture under paragraphs 16 (a) or (d), or 17, or of removing essential articles of furniture under paragraph 16 (c) or of removing heavy luggage under paragraph 15, the reasonable cost of insuring during transit will also be allowed up to the limits specified in (b) below.

Comment :—

Only the premium to cover the additional risk on removal will be allowed. No allowance for insurance will be given in so far as the risk is covered by the contract of removal and therefore covered by the allowances for removal.

(b) The limits referred to in (a) of this paragraph are :—

(i) Where an allowance for the removal of furniture has been given under paragraph 16 (a)

The total value of all insured property shall not exceed—

In the case of married officers of Grades	£
1 to 4	2,000
In the case of unmarried officers of Grades 1 to 4	1,500
In the case of other married officers	1,000
In the case of other unmarried officers	500

(ii) Where an allowance for the removal of essential articles of furniture has been given under paragraph 16 (c).

The total value of all insured property shall not exceed—

In the case of married officers of Grades	£
1 to 4	1,500
In the case of unmarried officers of Grades 1 to 4	1,200
In the case of other married officers	750
In the case of other unmarried officers	400

(iii) Where an allowance for the removal of personal effects only has been given under paragraph 15

The total value of all insured property shall not exceed—

In the case of married officers of Grades	£
1 to 4	1,000
In the case of unmarried officers of Grades 1 to 4	700
In the case of other married officers	350
In the case of other unmarried officers	200

19. Where an officer of Grade 4 and upwards is appointed or transferred to a post at which it is necessary for the proper execution of his duties that he should have his own private motor car and where the Secretary of State is satisfied that it is not possible for the officer to purchase a car locally on reasonable conditions, the cost of transporting a car from the United Kingdom or from his previous post by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed.

Comment :—

The motor car need not be included within the limits as regards weight and cubic capacity specified in paragraph 16 above.

REGULATION No. 7. RENT ALLOWANCES

1. An officer serving abroad at a post at which a furnished residence is not provided will receive a rent allowance sufficient, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, to enable him to defray the cost of renting suitable furnished accommodation, excluding services and other tenant's charges. Alternatively, in special cases approved by the Secretary of State, an officer may be provided with a rent allowance sufficient to enable him to defray the cost of renting suitable unfurnished accommodation, excluding services and other tenant's charges, in which cases, under the provisions and within the limits of paragraph 16 (a) of Regulation No. 6, he is entitled to claim the cost of transporting his own furniture to his post.

Comment :—

The Ministry of Works Regulations regarding Government property will apply in all cases where Government furniture is provided. No charge will be made for the use of Government furniture.

2. The rent allowance becomes payable from the date when an officer arrives at his post unless he is granted a subsistence allowance, in which case it becomes payable when this allowance terminates. Subject to paragraph 4 below, rent allowance ceases to be payable on the day on which the officer leaves his post on termination of his appointment.

3. An officer who is unable to find suitable accommodation immediately on arrival at his new post may be allowed in lieu of foreign and rent allowances to claim, for a period not normally exceeding 28 days, subsistence allowance at the rates specified in paragraph 13 of Regulation No. 6, for himself and for each member of his family (including servants) for whom fares are payable from public funds.

4. Where an officer who has been granted a rent allowance is transferred to another post otherwise than at his own request, and can show that he has been unable to dispose of the lease of his residence, he will be allowed to claim, as compensation for the rent for which he is liable, a sum which shall not exceed the rent allowance previously granted to him, for a period which will be determined by the Secretary of State but which will not exceed three months except in special cases.

5. An officer who has been granted a rent allowance shall not receive that allowance during the periods of authorised absence unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that he has not been able to sub-let.

Comment :—

Officers who rent accommodation must furnish a certificate from the Head of the Diplomatic Mission or the Superintending consular officer—as the case may be—that they have made the most economical arrangements consistent with their rank and requirements. They must themselves defray any additional expenditure which may be caused by maintaining larger or more expensive establishments than are necessary. They must also endeavour to obtain a clause (known as a "diplomatic clause") in the lease enabling them to terminate it at short notice in the event of transfer before its expiry.

REGULATION No. 8. LANGUAGE ALLOWANCE

1. A language allowance of £30 a year will be payable to any officer of Branch B of the Foreign Service who is certified by the Civil Service Commissioners to have passed an examination in and to possess a competent knowledge (colloquial or otherwise) for ordinary purposes of the language (other than English) in current use in the country in which the officer holds a post.

2. This allowance may be increased to £80 per annum to any officer who is certified to possess a competent knowledge (colloquial or otherwise) for ordinary purposes of the following languages and who occupies a post in the country where the language in which he is proficient is in current use :—

Amharic.	Finnish.	Polish.
Arabic.	Hungarian.	Russian.
Bulgarian.	Japanese.	Serbo-Croatian
Chinese.	Modern Greek.	Siamese.
Czechoslovak.	Persian.	Turkish.

Comment :—

(1) Language allowances are subject to income tax.

(2) Members of Branch B of the Foreign Service will be expected, wherever possible, to learn the language of the country in which they are posted.

(3) Candidates for any of the allowances specified in this Regulation will normally be required to pay their own teacher's fees.

(4) No more than one such allowance will be payable under the provisions of this Regulation at any one time.

(5) An officer of the rank of Grade 5A or 6 employed in the Foreign Office; or a post where a knowledge of French has been shown to be necessary may be paid an allowance of £30 per annum provided he is certified by the Civil Service Commission to have passed an examination in and to possess a competent knowledge of French.

REGULATION No. 9. TRANSFERS AND PROMOTIONS

This regulation applies to members of Branch B of the Foreign Service.

1. In regard to all appointments whatever in the Service, the Secretary of State will be free to make any such selection as, on his own responsibility, he may deem right without being bound by claims founded on seniority or on membership of the Service.

Comments :—

(1) The Secretary of State is not bound by the recommendations referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 below.

(2) In accordance with Article 5 (3) of the Foreign Service Order in Council, 1943, the secondment or appointment of Foreign Service officers to posts outside the Foreign Service will not be excluded when it can be shown to be useful to the public service.

2. All members of the Service, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to any post at which their services may be required.

Comment :—

When appointments and transfers are made account will be taken, so far as possible of the circumstances and wishes of the individual; members of the Service will, however, be expected to regard an intimation that they are to be transferred to a certain post as an order and not as a request.

3. Recommendations for promotions to Grades 1, 2, 3 and 4 and for transfers within Grades 1, 2 and 3 will be made to the Under-Secretary of State responsible for administration.

Comment :—

The Promotions Board will be convened by the Under-Secretary of State responsible for administration as and when he considers it desirable.

The Board will normally sit under the Chairmanship of the Head of Personnel Department and will consist of: one or more members of Personnel Department, the Head of Establishment and Organisation Department or his Deputy. One or more of the Foreign Service Inspectors, if available, with power to co-opt additional members as desired.

In the case of appointments and transfers to posts within the Foreign Office the Heads of Departments concerned may be represented on the Board.

4. Recommendations for promotions to Grades 5 and 5A will be made by Personnel Department in consultation with the Establishment Department, Inspectors of Foreign Service posts and, in the case of appointments to posts within the Foreign Office, the Heads of the Departments concerned. Recommendations will be subject to the approval of the Head of Personnel Department.

5. Transfers within Grades 4, 5, 5A and 6 will be made by the Personnel Department in consultation with the Establishment Department and the Foreign Service Inspectors.

REGULATION No.10. DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS

1—(i) This Regulation applies to all cases where a member of Branch B of the Service is accused of a disciplinary offence. It does not apply to cases where an officer is merely admonished.

(ii) (a) In this Regulation the expression "disciplinary offence" means conduct by a member of the Service prejudicial to the interests of the Service or unbecoming the position which he holds in the Service, or disobedience of official instructions of such a character that a warning or a reprimand with or without a transfer to another post may be an appropriate penalty.

(b) In this Regulation a "grave disciplinary offence" means a disciplinary offence which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, is of so serious a character that dismissal from the Service or a reduction in rank or a loss of seniority may be an appropriate penalty.

Comment to paragraph 1 (ii) (a) and (b) :—

It is not possible or desirable to attempt to lay down rules which determine in all circumstances what conduct constitutes a disciplinary offence or a grave disciplinary offence nor the penalty that would be appropriate. There are certain courses of conduct which are reprehensible whatever the rank of the member; in other cases conduct may be reprehensible if the member holds a high post, but less serious when the member is of junior status. There are also courses of conduct which may most appropriately be dealt with by the Head of the Post at which the officer is serving or by the Head of the Personnel Department direct. The Report of 25th February, 1938, of a Board of Enquiry appointed to investigate certain statements affecting civil servants is still fully applicable to members of the Foreign Service as a useful guide to their conduct.

(c) "Promotions Board" means either the whole Board or a committee of the Board selected by the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration.

(d) Any reference to a person holding any office includes a person who is, with the authority of the Secretary of State, temporarily acting for the holder of that office.

2. The expression "official superior" means in the case of—

(i) a member of the staff of a Diplomatic Mission abroad, the Head of that Mission or a Foreign Service Inspector or, in the case of an officer in charge of a Mission, a Foreign Service Inspector or a person charged by the Secretary of State to investigate the matter;

(ii) a member of the staff of a Consulate, the senior Consular Officer of the district or a Foreign Service Inspector or, in the case of the senior Consular Officer of the district, the Head of the Diplomatic Mission of the country in which the Consulate is situated (if any) or a Foreign Service Inspector;

(iii) a person working in the Foreign Office, the Head of the Department concerned or, where the person concerned is himself the Head of a Department, the superintending Under-Secretary of State for that Department.

3. The Secretary of State may suspend a member of the Foreign Service from duty if the question whether he has been guilty of a disciplinary offence is raised and the Secretary of State considers that his suspension is desirable until the question has been investigated and a decision reached. Unless the Secretary of State shall determine otherwise, the remuneration of an officer suspended from duty will cease from the date of his suspension. In the event of his reinstatement, it may, however, be restored wholly or in part should the Secretary of State so determine.

4. Complaints of disciplinary offences by a member of the Service shall be made by the official superior in a letter addressed to the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration setting out the full facts of the case with any comments or explanations which the official superior feels it necessary to make. A copy of this letter shall be communicated to the person complained of either by the official superior or, if he has not done so, by the Under-Secretary of State.

5. The member of the Service complained of may present his defence to the complaint made against him in a letter addressed to the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration. The latter may refer this letter to the official superior for his comments, and any comments received in reply from the official superior will be communicated to the person complained of in order than he may have an opportunity of making any further reply which he may think necessary.

6. It is not desirable that the official superior should address any other communications about the case to the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration or to any other person, but should he do so, they will be treated in accordance with the procedure laid down in paragraph 4 above.

7. If the disciplinary offence is an ordinary disciplinary offence and the person complained of does not dispute the facts, the decision as to the penalty to be imposed may be taken by the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration and communicated by him or by the Head of the Personnel Department to the person concerned. If the person complained of disputes the facts alleged against him or wishes to appeal against the penalty, the case shall be referred to a committee of the Promotions Board on which a legal adviser of the Foreign Office shall sit if the Secretary of State so directs or if the person complained of so requests. In this event the Board shall furnish to the Secretary of State in writing its opinion on the facts and as to what, if any, offence is proved (if the facts are in dispute), and its advice upon the penalty.

8.—(i) If the disciplinary offence is a grave disciplinary offence, and the person complained of does not dispute the facts alleged against him, the case shall be sent to the Promotions Board to express their advice as to the penalty. This advice shall be furnished to the Secretary of State in writing.

(ii) If the person complained of disputes the facts alleged against him, his case shall be heard by a committee of the Promotions Board and the Board shall furnish to the Secretary of State in writing its opinion as to the facts and what offence (if any) is proved and its advice as to the penalty. In either case the decision of the Secretary of State shall be communicated to the person concerned by the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration.

9. When any disciplinary offence is referred for consideration to the Promotions Board, all the letters relating to the offence referred to in paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 above shall be laid before the Board. The Board may summon any witnesses whom it considers it desirable to hear, and the accused person shall have a right to be heard and subject to the consent of the Board to bring any witnesses whom he may desire. The accused person shall have the right to be present, when all other witnesses are giving evidence.

10. The decision as to the penalty shall in all cases remain vested in the Secretary of State after he has considered the report and advice of the Board.

REGULATION No. 11. OVERTIME AND HOURS OF ATTENDANCE.

Overtime is payable at home to officers in Grades 5 and 5A in respect of duty in excess of 46 hours per week and to officers in Grade 6 for duty in excess of 42 hours per week. At posts abroad no overtime is payable.

Comment :—

In the Foreign Office the normal working week is 42 hours including lunch and tea intervals but not including time occupied in travelling to and from the place of work.

CHAPTER IV

Branch C

REGULATION No. 1. GRADES AND SALARIES

The grades and salaries of members of Branch C of the Foreign Service are :—

Grade	Rank	Salary
1	Shorthand-Typists	Age 16—60/- a week
		17—68/- "
		18—76/- "
		19—80/- "
		20—84/- "
		21—88/- "
		22—92/- "
		23—96/- "
		24—100/- "
		25—104/- "
		and then by annual increments of 4/- a week to a maximum of 116/- a week.
2	Typists ...	Age 16—55/- a week
		17—61/- "
		18—66/- "
		19—71/- "

Grade	Rank	Salary
2	Typists (continued)	Age 20—73/6 a week
		21—76/- "
		22—78/6 "
		23—81/- "
		24—83/6 " 25—86/- "
		and then by annual increments of 4/- a week to a maximum of 102/- a week.

Comment :—

(1) The normal avenue of promotion for officers of Branch C is to vacancies in the following appointments in Branch B of the Foreign Service :—

Grade in Branch B	Appointment	Salary
6	Superintendent of Typists, Clerical Officer-Secretary	See Branch B, Regulation 1.
6	Senior Superintendent of Typists	See Branch B, Regulation 1.
5A	Chief Superintendent of Typists	See Branch B, Regulation 1.
5	Secretarial Assistant	See Branch B, Regulation 1.

(3) All the posts in Branch C will be filled by women.

REGULATION No. 2. OUTFIT AND TRANSFER ALLOWANCE

1. Outfit and transfer allowances will be payable on the following basis :—

(i) On first appointment abroad : £50.

(ii) On any subsequent appointment abroad or on transfer from one post abroad to another post abroad, or to the Foreign Office : £25.

2. On appointment to a post at which special clothing is in the opinion of the Secretary of State, necessary for climatic reasons, the allowances in paragraph 1 (i) and (ii) will be increased by the actual cost of such clothing up to a maximum additional amount of £30. This increase will be subject to the production of a certificate that the sum claimed has been expended for the purposes laid down and will be limited to three occasions during an officer's career.

REGULATION No. 3 FOREIGN ALLOWANCE

1. A foreign allowance will be assigned to officer of Branch C serving abroad.

Comment :—

(1) Salary is intended to cover necessary expenditure in the United Kingdom and to take the first strain of the cost of living of the officer abroad, foreign allowances supplementing it to the extent to which the salary falls short of total necessary expenditure. In assessing foreign allowances, the following items inter alia are taken into account : (a) local cost of living ; (b) expenditure which an officer serving abroad necessarily incurs, either at home or abroad, over and above that of an officer of corresponding grade serving in the Foreign Office ; and (c) representational expenditure, where appropriate, i.e., expenditure which, while optional for a private individual, is obligatory for a member of the Foreign Service resident abroad by virtue of her official position.

(2) Foreign allowance is not subject to United Kingdom income tax.

2. The amount of the foreign allowance to be assigned to an officer will be determined by the Secretary of State in the light of the conditions at the post.

3. When an officer to whom a foreign allowance is assigned is absent from her post abroad, such allowance will be paid on the basis specified in paragraphs 4-6 of this regulation.

A.—When the Officer is returning to her Post

4. When the officer is—

(i) On Duty

(a) In the United Kingdom

She will be eligible for subsistence allowance and will retain for the period of one month the foreign allowance of her post. Thereafter the foreign allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 50 per cent. provided that this reduction shall not bring the amount of this allowance below the minimum of her salary scale.

(b) Temporarily attached to another post

She will retain the whole of the foreign allowance of her own post or draw that of the temporary post, whichever is higher, with subsistence allowance in addition at the discretion of the Secretary of State.

(ii) On Earned Leave

Wherever her leave may be taken and whatever the foreign allowance of her post may be, the officer's allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 50 per cent. as from the date of departure on leave provided that this reduction shall not bring the amount of the foreign allowance below the minimum of her salary scale and that this reduction shall not be applied in respect of brief absences within a total of 14 days in one calendar year.

(iii) On Sick Leave Outside the Country where Posted

The foreign allowance will be the same as that payable on earned leave (see (ii) above) except that, as from the date of departure on sick leave, it will be reduced by 25 per cent. for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances. At the end of such period, the Secretary of State will use full discretion with regard to the further payment.

Comment :—

An officer on sick leave outside the country where she is posted, who is due to return to her post, may thus incur a double cut in her foreign allowance.

B.—When the Officer is not returning to her Post

5. When the officer is—

(i) On Temporary Duty

(a) In the United Kingdom

She will cease to receive her foreign allowance.

(b) At another post

She will receive the foreign allowance of that post.

(ii) On Earned Leave

She will cease to receive her foreign allowance.

(iii) On Sick Leave in the United Kingdom

No allowance will be payable.

6. An officer who is on sick leave in the country where she is posted will retain her foreign allowance in full for two months. Thereafter the foreign allowance will be reduced by 25 per cent. for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances. At the end of such period the Secretary of State will use full discretion with regard to the further payment.

REGULATION No. 4. LEAVE

I.—Ordinary Leave

1. Permission to take ordinary leave can only be granted subject to the exigencies of the Service.

2. Officers can take the ordinary leave, for which they are eligible under this regulation, only with the permission :—

(i) in the case of officers serving abroad, of the Secretary of State and of the Head of Mission or post ;

(ii) in the case of officers serving in the United Kingdom, of the Head of the Department or Section in which they are serving.

3. In calculating the number of days of ordinary leave to which an officer is eligible at any time :—

(a) Sundays, occurring during a period when leave is being taken are counted ;

(b) the remainder of the calendar year in which leave is taken may, if the officer so desires, be included in the computation ;

(c) if an officer falls sick while on ordinary leave or during travelling time under paragraph 10 below and furnishes a medical certificate to that effect, the period of sickness will be regarded as sick leave.

4. All officers are eligible for the amount of ordinary leave prescribed in paragraph 5 ; the provisions of paragraphs 6 to 10 apply only to officers serving abroad.

5. Members of Branch C of the Foreign Service are eligible for ordinary leave on the following basis :—

Grade 1 (Shorthand-Typists) : 24 days (including Sundays) a year on appointment to that grade, rising to 28 days a year after 5 years' service in the grade.

Grade 2 (Typists) : 21 days (including Sundays) a year, rising to 24 days after 5 years' service.

Comment :—

In addition, they may be eligible for additional leave in respect of service in unhealthy posts (see paragraph 6 of this regulation).

6. Officers who are stationed in certain posts or in certain countries which shall from time to time be specified by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury as unhealthy for purposes of leave of absence, and who, at the expiration of their leave, return to the same post or any other of the specified posts are eligible for additional ordinary leave at the rate of 14 days per annum, with a maximum accumulation of 28 days.

7. Subject to the limitations of paragraph 9, below, ordinary leave may be taken :—

(a) in the country where the officer is serving or in another country ;

(b) in one period during the calendar year covering all the leave for which the officer is eligible in that year ;

(c) in more than one period during the calendar year ;

(d) by accumulating the leave to which the officer is entitled (or any part thereof) over a period of more than one year.

Comment :—

Officers passing through the United Kingdom on transfer will normally be required to take any leave for which they are then eligible.

8. Where an officer has spent sick leave in the United Kingdom, she should take any ordinary leave for which she is eligible at the time her sick leave terminates before she returns to her post abroad, unless the Secretary of State decides otherwise.

9. The following rules are applicable to accumulated leave :—

(a) Every officer may accumulate the ordinary leave to which she is entitled under paragraph 5 above up to and not exceeding the total ordinary leave to which she is entitled for 3½ years. This amount will be increased by 28 days in the case of officers serving at posts or in the countries referred to in paragraph 6 of this regulation.

- (b) An officer who has accumulated ordinary leave must, unless the Secretary of State otherwise decides, on the next occasion when she is granted travelling time for the purpose of proceeding on leave, take all the accumulated leave to which she is then entitled.
- (c) Save in exceptional circumstances and with the express permission of the Secretary of State, no leave may be accumulated in respect of service in the United Kingdom.

10. Travelling time (i.e., the time actually occupied by the outward and return journey by an approved route between the country where the officer is serving and the country where she is taking her leave) is allowed on one occasion in respect of each calendar year in addition to the periods of ordinary leave under the previous paragraphs of this regulation with the proviso that travelling time thus allowed shall not exceed the time occupied by a journey to and from the United Kingdom by an approved route.

Comment :—

For the conditions on which travelling allowances are granted, see Regulation No. 5.

II.—Sick Leave

11. Unless otherwise stated the following paragraphs of this regulation apply to members of the Service whether they are serving in the United Kingdom or abroad.

12. The grant of sick leave is subject in all cases to the Secretary of State being satisfied that the officer to whom it is granted has a reasonable prospect of recovery so as to enable her to return to her duties.

13. The grant of sick leave to any officer for a period exceeding four days is conditional on the production by the officer of a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner indicating the nature of the illness and the period estimated to be required for recovery. If the number of days during which any officer is absent on sick leave in any period of twelve months without such certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days of absence in excess of seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary leave allowable.

14. The permissions required for the grant of sick leave are the same as those described for ordinary leave in paragraph 2 of this regulation. In the case of officers serving abroad, no reference need be made to the Foreign Office for any period of sick leave not exceeding 14 days.

15. The Secretary of State may require further medical certificates or periodical medical certificates reporting progress where he considers it desirable.

16. Sick leave on full pay may, subject to the provision of a medical certificate showing that the officer is likely to be able to resume her duties within a reasonable period, be granted for a period or periods not exceeding six months in the aggregate during any period of twelve months. An officer who has had sick leave on full pay for the maximum period may be granted sick leave on half-pay, subject always to a maximum of twelve months' sick leave (whether on whole or half-pay and whether on the basis of a medical certificate or not) in any period of four years.

17. Where an officer has been granted the maximum amount of sick leave which can be granted on half-pay, the grant of further sick leave will be conditional on the receipt by the Secretary of State of a reliable medical certificate showing that the officer is considered likely to be able to resume her duties within a reasonable period. If further sick leave is granted, the officer may be paid a salary at the rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which she would have been qualified if she had retired for reasons of health at the time when her period of sick leave expired (hereafter referred to as pension rate of pay); or on half-pay if this would be less than pension rate of pay. If the officer is unable to furnish a medical certificate as described above, the Secretary of State, may, if he thinks fit, call on her to retire on grounds of ill-health.

Comment :—

(1) Periods of sick leave in excess of twelve months during any period of four years will be excluded from service on which annual increments of salary, or for pension on retirement, are calculated.

(2) See paragraph 8 of this regulation as to the taking of accrued ordinary leave at the end of sick leave in the case of an officer serving abroad.

(3) See paragraph 3 (c) of this regulation as regards officers falling sick during their ordinary leave.

III.—Leave (General)

18. Every officer serving abroad must inform the Personnel Department, in advance if possible, of the date on which she intends to proceed on leave, and of the address to which she is going. Every subsequent change of address must be reported to that Department.

19. Every officer serving abroad must inform the Personnel Department in advance of the date on which she intends to leave the United Kingdom in order to return to her post from leave.

20. The actual dates of every officer's departure from her post abroad, on leave and on her return must be officially reported to the Foreign Office by despatch.

21. Every officer serving in the United Kingdom must, whenever absent from the Foreign Office for whatever reason, leave her address with her superior officer or must follow such other procedure in this connexion as may be indicated in the departmental instructions in force at the time.

REGULATION No. 5. TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES

1. Whenever an officer of Branch C makes a journey on public service, the amount of the fares by rail, ship, aircraft or motor car, as the case may be, for the journey in question by the approved route will be payable to her.

Comment :—

The "approved route" means the route approved for the particular journey in question. In many cases there is a standard route for journeys between different countries which will be the "approved route." An officer who makes the journey by a route other than the approved route e.g., travels by air or in her own car when the approved route is by rail, &c.) will not be able to claim more than the amount payable for a journey by the approved route. On the other hand if the route which she takes is cheaper than the approved route she will not be able to claim more than the actual expenses incurred.

2. Journeys on the public service include—

- (a) Any journey made by an officer serving at home or abroad for the purpose of attending an international conference or accompanying any officer called for discussion or consultation, or of making a tour or visit, which the officer makes with the authority of the Secretary of State.

- (b) Any journeys from the United Kingdom made by an officer to her post abroad on her appointment to such post.
 - (c) Any journey to her new post made by an officer on transfer from the place where the officer was previously serving or, if she was on leave at the time of transfer, from the place where she was spending her leave. If however, the journey from the place where she was spending her leave is more expensive than the journey from her previous post, the officer will not be able to claim more than the amount payable in respect of a journey from the United Kingdom or from her previous post as the Secretary of State may decide.
3. Where the journey in the cases referred to in (b) and (c) of paragraph 2 above is made by an officer who is being moved at her own request before the completion of three years' service at her post or by an officer who is being moved on account of misconduct, the officer would not be entitled to be repaid the cost of her travelling expenses.

4. The amount of the fares by rail, ship, aircraft or motor car, as the case may be, by an approved route will be payable to an officer serving abroad—

- (a) If she is proceeding from or returning to her post during ordinary leave, in the cases specified in paragraph 5 below.
- (b) If she is proceeding from or returning to her post during sick leave, in the cases specified in paragraph 6 below.
- (c) If she is retiring on pension and is proceeding from her post to her place of retirement. If the journey to the place of her retirement is a more expensive journey than a journey to the United Kingdom, the officer will not be entitled to claim more than would be payable in respect of the journey to the United Kingdom.

Comment:—

An officer who retires in circumstances where she is not granted a pension (i.e., at her own request or for misconduct) may not claim any travelling allowances on retirement.

5. An officer will only be entitled to receive the amount of fares in the cases referred to in paragraph 4 (a) above (ordinary leave) after 30 months' consecutive service abroad, or, in the case of officers serving at certain posts or in certain countries which are regarded as unhealthy for purposes of leave, after 18 months' consecutive service. Where leave is taken in a country other than the United Kingdom, the amounts payable in respect of fares will not usually be paid from public funds and will only be allowed if the Secretary of State decides that payment from public funds is warranted by the special circumstances of the case and, in any case, will not exceed those which would be payable in respect of a journey to or from the United Kingdom by an approved route. If, however, the amount of the fares to or from the place at which leave is being taken is less than the amount of the fares for a journey to the United Kingdom, the officer will not receive more than the amount of the fares for the journey actually taken.

6. In the cases referred to in paragraph 4 (b) above (sick leave) the Secretary of State may at his discretion allow the payment to the officer of the amount of the fares from her post to such place as the officer may proceed under medical advice on health grounds or for the purposes of undergoing treatment which is not available locally.

Comment:—

The Secretary of State will require, before sanctioning the payment of the amount of fares under the above paragraph, the production of a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner that it is necessary for the officer to proceed to the place to which the journey is made on health grounds.

7. Where the amounts of fares are payable under the previous paragraphs of this regulation, these fares will be third-class fares in the United Kingdom and second class elsewhere, whether by sea or land, including sleeping berths where necessary for a land journey. First-class fares will, however, be payable where the Secretary of State is satisfied that second-class accommodation is unsuitable for Europeans.

8.—(a) In any case where the amount of fares is payable under the preceding paragraphs of this regulation except in the case of journeys on ordinary sick leave, a subsistence allowance will be granted to meet the expenses of food and sleeping accommodation where these are not included in the fare. The subsistence allowance for officers of Branch C will be three quarters of the full subsistence allowance authorised for the country in which the officer is travelling.

(b) Where some, but not all, of the items for which subsistence allowance is granted are provided under the fare, the subsistence allowance will be proportionately reduced.

Comment:—

(1) Where the expenses of a sleeping berth on a long journey are paid, only two-thirds of the subsistence allowance to meet the cost of food will be granted.

(2) Subsistence allowances are payable only where the expenses of the journey are met from public funds. If, however, no fare is payable (e.g., a journey on one of His Majesty's ships) and the officer has to pay for her board or if the fare payable does not include board, then a subsistence allowance is payable.

(3) See also Regulation No. 6, paragraph 3, regarding payment of subsistence allowances to an officer in certain circumstances after arrival at her post.

9. Necessary expenses (such as taxi fares, fees for registration of luggage, portorage, &c.) incidental to the journey in respect of which the amount of the fare is payable under the preceding paragraphs of this regulation will be payable to the officer on her application.

Comment:—

(1) Only incidental expenses which are reasonably necessary will be payable under this paragraph and the officer will be required to certify that the expenses which she claims were necessarily incurred.

(2) The comment to paragraph 1 above applies to claims to these expenses.

10. Where an officer is proceeding to her post on transfer or on first appointment abroad or leaving her post on retirement on pension or on an appointment to the United Kingdom, or when an officer dies while serving abroad, the cost of transporting her personal effects by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed up to such amount as the Secretary of State may consider to be reasonable, except in the circumstances indicated in paragraph 3 or when she retires in circumstances where she is not granted a pension (i.e., at her own request or for misconduct).

Comment :—

This paragraph applies to heavy luggage containing personal effects as opposed to ordinary travelling luggage, which goes under paragraph 9 above. It includes such things as clothes, household linen, books and small articles of decoration. The cost of transporting heavy articles such as pianos, radiograms and large gramophones would not be allowed under this head.

11. Where the cost of removing heavy luggage under paragraph 10 above is allowed, the reasonable cost of insuring that luggage up to the maximum insurable value of £200 during transit will also be allowed.

REGULATION No. 6. RENT ALLOWANCE

1. A member of Branch C of the Foreign Service serving abroad at a post at which furnished accommodation is not provided will receive a rent allowance sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of State to enable her to defray the cost of renting suitable furnished accommodation, excluding services and other tenant's charges.

Comment :—

The Ministry of Works regulations regarding Government property will apply in all cases where Government furniture is provided. No charge will be made for the use of Government furniture.

2. The rent allowance becomes payable from the date when an officer arrives at her post unless she is granted a subsistence allowance, in which case it becomes payable when this allowance terminates. Subject to paragraph 4 below, rent allowance ceases to be payable on the date on which the officer leaves her post on termination of her appointment.

3. A member of Branch C who is unable to find suitable accommodation immediately on arrival at her new post abroad may be allowed to claim, for a period not normally exceeding 28 days, in lieu of foreign and rent allowances, a subsistence allowance at three-quarters of the full subsistence allowance authorised for the post.

4. Where an officer who has been granted a rent allowance is transferred to another post otherwise than at her own request and can show that she has been unable to dispose of the lease of her residence, she will be allowed to claim as compensation for the rent for which she is liable, a sum which shall not exceed the rent allowance previously granted to her, for a period which will be determined by the Secretary of State, but which will not exceed three months except in special cases.

5. An officer who has been granted a rent allowance shall not receive that allowance during the periods of authorised absence unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that she has not been able to sub-let.

Comment :—

Officers who rent accommodation must furnish a certificate from the Head of the Diplomatic Mission or the Superintending consular officer—as the case may be—that they have made the most economical arrangements consistent with their rank and requirements. They must themselves defray any additional expenditure which may be caused by maintaining larger or more expensive establishments than are necessary. They must also endeavour to obtain a clause (known as a “diplomatic clause”) in the lease enabling them to terminate it at short notice in the event of transfer before its expiry.

REGULATION No. 7. LANGUAGE ALLOWANCE

Allowances at the rate of £30 a year will be paid to a limited number of officers of Branch C who have proved their ability to write and transcribe French shorthand proficiently.

Comment :—

Language allowances are subject to income tax.

REGULATION No. 8. TRANSFERS AND PROMOTIONS

1. All members of Branch C of the Foreign Service must be prepared to go to any post at which their services may be required.

Comment :—

When appointments and transfers are made account will be taken as far as possible, of the circumstances and wishes of the individual; members of the Service will, however, be expected to regard an intimation that they are to be transferred to a certain post as an order and not as a request.

2. Recommendations for promotion and transfers within Branch C will be made by Personnel Department in consultation with Establishment and Organisation Department and with the Foreign Service Inspectors. Recommendations for promotion will be subject to the approval of the Head of Personnel Department.

REGULATION No. 9. DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS

1.—(i) This regulation applies to all cases where a member of Branch C of the Service is accused of a disciplinary offence. It does not apply to cases where an officer is merely admonished.

(ii)—(a) In this regulation the expression “disciplinary offence” means conduct by a member of the Service prejudicial to the interests of the Service or unbefitting the position which she holds in the Service, or disobedience of official instructions of such a character that a warning or a reprimand with or without a transfer to another post may be an appropriate penalty.

(b) In this regulation a “grave disciplinary offence” means a disciplinary offence which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, is of so serious a character that dismissal from the Service or a reduction in rank or a loss of seniority may be an appropriate penalty.

Comment to paragraph 1 (ii) :—

It is not possible or desirable to attempt to lay down rules which determine in all circumstances what conduct constitutes a disciplinary offence or a grave disciplinary offence or the penalty that would be appropriate. There are certain courses of conduct which are reprehensible whatever the rank of the member; in other cases conduct may be reprehensible if the member holds a high post, but less serious when the member is of junior status. There are also courses of conduct which may most appropriately be dealt with by the Head of the post at which the officer is serving or by the Head of the Personnel Department direct. The Report of 25th February, 1928 (Cmd. 3037), of a Board of Enquiry appointed to investigate certain statements affecting civil servants is still fully applicable to members of the Foreign Service as a useful guide to their conduct.

2. The expression “official superior” means in the case of—

- (i) a member of the staff of a Diplomatic Mission abroad, the Head of that Mission or a Foreign Service Inspector;
- (ii) a member of the staff of a Consulate, the senior Consular Officer of the district or a Foreign Service Inspector;
- (iii) a person working in the Foreign Office, the Head of the Department concerned.

3. The Secretary of State may suspend a member of the Foreign Service from duty if the question whether she has been guilty of a disciplinary offence is raised and the Secretary of State considers that her suspension is desirable until the question has been investigated and a decision reached. Unless the Secretary of State shall determine otherwise, the remuneration of an officer suspended from duty will cease from the date of her suspension. In the event of her reinstatement, it may, however, be restored wholly or in part should the Secretary of State so determine.

4. Complaints of disciplinary offences by a member of the Service shall be made by the official superior in a letter addressed to the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration setting out the full facts of the case with any comments or explanations which the official superior feels it necessary to make. A copy of this letter shall be communicated to the person complained of either by the official superior or, if he has not done so, by the Under-Secretary of State.

5. The member of the Service complained of may present her defence to the complaint against her in a letter addressed to the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration. The latter may refer this letter to the official superior for his comments and any comments received in reply from the official superior will be communicated to the person complained of in order that she may have an opportunity of making any further reply which she may think necessary.

6. It is not desirable that the official superior should address any other communications about the case to the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration or to any other person, but should he do so, they will be treated in accordance with the procedure laid down in paragraph 4 above.

7. If the disciplinary offence is an ordinary disciplinary offence and the person complained of does not dispute the facts, the decision as to the penalty to be imposed may be taken by the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration and communicated by him or by the Head of the Personnel Department to the person concerned. If the person complained of disputes the facts alleged against her or wishes to appeal against the penalty, the case shall be referred to a committee, hereinafter referred to as "the Committee," called by the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration, consisting of representatives of Personnel Department and Establishment and Organisation Department, and on which a legal adviser of the Foreign Office shall sit if the Secretary of State so directs, or if the person complained of so requests. In this event the Committee shall furnish to the Secretary of State in writing its opinion on the facts and as to what, if any, offence is proved (if the facts are in dispute), and its advice upon the penalty.

8.—(i) If the disciplinary offence is a grave disciplinary offence and the person complained of does not dispute the facts alleged against her, the case shall be sent to the Committee to express their advice as to the penalty. This advice shall be furnished to the Secretary of State in writing.

(ii) If the person complained of disputes the facts alleged against her, her case shall be heard by the Committee and the Committee shall furnish to the Secretary of State in writing its opinion as to the facts and what offence (if any) is proved and its advice as to the penalty.

(iii) In either case the decision of the Secretary of State shall be communicated to the person concerned by the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration or by the Head of Personnel Department.

9. When any disciplinary offence is submitted for consideration to a committee called in the circumstances referred to above, all the letters relating to the offence referred to in paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 above shall be laid before the Committee. The Committee may summon any witness whom it considers it desirable to hear, and the accused person shall have a right to be heard and, subject to the consent of the Committee, to bring any witnesses whom she may desire. The accused person shall have the right to be present when all other witnesses are giving evidence.

10. The decision as to the penalty shall, in all cases, remain vested in the Secretary of State after he has considered the report and advice of the Committee.

REGULATION No. 10. OVERTIME AND HOURS OF ATTENDANCE

Overtime is payable at home to officers of Branch C in respect of duty in excess of 42 hours per week, but at posts abroad no overtime is payable.

Comment :—

In the Foreign Office the normal working week is 42 hours including lunch and tea intervals but not including time occupied in travelling to and from the place of work.

CHAPTER V

Branch D

REGULATION No. 1. GRADES AND SALARIES

The grades and salaries of members of Branch D of the Foreign Service are :—

Grade 1.—£360 rising by annual increments of £15 to £450.

Grade 2.—£340 rising by annual increments of £10 to £380.

Grade 3. £275 rising by annual increments of £10 to £315 A Responsibility Allowance of £30 a year is payable in appropriate cases.

Comment :—

Members of Branch D in their several grades are responsible at Foreign Service posts abroad for the carrying out of Security and messengerial duties and for the supervision of other staff, whether locally engaged or not, carrying out similar duties. Branch D consists of men only and there are no posts in the United Kingdom in which its members are employed.

REGULATION No. 2. OUTFIT AND TRANSFER ALLOWANCE.

1. Uniform will be provided at the expense of His Majesty's Government.

2. Outfit and transfer allowances will be payable on the following basis :—

(i) On first appointment abroad : £60 for a married man, £30 for an unmarried man. Payment of this allowance will be subject to the production of a certificate that the sums claimed have actually been expended.

(ii) On any subsequent transfer from one post abroad to another post abroad : one-tenth of the mean of the salary scale in the case of a transfer to a post where furniture is not provided and one-twentieth if furniture is provided.

Comment :—

(1) Where transfer is accompanied by promotion this allowance will be based on the new salary scale. No outfit allowance will be granted in respect of promotion alone.

(2) Exceptionally, those officers who are established while serving at a post abroad may be given on the occasion of their first transfer to another post abroad, the allowance specified in 2 (i) above or the allowance specified in 2 (ii) above, whichever is the greater.

3. On appointment to a post at which special clothing is, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, necessary for climatic reasons, the allowances in paragraph 2 (i) and (ii) will be increased by the actual cost of such clothing up to £45 in respect of a married officer whose wife accompanies him and £30 in respect of an unmarried officer. These increases will be subject to the production of a certificate that the sums claimed have been expended for the purposes laid down and will be limited to three occasions during an officer's career.

REGULATION No. 3. FOREIGN ALLOWANCE.

1. A foreign allowance will be assigned to officers of Branch D.

Comment :—

(1) Salary is intended to cover necessary expenditure in the United Kingdom and to take the first strain of the cost of living of the officer abroad, foreign allowances supplementing it to the extent to which the salary falls short of total necessary expenditure. In assessing foreign allowances, the following items, inter alia, are taken into account : (a) local cost of living ; (b) expenditure which an officer serving abroad necessarily incurs, either at home or abroad, over and above that of an officer of corresponding grade serving in the Foreign Office.

(2) Foreign allowance is not subject to United Kingdom income tax.

2. The amount of the foreign allowance to be assigned to an officer will be determined by the Secretary of State in the light of the conditions at the particular post.

3. When an officer to whom a foreign allowance is assigned is absent from his post abroad, the foreign allowance will be paid on the basis specified in the paragraphs 4-9 of this regulation.

A.—When the officer is returning to his Post.

4. When the officer is married and takes his wife and family (if any) with him and is—

(i) On Duty.

(a) In the United Kingdom.

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance for himself only at the rates in force for the United Kingdom. The position will be reviewed after two months' absence.

(b) Elsewhere.

He will draw no subsistence allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance for himself and also for his wife if approval is given for her to accompany him officially.

Comment :—

The officer will be responsible for the travelling expenses of his wife and family.

(ii) On Earned Leave.

He will draw no subsistence allowance but will retain his foreign allowance except in the case of posts where the allowance is abnormally high, i.e. where it exceeds 100 per cent. of the mean of the salary scale of the officer's grade. In such cases the foreign allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 25 per cent. as from the date of departure on leave. This reduction shall not operate so as to bring the foreign allowance below the mean of his salary scale. This reduction will not be applied in respect of brief absences within a total of 14 days in one calendar year.

(iii) On Sick Leave Outside the Country where he is Posted.

The foreign allowance will be the same as that payable on earned leave (see (ii) above) except that, as from the date of departure on sick leave, it will be reduced by 25 per cent. for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances. At the end of such period the Secretary of State will exercise full discretion with regard to the further payment of foreign allowance.

Comment :—

A married officer on sick leave outside the country where he is posted, who is due to return to his post, may thus incur a double cut in his foreign allowance.

5. When the officer is married and leaves his wife and family (if any) at the post and is—

(i) On Duty.

(a) In the United Kingdom.

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance.

(b) Temporarily attached to another post.

He will retain the whole of the foreign allowance of his own post or draw that of the temporary post, whichever is higher, with subsistence allowance in addition at the discretion of the Secretary of State.

(c) On duty in circumstances other than (a) and (b).

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance.

(ii) On Earned Leave.

Wherever he is on earned leave he will retain the foreign allowance of his post but will draw no subsistence allowance.

(iii) On Sick Leave Outside the Country where he is Posted.

Any such case which may arise will be dealt with on its merits.

6. When the officer is unmarried and is—

(i) On Duty.

(a) In the United Kingdom.

He will be eligible for subsistence allowance and will retain, for the period of one month, the foreign allowance of his post. Thereafter, the foreign allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 50 per cent. provided that this reduction shall not bring the amount of his allowance below the minimum of his salary scale.

(b) Temporarily attached to another post.

He will retain the whole of the foreign allowance of his own post or draw that of the temporary post, whichever is higher, with subsistence allowance in addition at the discretion of the Secretary of State.

(c) On duty in circumstances other than those in (a) and (b).

He will retain the foreign allowance of his post and draw subsistence allowance.

(ii) On Earned Leave

Wherever his leave may be taken and whatever the foreign allowance of his post may be, the unmarried officer's allowance will be subject to a reduction at the rate of 50 per cent. as from the date of departure on leave, provided that this reduction shall not bring the amount of the foreign allowance below the minimum of his salary scale and that this reduction shall not be applied in respect of brief absences within a total of 14 days in one calendar year.

(iii) On Sick Leave Outside the Country where Posted.

The foreign allowance will be the same as that payable on earned leave (see (ii) above) except that as from the date of departure on sick leave, it will be reduced by 25 per cent. for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances. At the end of such period the Secretary of State will exercise full discretion with regard to the further payment of foreign allowance.

Comment :—

An unmarried officer on sick leave outside the country where he is posted, who is due to return to his post, may thus incur a double cut in his foreign allowance.

B.—When the Officer is not returning to his Post.

7. When the officer is married and takes his wife and family (if any) with him and is—

(i) On Temporary Duty.

(a) In the United Kingdom.

He will cease to receive his foreign allowance and receive a taxable allowance of £50 a year.

(b) At another post.

He will receive the foreign allowance of that post.

(ii) On Earned Leave.

He will receive the allowance described in paragraph 7 (i) (a) above.

(iii) On Sick Leave in the United Kingdom.

No allowance will be payable.

8. When an officer is married and leaves his wife and family (if any) at his post—

Such cases will be dealt with on their merits.

9. When the officer is unmarried and is—

(i) On Temporary Duty.

(a) In the United Kingdom.

No allowance will be payable.

(b) At another post.

He will receive the foreign allowance of that post.

(ii) On Earned Leave.

No allowance will be payable.

(iii) On Sick Leave in the United Kingdom.

No allowance will be payable.

10. An officer, married or unmarried, who is on sick leave in the country where he is posted will retain his foreign allowance in full for two months. Thereafter the foreign allowance will be reduced by 25 per cent. for such period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable in the circumstances. At the end of such period the Secretary of State will use full discretion with regard to further payment.

REGULATION NO. 4. LEAVE.

I.—Ordinary Leave.

1. Permission to take ordinary leave can only be granted subject to the exigencies of the Service.

2. Officers can take the ordinary leave for which they are eligible under this Regulation only with the permission of the Secretary of State and of the Head of Mission or post.

3. In calculating the number of days of ordinary leave to which an officer is eligible at any time :—

(a) Sundays, occurring during a period when leave is being taken, are counted ;

(b) The remainder of the calendar year in which leave is taken may, if the officer so desires, be included in the computation ;

(c) If an officer falls sick while on ordinary leave or during travelling time under paragraph 9 below and furnishes a medical certificate to that effect, the period of sickness will be regarded as sick leave.

4. Members of Branch D of the Foreign Service are eligible for ordinary leave on the following basis :—

Grades 1 and 2 : 36 days a year.

Grade 3 : 28 days a year.

Comment :—

In addition, they may be eligible for additional leave in respect of service in unhealthy posts (see paragraph 5 of this regulation).

5. Officers who are stationed in certain posts or in certain countries which shall from time to time be specified by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury as unhealthy for purposes of leave of absence, and who, at the expiration of their leave, return to the same post or any other of the specified posts, are eligible for additional ordinary leave at the rate of 14 days per annum, with a maximum accumulation of 28 days.

6. Subject to the limitations of paragraph 8 below, ordinary leave may be taken :—

(a) in the country where the officer is serving or in another country ;

(b) in one period during the calendar year covering all the leave for which the officer is eligible in that year ;

(c) in more than one period during the calendar year ;

(d) by accumulating the leave to which the officer is entitled (or any part thereof) over a period of more than one year.

Comment :—

Officers passing through the United Kingdom on transfer will normally be required to take any leave for which they are then eligible.

7. Where an officer has spent sick leave in the United Kingdom, he should take any ordinary leave for which he is eligible at the time his sick leave terminates before he returns to his post abroad, unless the Secretary of State decides otherwise.

8. The following rules are applicable to accumulated leave :—

(a) Every officer may accumulate the ordinary leave to which he is entitled under paragraph 4 above, up to and not exceeding the total ordinary leave to which he is entitled for 3½ years. This amount will be increased by 28 days in the case of officers serving at posts or in the countries referred to in paragraph 5 of this regulation.

(b) An officer who has accumulated ordinary leave must, unless the Secretary of State otherwise decides, on the next occasion when he is granted travelling time for the purpose of proceeding on leave, take all the accumulated leave to which he is then entitled.

9. Travelling time (i.e., the time actually occupied by the outward and return journey by an approved route between the country where the officer is serving and the country where he is taking his leave) is allowed on one occasion in respect of each calendar year in addition to the periods of ordinary leave under the previous paragraphs of this regulation, with the proviso that travelling time thus allowed shall not exceed the time occupied by a journey to and from the United Kingdom by an approved route.

Comment :—

For the conditions on which travelling allowances are granted, see Regulation No. 5.

II.—Sick Leave.

10. The grant of sick leave is subject in all cases to the Secretary of State being satisfied that the officer to whom it is granted has a reasonable prospect of recovery so as to enable him to return to his duties.

11. The grant of sick leave to any officer for a period exceeding four days is conditional on the production by the officer of a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner indicating the nature of the illness and the period estimated to be required for recovery. If the number of days during which any officer is absent on sick leave in any period of twelve months without such certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days of absence in excess of seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary leave allowable.

12. The permissions required for the grant of sick leave are the same as those described for ordinary leave in paragraph 2 of this regulation. No reference need be made to the Foreign Office for any period of sick leave not exceeding 14 days.

13. The Secretary of State may require further medical certificates or periodical medical certificates reporting progress where he considers it desirable.

14. Sick leave on full pay may, subject to the provision of a medical certificate showing that the officer is likely to be able to resume his duties within a reasonable period, be granted for a period or periods not exceeding six months in the aggregate during any period of twelve months. An officer who has had sick leave on full pay for the maximum period may be granted sick leave on half-pay, subject always to a maximum of twelve months' sick leave (whether on whole or half-pay and whether on the basis of a medical certificate or not) in any period of four years.

15. Where an officer has been granted the maximum amount of sick leave which can be granted on half-pay, the grant of further sick leave will be conditional on the receipt by the Secretary of State of a reliable medical certificate showing that the officer is considered likely to be able to resume his duties within a reasonable period. If further sick leave is granted, the officer may be paid a salary at the rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which he would have been qualified if he had retired for reasons of health at the time when his period of sick leave expired (hereafter referred to as pension rate of pay); or on half-pay if this would be less than pension rate of pay. If the officer is unable to furnish a medical certificate as described above, the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, call on him to retire on grounds of ill-health.

Comment :—

(1) Periods of sick leave in excess of twelve months during any period of four years will be excluded from service on which annual increments of salary, or for pension on retirement, are calculated.

(2) See paragraph 7 of this regulation as to the taking of accrued ordinary leave, at the end of sick leave.

(3) See paragraph 3 (c) of this regulation as regards officers falling sick during their ordinary leave.

III.—Leave (General).

16. Every officer must inform the Personnel Department, in advance if possible, of the date on which he intends to proceed on leave, and of the address to which he is going. Every subsequent change of address must be reported to that Department.

17. Every officer must inform the Personnel Department in advance of the date on which he intends to leave the United Kingdom in order to return to his post from leave.

18. The actual dates of every officer's departure

REGULATION No. 5. TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES.

1. Whenever an officer makes a journey on public service, the amount of the fares by rail, ship, aircraft or motor car, as the case may be, for the journey in question by the approved route will be payable to him.

Comment :—

The "approved route" means the route approved for the particular journey in question. In many cases there is a standard route for journeys between different countries which will be the "approved route." An officer who makes the journey by a route other than the approved route (e.g., travels by air or in his own car when the approved route is by rail, &c.), will not be able to claim more than the amount payable for a journey by the approved route. On the other hand, if the route which he takes is cheaper than the approved route he will not be able to claim more than the actual expenses incurred.

2. Journeys on the public service include :—

(a) Any journey made by an officer for the purpose of attending an international conference or discussion or consultation, or of making a tour or visit, which the officer makes with the authority of the Secretary of State.

(b) Any journeys from the United Kingdom made by an officer to his post abroad on his appointment to such post.

(c) Any journey to his new post made by an officer on transfer from the place where the officer was previously serving or, if he was on leave at the time of transfer, from the place where he was spending his leave. If, however, the journey from the place where he was spending his leave is more expensive than the journey from his previous post, the officer will not be able to claim more than the amount payable in respect of a journey from the United Kingdom or from his previous post as the Secretary of State may decide.

3. Where the journey in the cases referred to in (b) and (c) of paragraph 2 above is made by an officer who is being moved at his own request before the completion of three years' service at his post or by an officer who is being moved on account of misconduct, the officer would not be entitled to be repaid the cost of his travelling expenses.

4. The amount of the fares by rail, ship, aircraft or motor car, as the case may be, by an approved route, will be payable to an officer :—

(a) If he is proceeding from or returning to his post during ordinary leave, in the cases specified in paragraph 5 below.

(b) If he is proceeding from or returning to his post during sick leave, in the cases specified in paragraph 6 below.

(c) If he is retiring on pension and is proceeding from his post to his place of retirement. If the journey to the place of his retirement is a more expensive journey than a journey to the United Kingdom, the officer will not be entitled to claim more than would be payable in respect of the journey to the United Kingdom.

Comment :—

An officer who retires in circumstances where he is not granted a pension (i.e., at his own request or for misconduct) may not claim any travelling allowances on retirement.

5. An officer will only be entitled to receive the amount of fares in the cases referred to in paragraphs 4 (a) above (ordinary leave) after 30 months' consecutive service abroad or, in the case of officers serving at certain posts or in certain countries which are regarded as unhealthy for purposes of leave, after 18 months' consecutive service. Where leave is taken in a country other than the United Kingdom, the amounts payable in respect of fares will not usually be paid from public funds and will only be allowed if the Secretary of State decides that payment from public funds is warranted by the special circumstances of the case and, in any case, will not exceed those which would be payable in respect of a journey to or from the United Kingdom by an approved route. If, however, the amount of the fares to or from the place at which leave is being taken is less than the amount of the fares for a journey to the United Kingdom, the officer will not receive more than the amount of the fares for the journey actually taken.

6. In the cases referred to in paragraph 4 (b) above (sick leave), the Secretary of State may at his discretion allow the payment to the officer of the amount of the fares from his post to such place as the officer may proceed under medical advice on health grounds or for the purposes of undergoing treatment which is not available locally.

Comment :—

The Secretary of State will require, before sanctioning the payment of the amount of fares under the above paragraph, the production of a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner that it is necessary for the officer to proceed to the place to which the journey is made on health grounds.

7.—(a) An officer who is making a journey in any of the cases referred to in (b) or (c) of paragraph 2 or in (a) or (c) of paragraph 4 above will be entitled to receive the amount of the fares by the approved route for members of his family, as defined in paragraph (b) below. In the cases referred to in (a) of paragraph 2 and (b) of paragraph 4 he will only be entitled to receive the amounts of the fares for any members of his family if the Secretary of State in any particular case so decides.

Comment :—

(1) Families will be expected to travel together. Where the officer's family do not travel with him their expenses will not be paid unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that there was a good reason for separate journeys.

(2) Travelling expenses will not be allowed for an officer's wife in cases under (a) of paragraph 2.

(3) Where, for the reasons given in paragraph 3 and in the comment to paragraph 4, the officer is not entitled to receive the amount of the fares for himself, he will not be able to claim them for his family.

(b) The members of an officer's family referred to in (a) above are—

- (i) his wife;
- (ii) sons who at the time of the commencement of the journey are under 16 years of age, or who, though 16 years of age or over, reside with and are dependent on their father by reason of physical or mental infirmity;
- (iii) unmarried daughters residing with and dependent on their father;
- (iv) sons up to the age of 18 years who are resident at their father's post abroad and are receiving full-time education at that post.

Comment :—

Adopted or step-sons or daughters are included in the above enumeration.

8. The amount of the fares of the members of the family of an officer serving abroad who dies, leaving his family abroad, for a journey from the place where they are to the place to which they desire to go, will be paid at the request of his widow or other member of his family up to the amount of the fares from the officer's post to the United Kingdom.

9. If a member of the family of an officer serving abroad who is resident with the officer at his post is seriously ill and is required to proceed elsewhere on health grounds or for the purposes of treatment, the Secretary of State may, at his discretion, allow payment to the officer of the return fares of the sick person and (where necessary) another person travelling with the sick person, from the officer's post to such place as the sick person may proceed on medical advice.

Comment :—

The comment to paragraph 6 above applies here.

10. No expenditure for servants will be payable.

11. Where the amounts of fares are payable under the previous paragraphs of this regulation, these fares will be third-class fares in the United Kingdom and second-class elsewhere, whether by sea or land, including sleeping berths where necessary for a land journey. First-class fares will, however, be payable where the Secretary of State is satisfied that second-class accommodation is unsuitable for Europeans.

12.—(a) In any case where the amount of fares is payable under the preceding paragraphs of this regulation, except in the case of journeys on ordinary or sick leave, a subsistence allowance will be granted to meet the expenses of food and sleeping accommodation where these are not included in the fare. The subsistence allowance for officers of Branch D will be three quarters of the full subsistence allowance authorised for the country in which the officer is travelling.

(b) Subsistence allowance at the rate specified in (a) above will be payable in respect of the officer himself, three-quarters of that rate for his wife and one-half of that rate for each other member of his family above the age of 12 months.

(c) Where some, but not all, of the items for which subsistence allowance is granted are provided under the fare, the subsistence allowance will be proportionately reduced.

Comment :—

(1) Subsistence allowances are payable only for children in respect of whom fares can be claimed under paragraph 7 (b) of this regulation. Where the expenses of a sleeping berth on a long journey are paid, only two-thirds of the subsistence allowance to meet the cost of food will be granted.

(2) Subsistence allowances are payable only where the expenses of the journey are met from public funds. If, however, no fare is payable (e.g., a journey on one of His Majesty's ships) and the officer has to pay for his board or if the fare payable does not include board, then a subsistence allowance is payable. Subsistence allowances are therefore payable, inter alia, in cases covered by paragraph 8 but not in cases covered by paragraph 3 or when the officer retires in circumstances where he is not granted a pension (i.e., at his own request or for misconduct).

(3) See also Regulation 6. paragraph 3, regarding payment of subsistence allowances to an officer in certain circumstances after arrival at his post.

13. Necessary expenses (such as taxi fares, fees for registration of luggage, portage, &c.) incidental to the journey in respect of which the amount of the fare is payable under the preceding paragraphs of this regulation will be payable to the officer on his application.

Comment :—

(1) Only incidental expenses which are reasonably necessary will be payable under this paragraph and the officer will be required to certify that the expenses which he claims were necessarily incurred.

(2) Comments (1) and (3) to paragraph 7 above apply to claims to these expenses.

14. Where an officer is proceeding to his post on transfer or on first appointment abroad or leaving his post on retirement on pension, or when an officer dies while serving abroad, the cost of transporting his personal effects by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed up to such amount as the Secretary of State may consider to be reasonable, except in the circumstances indicated in paragraph 3 or when the officer retires in circumstances where he is not granted a pension (i.e., at his own request or for misconduct).

Comment :—

(1) This paragraph applies to heavy luggage containing personal effects as opposed to ordinary travelling luggage, which goes under paragraph 13 above, and the furniture which is dealt with in paragraph 15 below. It includes such things as clothes, household linen, books and small articles of decoration. The cost of transporting heavy articles such as pianos, radiograms and large gramophones would not be allowed under this head.

(2) Comments (1) and (3) to paragraph 7 above also apply here.

15.—(a) Where an officer is appointed or transferred to a post and has been authorised by the Secretary of State to rent unfurnished accommodation, the cost of transporting the officer's own furniture by an approved route and method of transport to his post will be allowed up to 1½ tons or 350 cubic feet or 10 cubic metres.

Comment :—

In order to ensure that claims for the cost of transporting furniture are as low as possible, officers should, whenever possible, obtain three competitive tenders for transport, including insurance of the risk against damage in transport.

(b) Where an officer is allowed the cost of transporting his furniture under (a) above but cannot immediately find suitable unfurnished accommodation at his new post, he will be allowed storage charges for furniture up to the limits specified in (a) above, for a reasonable period.

Comment :—

The storage under (b) may be at his new post or his old post. The period allowed will not ordinarily exceed three months.

(c) Where an officer has been given a rent allowance for furnished accommodation or where his official residence, though furnished, has not been completely equipped, he will be allowed the cost of transporting by an approved route and method of transport any essential articles of furniture which are not included in the furniture provided.

(d) Where an officer is leaving his post on retirement on pension or when an officer serving abroad dies, the cost of transporting his furniture to the United Kingdom or place of retirement by an approved route and method of transport will be allowed up to the limits as to quantity specified in (a) above, and up to the limits as to cost of the transport to London.

(e) Where the officer is being moved in the circumstances indicated in paragraph 3 and in the comment to paragraph 4, no allowances can be claimed under this paragraph.

16. Where an officer serving abroad is, at the time of his transfer to a new appointment, in possession of furniture at his old post and is not granted an allowance for transferring his furniture to his new post under paragraph 15 (a) above, the officer will, at his option, be allowed (unless the transfer is made in the circumstances indicated in paragraph 3 or in the comment to paragraph 4) either the cost of removing the furniture to London up to the limits of the quantity of furniture specified in 15 (a), or the cost (up to the limits as to cost of the transport of the furniture to London) of storing the furniture up to these limits as to quantity.

Comment :—

If the officer is subsequently transferred to another post abroad in circumstances where he may be allowed the cost of removing his furniture to this post, he is then eligible to apply for the cost of removing his furniture under paragraph 15 (a) from London or the place abroad where he stored it, as the case may be. If he retires on pension or dies and his furniture has been stored abroad under paragraph 16, application may be made for the cost of removing his furniture to London under paragraph 15 (d).

17.—(a) Where an allowance is granted for the purpose of removing furniture under paragraphs 15 (a) or (d) or 16, or of removing essential articles of furniture under paragraph 15 (e) or of removing heavy baggage under paragraph 14, the reasonable cost of insuring during transit will also be allowed up to the limits specified in (b) below.

Comment :—

Only the premium to cover the additional risks on removal will be allowed. No allowance for insurance will be given in so far as the risk is covered by the contract of removal and therefore covered by the allowances for removal.

(b) The limits referred to in (a) of this paragraph are :—

(i) Where an allowance for the removal of furniture has been given under paragraph 15 (a).

The total value of all insured property shall not exceed—

In the case of married officers ...	1,000
In the case of unmarried officers ...	500

(ii) Where an allowance for the removal of essential articles of furniture has been given under paragraph 15 (c).

In the case of married officers ...	750
In the case of unmarried officers ...	400

(iii) Where an allowance for the removal of personal effects only has been given under paragraph 14.

The total value of all insured property shall not exceed—

In the case of married officers ...	350
In the case of unmarried officers ...	200

REGULATION No. 6. RENT ALLOWANCE

1. A member of Branch D of the Foreign Service serving abroad at a post at which furnished accommodation is not provided will receive a rent allowance sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of State to enable him to defray the cost of renting suitable furnished accommodation, excluding services and other tenant's charges. Alternatively, in special cases approved by the Secretary of State an officer may be provided with a rent allowance sufficient to enable him to defray the cost of renting suitable unfurnished accommodation, excluding services and other tenant's charges, in which cases, under the provisions and within the limits of paragraph 15 (a) of Regulation No. 5 he is entitled to claim the cost of transporting his own furniture to his post.

Comment :—

The Ministry of Works regulations regarding Government property will apply in all cases where Government furniture is provided. No charge will be made for the use of Government furniture.

2. The rent allowance becomes payable from the date when an officer arrives at his post unless he is granted a subsistence allowance, in which case it becomes payable when this allowance terminates. Subject to paragraph 4 below, rent allowance ceases to be payable on the date on which the officer leaves his post on termination of his appointment.

3. A member of Branch D who is unable to find suitable accommodation immediately on arrival at his new post abroad may be allowed to claim, for a period not normally exceeding 28 days, in lieu of foreign and rent allowances, a subsistence allowance at the rates specified in paragraph 12 of Regulation No. 5 for himself and for each member of his family for whom fares are payable from public funds.

4. Where an officer who has been granted a rent allowance is transferred to another post otherwise than at his own request and can show that he has been unable to dispose of the lease of his residence, he will be allowed to claim, as compensation for the rent for which he is liable, a sum which shall not exceed the rent allowance previously granted to him, for a period which will be determined by the Secretary of State, but which will not exceed three months except in special cases.

5. An officer who has been granted a rent allowance shall not receive that allowance during the periods of authorised absence unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that he has not been able to sub-let.

Comment :—

Officers who rent accommodation must furnish a certificate from the Head of the Diplomatic Mission or the Superintending consular officer—as the case may be—that they have made the most economical arrangements consistent with their rank and requirements. They must themselves defray any additional expenditure which may be caused by maintaining larger or more expensive establishments than are necessary. They must also endeavour to obtain a clause (known as a “diplomatic clause”) in the lease enabling them to terminate it at short notice in the event of transfer before its expiry.

REGULATION No. 7. LANGUAGE ALLOWANCE.

1. A language allowance of £10 a year will be payable to any officer of Branch D of the Foreign Service who is certified by the Head of the post to possess a knowledge (colloquial or otherwise) for ordinary purposes of the language (other than English) in current use in the country in which the officer holds a post.

2. This allowance may be increased to £20 a year to any officer who is certified by the Head of the post to possess a knowledge (colloquial or otherwise) for ordinary purposes of the following languages and who occupies a post in the country where the language in which he is proficient is in current use :—

Amharic	Modern Greek
Arabic	Persian
Bulgarian	Polish
Chinese	Russian
Czechoslovak	Serbo-Croatian
Finnish	Siamese
Hungarian	Turkish
Japanese

Comment :—

(1) Language allowances are subject to income tax.

(2) Members of Branch D of the Foreign Service will be expected, wherever possible, to learn the language of the country in which they are posted.

(3) Candidates for any of the allowances specified in this Regulation will normally be required to pay their own teacher's fees.

(4) No more than one such allowance will be payable under the provisions of this Regulation at any one time.

REGULATION No. 8. TRANSFERS AND PROMOTIONS.

1. All members of Branch D of the Foreign Service must be prepared to go to any post at which their services may be required.

Comment :—

When appointments and transfers are made account will be taken, so far as possible, of the circumstances and wishes of the individual ; members of the Service will, however, be expected to regard an intimation that they are to be transferred to a certain post as an order and not as a request.

2. Recommendations for promotion and transfers within Branch D will be made by Personnel Department in consultation with Establishment and Organisation Department and with the Foreign Service Inspectors. Recommendations for promotion will be subject to the approval of the Head of Personnel Department.

REGULATION No. 9. DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS.

1.—(i) This regulation applies to all cases where a member of Branch D of the Service is accused of a disciplinary offence. It does not apply to cases where an officer is merely admonished.

(ii)—(a) In this regulation the expression “disciplinary offence” means conduct by a member of the Service prejudicial to the interests of the Service or unbefitting the position which he holds in the Service, or disobedience of official instructions of such a character that a warning or a reprimand with or without a transfer to another post may be an appropriate penalty.

(b) In this regulation a “grave disciplinary offence” means a disciplinary offence which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, is of so serious a character that dismissal from the Service or a reduction in rank or a loss of seniority may be an appropriate penalty.

Comment to paragraph 1 (ii) :—

It is not possible or desirable to attempt to lay down rules which determine in all circumstances what conduct constitutes a disciplinary offence or a grave disciplinary offence nor the penalty that would be appropriate. There are certain courses of conduct which are reprehensible whatever the rank of the member; in other cases conduct may be reprehensible if the member holds a high post, but less serious when the member is of junior status. There are also courses of conduct which may most appropriately be dealt with by the Head of the post at which the officer is serving or by the Head of the Personnel Department direct. The Report of 25th February, 1928 (Cmd. 3037), of a Board of Enquiry appointed to investigate certain statements affecting civil servants is still fully applicable to members of the Foreign Service as a useful guide to their conduct.

The expression "official superior" means in the case of:—

- (i) a member of the staff of a Diplomatic Mission abroad, the Head of that Mission or a Foreign Service Inspector;
 - (ii) a member of the staff of a Consulate, the senior Consular Officer of the district or a Foreign Service Inspector.
3. The Secretary of State may suspend a member of the Foreign Service from duty if the question whether he has been guilty of a disciplinary offence is raised and the Secretary of State considers that his suspension is desirable until the question has been investigated and a decision reached. Unless the Secretary of State shall determine otherwise, the remuneration of an officer suspended from duty will cease from the date of his suspension. In the event of his reinstatement, it may, however, be restored wholly or in part should the Secretary of State so determine.
4. Complaints of disciplinary offences by a member of the Service shall be made by the official superior in a letter addressed to the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration setting out the full facts of the case with any comments or explanations which the official superior feels it necessary to make. A copy of this letter shall be communicated to the person complained of either by the official superior or, if he has not done so, by the Under-Secretary of State.
5. The member of the Service complained of may present his defence to the complaint made against him in a letter addressed to the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration. The latter may refer this letter to the official superior for his comments and any comments received in reply from the official superior will be communicated to the person complained of in order that he may have an opportunity of making any further reply which he may think necessary.
6. It is not desirable that the official superior should address any other communications about the case to the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration or to any other person, but should he do so, they will be treated in accordance with the procedure laid down in paragraph 4 above.
7. If the disciplinary offence is an ordinary disciplinary offence and the person complained of does not dispute the facts, the decision as to the penalty to be imposed may be taken by the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration and communicated by him or by the Head of the Personnel Department to the person concerned. If the person complained of disputes the facts alleged against him or wishes to appeal against the penalty, the case shall be referred to a committee, hereinafter referred to as "the Committee," called by the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration, consisting of representatives of Personnel Department and Establishment and Organisation Department, and on which a legal adviser of the Foreign Office shall sit if the Secretary of State so directs or if the person complained of so requests. In this event the Committee shall furnish to the Secretary of State in writing its opinion on the facts and as to what, if any, offence is proved (if the facts are in dispute), and its advice upon the penalty.

8.—(i) If the disciplinary offence is a grave disciplinary offence, and the person complained of does not dispute the facts alleged against him, the case shall be sent to the Committee to express their advice as to the penalty. This advice shall be furnished to the Secretary of State in writing.

(ii) If the person complained of disputes the facts alleged against him, his case shall be heard by the Committee and the Committee shall furnish to the Secretary of State in writing its opinion as to the facts and what offence (if any) is proved and its advice as to the penalty.

(iii) In either case the decision of the Secretary of State shall be communicated to the person concerned by the Under-Secretary of State responsible for Administration or by the Head of Personnel Department.

9. When any disciplinary offence is submitted for consideration to a committee called in the circumstances referred to above, all the letters relating to the offence referred to in paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 above shall be laid before the Committee. The Committee may summon any witnesses whom it considers it desirable to hear, and the accused person shall have a right to be heard and subject to the consent of the Committee, to bring any witnesses whom he may desire. The accused person shall have the right to be present when all other witnesses are giving evidence.

10. The decision as to the penalty shall in all cases remain vested in the Secretary of State after he has considered the report and advice of the Committee.

REGULATION No. 10. OVERTIME AND HOURS OF ATTENDANCE.

No overtime is payable to members of the Foreign Service at posts abroad.

FOREIGN EMBASSIES, LEGATIONS, AND CONSULATES IN THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH AND IN EIRE.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT FOR PRESERVING THE PRIVILEGES OF AMBASSADORS AND OTHER PUBLICK MINISTERS OF FOREIGN PRINCES AND STATES.*

(7 Ann, cap 12, 1708.)

Reasons for passing this Act.

WHEREAS several turbulent and disorderly persons having in a most outrageous manner insulted the person of His Excellency Andrew Artemonowitz Matuef, Ambassador Extraordinary of his Czarish Majesty, Emperor of Great Russia, Her Majesties good friend and ally, by arresting him, and taking him by violence out of his coach in the publick street, and detaining him in custody for several hours, in contempt of the protection granted by Her Majesty, contrary to the Law of Nations, and in prejudice of the rights and privileges which Ambassadors and other publick Ministers, authorised and received as such, have at all times been thereby possessed of, and ought to be kept sacred and inviolable.

[Ss. 1, 2, repealed 30 and 31 Vict. c. 59.]

All Process against Ambassadors Void.

3. And to prevent the like insolences for the future, be it further declared by the authority aforesaid, that all writs and processes that shall at any time hereafter be sued forth or prosecuted, whereby the person of any Ambassador, or other publick Minister of any foreign Prince or State, authorised and received as such by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or the domestick or domestick servant of any such Ambassador, or other Publick Minister, may be arrested or imprisoned, or his or their goods or chattels may be distrained, seized or attached, shall be deemed and adjudged to be utterly null and void, to all intents, constructions, and purposes whatsoever.

Persons Suing, or Officers, &c., executing Such Process.

Punishment.

4. And in case any person or persons shall presume to sue forth or prosecute any such writ or process, such person and persons, and all attorneys and solicitors prosecuting and soliciting in such case, and all officers executing any such writ or process, being thereof convicted, by the confession of the party, or by the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, the Chief Justice of the Court of Queens Bench, the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the time being, or any two of them, shall be deemed violators of the Laws of Nations, and disturbers of the publick repose, and shall suffer such pains, penalties, and corporal punishment, as the [said†] Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, and the said Chief Justices, or any two of them, shall judge fit to be imposed and inflicted.

Trade.

5. [‡ Provided and be it declared, that no merchant or other trader whatsoever, within the description of any of the statutes against bankrupts, who hath or shall put himself into the service of any such Ambassador or Publick Minister, shall have or take any manner of benefit by this Act.

Servant, &c., of Ambassador not privileged unless registered, &c.

6. And that no person shall be proceeded against as having arrested the servant of an Ambassador or Publick Minister, by virtue of this Act, unless the name of such servant be first registered in the office of one of the Principal Secretaries of State, and by such Secretary transmitted to the Sheriffs of London and Middlesex for the time being, or their Under Sheriffs or Deputies, who shall, upon the receipt thereof, hang up the same in some publick place in their offices, whereto all persons may resort, and take copies thereof, without fee or reward.]

7. all Sheriffs, Bailiffs and other officers and ministers of justice, concerned in the execution of process, are hereby required to have regard to this Act, as they will answer the contrary at their peril.

* Extracted from The Statutes Second Revised Edition, 1888. (Inserted by permission of H.M. Stationery Office.)

† Interlined on the roll.

‡ Annexed to the original Act in two separate schedules.

“A flying visit is a longer visit when time is short!”

I can remember the time—not so long ago, either—when an overseas assignment usually meant staying overseas until the job was finished. My leaves were too short for a holiday at home, so I was confined to ‘local’ holidays.

That’s all changed now, though. When my leave comes due I pack a bag and fly straight home by Speedbird. More than 150,000 miles of B.O.A.C. air routes means that ‘home’ is usually only a matter of hours away, or a day or so at the most, instead of weeks. I spend roughly an extra six days at home out of every seven when I fly by Speedbird. Yes, I repeat—a flying visit is a longer visit, especially when time is short! What’s more, I’m not travel-worn when I get home; I arrive rested and relaxed—and can really enjoy my holiday. As for the actual flight, it’s a dream of speed and comfort. The fine meals, the courteous attention—everything reflects credit on B.O.A.C.’s 30-year-old tradition of Speedbird service and experience.
